IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!
rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello to you all,

Recently I have finished reading a book from Matthew Kelly entitled, Rediscovering Catholicism. Some of you out there may have read the book as well it has been in print for about two years now. I thought I would share some ideas from the book with all of you throughout the course of the year. In the first chapter of the book the following two thoughts are posed: Why has Christianity been rejected and The Cry for Help!

Why Has Christianity been rejected?

Increasing numbers of people are choosing not to attend Church these days, in particular the younger generations. Many of these people were raised Catholic, they are intelligent, contribute in the community but want nothing to do with the Church. Sometimes we have to look within ourselves and ask some probing and uncomfortable questions: "Is it possible that we failed to engage them? Did the hypocrisy of individual church members or leaders obscure their experience of God? Did we fail to feed them? Did we ever really welcome them?"

We call ourselves Christians because "we believe that the life and teachings of Jesus Christ are the personification of truth, sincerity, and authenticity, and, in a practical sense, simply the best way to live." Given that this is true and we know that in the twenty-first century people are hungering for authenticity and the best way to live, as Christians we must ask ourselves: "Why are more people not enthusiastically embracing Christianity? Why, in fact, are so many people so hostile toward Christ and his Church?"

The possible reason is that people have become wary, doubtful, skeptical, and sadly, even cynical in their search for the truth. The position is wrong but the attitude is understandable. What is the cause of this confusion on their part?

It would seem to be the "unprecedented proliferation of words, symbols, images, and every manner of communication in the latter part of the twentieth century. People are tired; they are worn out, overloaded with information, and overwhelmed with the social, political, and economic climate. They are not striving to thrive; they are merely trying to survive. This is a tired culture."

The Cry for Help!

These people, the non-Christian and non-practicing brothers and sisters are indirectly giving witness to the Gospel. Within the message they send there is a challenge for you and me to embrace a life rooted more fully in the example and teaching of Jesus Christ. These people are saying to us "Don't tell me- show me!"

Their cry is a cry for help because they are so hungry for a courageous example of the authentic life, a life lived to the fullest, in this day and age. When we do not live it they see us as hypocrites and become disillusioned. In the words of Mahatma Gandhi, a man who read the New Testament every day and often quoted Christian Scriptures, as he answered a question from a reporter when asked why he never became a Christian - "If I had ever met one, I would have become one." Gandhi was saying "Don't tell me- show me!" revealing his search for an authentic life.

We all desire to live and authentic life, to be a witness. We want to be true to ourselves. But we are human and at times we fail in this. We know the need for kindness, compassion, generosity, forgiveness, acceptance, freedom, and love, but we have divided our hearts with a thousand contradictions and compromises.

At every moment, the entire modern world kneels before us, begging, pleading, beckoning for some brave man or woman to come forward and lead them with the example of an authentic life.

We are an age of abundance, but amid this abundance is a great hunger in people. A hunger for authenticity, a longing to be and become and experience all we are capable of and created for. Everything good in the future depends on whether or not we will follow this longing.

Peace

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? Facilitator Rosemarie Shim, social worker and parishioner, has 14 years experience working with Alzheimer patients and their families. The Alzheimer's Support group meets the third Thursday of each month at 7:30pm. Our next meeting will be Thursday, May 17th.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Rosemarie at 734-981-0556.

JUST A REMINDER—We normally limit names on the prayer list to three weeks, at which point the names can be moved to the list in the bulletin if the person is battling an ongoing illness. However, when the list becomes too long, it may become necessary to limit the reading to two weeks. Please know that we continuously pray for all who are in need whether they are on the actual list or not. If you would like us to add a name to the bulletin, please contact the front office. Thank you for your understanding.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and receive support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone special in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:
1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O'Flynn at 734-453-0829.

2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm, please call Cindy Pronze at 734-416-9914.

For special programs for children and teens, please call Regina Adams for an appointment at 313-268-6951.

