

IN THE SPIRIT @St. John Neumann Parish

May 20, 2012
SEVENTH SUNDAY
OF EASTER

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

GO INTO THE WHOLE WORLD AND PROCLAIM THE GOSPEL TO EVERY CREATURE.

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!
rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello all,

I have actually been meaning to address this issue in my article for some time now. Just been putting it off I guess, however on Friday I received an article on this very subject and said well I guess God is finally kicking me in the head and telling me it is time to talk about this. The issue: LEAVING MASS EARLY! And so, this article is from the very article given to me by a Fr. Lawrence Adamczyk, these words reflect my own thoughts.

We have always used the analogy of the Church as Jesus being the Bridegroom and the Church being the Bride. Given that and if we "The Church" receive the Eucharist and immediately walk out is not only disrespectful to our Spouse, Jesus, but means we truly do not understand what has just happened!

Upon the reception of the Eucharist we have all just received "the God of the Universe, the One who created you, the One who died on the cross for you, the Eternal, the Almighty God into your heart and soul and you don't even stop to say 'thank you' to your spouse." The question is: How can you have a deep personal intimate relationship with the one who loves you more then you can ever know, if you leave as soon as YOU get what YOU want?

On the 29th of May, I will have been ordained for 8 years and after every mass I stand in the back of the Church to say hello and goodbye to everyone. When people leave mass immediately after the reception of the Eucharist my heart is broken, not because as St. Paul says that "we must render an account." It breaks my heart because of the Book of Wisdom, "I... deemed riches nothing in comparison with her, nor did I liken any priceless gem to her; because all gold, in view of her is a little sand." We as a people should always show a GREAT REVERENCE to the Eucharist. I know this is not my feeling because I am a priest. Many people feel this way and understand it! To leave early is to NOT show reverence to the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, this breaks my heart!!! I wonder if we understand that after we receive Holy Communion, we are a walking tabernacle. I wonder what is so important, week after week, that one cannot spend a few moments in thanksgiving for receiving the Almighty God into their being?

As in the gospel story of the rich young man, "he went away sad, for he had many possessions, possessions that were more important than Jesus." "By our baptism, we are all called to that intimate and personal love that God has for each one of us." It cannot be that only the priest has a deep and personal relationship with God. Fr. Pedro Aruppe, one time superior General of the Jesuits is quoted as saying, "Nothing is more practical than finding God, that is, than falling in love in a quite absolute, final way."

"What you are in love with, what seizes your imagination will affect everything." It will decide what will get you out of bed in the morning, what you will do with your evenings, how you will spend your weekends, what you read, who you know, what breaks your heart, and what amazes you with joy and gratitude. Fall in love, stay in love and it will decide everything. Remember love is not about feeling or emotions; love is not about sex; love is about the choice to sacrifice for the good of the other.

Peace

FAITH WORKS

There are so many times when someone we love has to go away, or we have to go away. There are many times when, for whatever reason, someone has to move on and irrevocably change a relationship. Almost always this is painful, sometimes so painful that it leaves us feeling restless and empty, as if all the color, energy and joy have gone out of our lives.

But, as we know, this usually isn't the end of the story. Most of the time, after the restless, dark heartache of a painful goodbye has worn off, we experience the opposite, a deep joy in sensing now our loved one's presence in a different way.

Parents, for example, experience this when their children grow up and leave home to start lives of their own. At first, when a child leaves home to go to college, to get married or to take a job elsewhere, we are often left with a restless heartache that leaves us feeling empty.

But, after awhile, especially when our child, in the full bloom of adulthood, comes back to visit us, our heartache can just as quickly disappear because our loved one, now no longer a child, can offer us a richer love and presence than he or she could when they were little.

The pain of losing someone turns into the joy of finding something deeper in the one whom we thought we had lost. When Jesus was preparing his disciples for his ascension, he told them: "It is better for you that I go away. You won't understand this now. You will grieve and have heavy hearts, but, later, this will turn to joy and you will understand why I have to do this because, unless I go away, I can't send you my spirit."

We need to be present to each other physically, but we also need to be gone from each other at times. We bring a blessing both when we visit someone and when we leave after the visit is over.

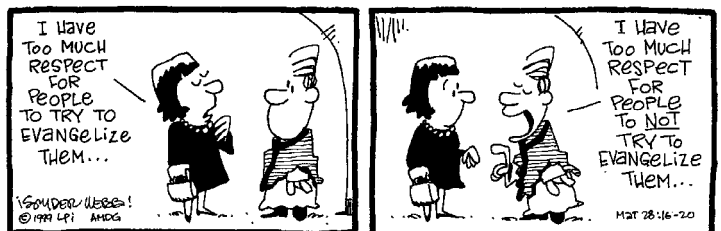

Presence is partly predicated on absence and there is something of our spirit that we can only give by going away.

Why is this so? Because absence is sometimes the only thing that can purify presence. When we are physically present, there are always certain tensions, irritations, disappointments, flaws in our bodies and faults in our character that partially block full love and blessing. That's why we rarely appreciate our loved ones fully, until they are taken away from us.

The mystery of saying goodbye is really the mystery of the Ascension, the most under-understood mystery both inside and outside of religion.

It's about the mystery of saying goodbye, when goodbye isn't really goodbye at all, but only love's way of taking on a different modality so that it can be present in a way that's deeper, purer, more permanent, less-clinging and less-limited by the tensions, disappointments, inadequacies, wounds and betrayals that, this side of eternity, forever make our intimacy a work in progress.