Thomas More
(1478-1535)

Contact Rick at rcucchi@stjohnneumann.us

June 22 is Saint Thomas More's feast day. Thomas was a lawyer, statesman & author. In his lifetime he held many public offices including Lord Chancellor from 1529-1532. He was canonized in 1935 by Pius XI. More is also venerated in the Anglican Church. More is mostly remembered for his refusal to accept Henry VIII's claim to be supreme head of the Church of England. If you have never seen Paul Scofield play Thomas More in the movie A Man for All Seasons I urge you to see it! It is one of my all time favorite movies. Man for All Seasons was originally a play by Robert Bolt. It was first performed in London opening at the Globe Theatre on July 1, 1960. It later found its way to Broadway. The movie with Paul Scofield came in 1966.

Thomas More refused to endorse King Henry VIII's plan to divorce Katherine of Aragon; He refused to attend the coronation of Anne Boleyn in June 1533; and didn't like Henry's denial of the Pope's authority. One of my favorite lines from the movie, when Thomas More is speaking: "What matters is not that it's true, but that I believe it; or no, not that I believe it, but that I believe it." More fears that if he breaks with his conscience, he will be damned to hell, while his friends are more concerned with holding onto their own earthly power. More was found guilty of treason and beheaded on July 6, 1535. More's final words were: "The King's good servant, but God's First."

BLESSING OF FATHERS

God of all love,
 we ask you to bless all fathers,
 grandfathers, godfathers, adoptive fathers,
 foster fathers, stepfathers.
 and those men who treat us with fatherly care,
 today and every day.
 Their love for us
 has been a sign of your love for us.
 Their continuous concern for our needs and well-being mirrors your care for us.
 Bless them this day
 with your strength and your love,
 with your understanding and your compassion.
 Bless them with joy, love, laughter and pride in their children and surround them with many good friends.
 Bless them with happiness and good health,
 with peace and with contentment that they may live with you forever.
 We pray for our Fathers
 + in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

AMEN!

BLESSING OF GRADUATES

God of all knowledge and wisdom,
 You give us the capacity to discover and to learn,
 to understand and to reflect upon your creation.
 Bless our graduates who stand before us
 as people of knowledge.
 They have been challenged by their teachers and classmates to develop the desire for knowledge and the skill of critical thinking.
 Essays, tests, research papers, field trips,
 class presentations, projects and textbooks, lunch rooms, car pools and friendships have expanded their awareness of your world and uncovered their many talents.
 As this chapter of their lives closes,
 as they move on from school and classmate,
 be their friend and their guide.
 May they be grateful for the support of family and teachers and may they use their knowledge to develop your world of peace and justice.

We pray to you, O loving God,
 + Father, Son and Spirit,
 You who care for us today
 and every day of our lives.
 Amen.

Vacation Bible School is only a week away! VBS week is always a fun and exciting time here at St. John Neumann. This year we'll be soaring up to the SKY! Kids, teens and adults will all share an adventure of a lifetime, learning about God's love and message through several Bible stories. You don't want to miss this! Whether you're young enough to participate, or old enough to help.

SUMMER IS HERE!

It's that time of the year when our schedules become a little more relaxed but we never want to relax from our mission to do the work of Jesus. We are reminded of this mission at the end of every Mass. Our Faith UNwrapped Summer Project is to go live that mission daily. There are many ways to do this. We made some suggestions in our Take Home Gift, but you may find some ideas while on vacation as you read a bulletin from another church. Share the bulletin by putting it in the basket in the Gathering Area. Be sure and highlight things that parish does for service. Post a picture of your family in front of the church you visit at www.facebook.com/stjohnneuncanton.

Mark My Words

Contact Fr. Mark at mprill@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

Let me begin this week by congratulating all graduates from elementary school, high school, college, grad school, May you be guided and trust in the Lord's plan for you.