We finally have it. It is finally here. You may be wondering what I am talking about? St. John Neumann officially has a facebook page. This is a great tool to connect with parishioners and keep up to date with upcoming events. Now you may be wondering, what is our facebook link? You can first search on facebook for St. John Neumann Roman Catholic Church. If that doesn't work try stjohnneumanncantan. I hope all of you that have facebook take an active part in our page and use it.

Since I am still in the glow of my retreat, I thought I would share a prayer that my Jesuit Director gave me to pray during the retreat. In fact, I still pray with it every day and I hope you can find something out of it like I did.

COME HOLY SPIRIT

Replace the tension within us with a holy relaxation.

Replace the turbulence within us with a sacred calm.

Replace the anxiety within us with a quiet confidence.

Replace the fear within us with a strong faith.

Replace the bitterness within us with the sweetness of grace.

Replace the darkness within us with a gentle light.

Replace the coldness within us with a loving warmth.

Replace the winter within us with your spring.

Straighten our crookedness;

Fill our emptiness;

Dull the edge of our Pride;

Sharpen the edge of our humility;

Light the fires of our love

Quench the flame of our lust.

Let us see ourselves as You see us.

That we may see you in Yourself and in others as you have promised: 'Blessed are the pure of heart, for they shall see God.' Amen.

I hope you all enjoy the prayer and have a blessed remainder of the Easter Season.

Next weekend we are singing Amen. El Cuerpo de Cristo. I find the melody very beautiful. This hymn is one of Fr. Ron's favorites. The line that really strikes me is: Eating your body, drinking your blood, we become what we receive.

Here is some information about the composer off the Oregon catholic Press website:

John Schiavone has served as a parish priest for over 37 years in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, taking a full and active part in parish life. A source of his musical inspiration has always been the liturgical life of the Church, at which he regularly presides and preaches.

John builds his melodies along the lines and modes of Gregorian chant. "I want to keep that 'church' sound in my music and, at the same time make it accessible to the average worshiper," he says. His bilingual English/Spanish pieces are often used at diocesan celebrations across the country, especially the communion hymn "Amén. El Cuerpo de Cristo," which was included in the program for the Mass at Yankee Stadium celebrated by Pope Benedict XVI during his pastoral visit to New York in 2008.

John served for 12 years as pastor at St. Gregory the Great Parish in Whittier, California. He has recently begun a new assignment as pastor at St. Maria Goretti Parish in Long Beach, California.

Refrain:

Amén. El Cuerpo de Cristo
Amen. The Body of Christ
Amén. La Sangre del Señor
Amen. The Blood of the Lord.
Eating your body
Cuando comemos tu cuerpo
Drinking your blood.
Y bebemos tu sangre.
We become what we receive.
Nos coverimos en lo que recibimos.
Amén. Amén.

Verse 1: Amén.

We remember your dying.
Recordamos tu muerte
And your rising.
Y resurrección.
Amén.

“We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.
By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment
In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church.”

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

Last weekend the teens and the parish participated in Coins for a Cure. We can't thank you enough for each of your donations. It is amazing when this parish comes together and we raised over $1000 that will go to Relay for Life, which is this weekend. Speaking of, a very special thank you to Annie and Tom who are once again chaperoning Relay so that this pregnant lady does not have to stay all night! We really have the best adults working with our teens.

And speaking of adults working with our teens. I would like to thank the SJN Youth Ministry Adult Team for all their hard work and dedication this year! We have closed another youth group year and I am SO aware that we would not have half as successful of a youth program if it wasn't for the support of our Parish, our Pastor, and in particular, our adult team. Thank you so much to Scott, Tess, Chris, Tom, Annie, Jodi, Claire, Aaron and Stacia for everything you gave the teens this year!

Be sure to pick up your Cedar Point forms this week! All young people are welcome, but those that are younger than 8th grade in the Fall of 2012, must be accompanied by a parent. The trip includes bus fair and a ticket. We have a limited amount of spaces, so first come/first serve! We are excited to have you join us on June 19th for this awesome day!

Also, if you are senior be sure to pick up a brag board form in the gathering space, so that we can recognize you at our annual Graduation Mass on June 17th. This year, we will have a small continental breakfast following the Mass. We are so proud of each of our graduates and excited to honor you!!!

Have a super week!

Society of St. Vincent de Paul Seeking Jobs for the Families we Serve

One of the most frequent causes of the poverty Vincentians see in Canton Community relates to unemployment. We visit many families who were self sustaining until a sudden lay-off disrupted the family finances. The primary “bread winners” in these families want to work and are qualified to hold a variety of positions. It is very sad to see their frustration as application after application is denied.

One of the primary goals of SVDP is to prevent homelessness; so we have decided to join in the efforts of our families to search for employment by periodically offering their resumes to parishioners with the hope that one of you might be in a position to consider their applications.

Currently, we are assisting a single mom with two children who is looking for a position in Retail/Restaurant Management. She has 18 years of management experience. She has a degree from Eastern Michigan University. She has 8 years experience as an executive secretary for a major company and is looking for a similar administrative position. Her resume is available for your review at our SJN Office.

As always, members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul are grateful for the support of our parishioners. If you have not yet done so, please consider joining the Holiday Market and/or the Kroger Community Rewards program naming the Society of St Vincent de Paul at SJN as your charity. Forms can be found in the Gathering Area near the bulletins.

Neumann's Needlers

The Neumann's Needlers are currently creating lap blankets/shawls for older adults, baby hats and blankets, as well as hats for cancer patients. Thanks to some generous parishioners, we have a good selection of yarn for these projects. We gather on the second and fourth Tuesdays to work together, help each other, and enjoy each other's company. The May 2012 dates are May 8 and 22; we're here from 7:30 to 9 PM. Men and women, young and old, beginners and advanced, all are welcome.