Gospel reflection: We all compare ourselves to others sometimes. We want to be the most popular, the richest, and the smartest. Take some time to think about how you see yourself in relation to others. How much time do you think you spend comparing yourself to others, or wishing you were somehow better or different? How much money do you spend on new clothes, makeup, or gadgets in order to make yourself feel better in comparison to others? Think about that as you read the words of the Gospel again. This Sunday, Jesus tells us that the mustard seed is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. In comparison to all other seeds, it is the very least. But when it is planted in the ground, it grows to be the largest of the plants. The plant that grows from the mustard seed is amazing not just because of its leaves, but because it gives shade to the birds. We are called not to be the biggest or the most important, but to be the greatest servants of God and others. Every time you start getting down on yourself or wishing you were different this week, direct your thoughts away from the negative and focus instead on taking one simple action on behalf of someone else. This can be as easy as sending an encouraging text message to a friend or doing a household chore as a service to your family. When you are finished with your act of kindness, chances are, all of the negative feelings you were having about yourself will have melted away. A special shout out to Robyn Apley, Ryan Apley, and Caitlin Browne who celebrated the sacrament of Confirmation at a neighboring parish on Saturday, June 2, 2012. Congratulations! Happy Father's Day!

"What makes a Dad?"

What makes a dad?

God took the strength of a mountain,
the majesty of a tree, the warmth of a summer sun, the calm of a quiet sea,
the generous soul of nature, the comforting arm of night
The wisdom of the ages, the power of the eagle's flight, the joy of a morning in spring,
The faith of a mustard seed, the patience of eternity, the depth of a family need,

Green, it always has to be green. We are now completed with the celebrations for Corpus Christi and the Holy Trinity. Now we are back to the ho-hum of ordinary time. This is the time now where we travel more because school is out or just about out. The first thing is to remember as we enter the summer season, there is nothing ordinary about the time we are now in with the Church. There are many challenges, opportunities to grow in faith, and to develop a relationship with God. We need to make sure to do something this summer besides mass. There are a countless number of good books to read. If you need any ideas please let me know. Also remember to use the website, www.Masstimes.org. This website tells every mass time in the United States for every Catholic Church. Make sure to use it and not forget about mass as you travel.

I want to say congratulations to all the graduates. It was a long journey and now you are beginning a new adventure. You never know where God will lead you but remember to keep him in your life as you go off for new and exciting adventures. I will be praying for all of you as you move forth into college.

Also as you go through the summer think about what you can do for God at St. John Neumann. There are many opportunities to be involved with at the parish. I encourage you to pray and think about it for the fall. There are many Christian service projects to be involved with or you may wish to be a catechist. Maybe you want to help at VBS (Vacation Bible School). Whatever there is, I encourage you think about it, pray about it, and let the Holy Spirit guide you.

I hope everyone has a blessed week and enjoy the warm weather.

Fr. Mark

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

We are so very proud of our graduates today. Once again, putting the brag board together has been a humbling experience, because it is so clear how terrific each of our graduates is, and the bright future they have ahead of them. Please make sure to take a second to congratulate our graduates this weekend and to check out the brag board that speaks of their accomplishments!

Blessing of Graduates

Before you were even formed, God knew you.
While in your Mother's womb, God named you.
At your birth, God's breath filled you with life.
Today we celebrate what you have become at this moment in time. And so we pray,

God of our beginnings,
We thank you for the gifts of these graduates;
their excitement, their awesome wonder and curiosity,
their open speech and encouraging words.
Their contributions have blessed and challenged us,
and we have become a richer and more diverse community because of them.

As they step forward into the world that awaits, comfort their fears with the full knowledge of your divine presence.
Strengthen their resolve to walk in the footsteps of Jesus
as modern-day disciples in a world that needs their spirit.
Guide their feet as they move through life, protecting them from the pitfalls of darkness while they help to lead future generations into the warmth and promise of your light.

We ask this blessing upon each of them,
In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

AMEN!

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

As both Catholics and Americans, we have enjoyed a freedom to live our faith that, in many parts of the world, sadly does not exist. As we approach the anniversary of American Independence this year, my brother bishops and I are asking every Catholic in the United States to reflect seriously on the state of religious liberty through your own participation in the Church's Fortnight for Religious Freedom, which begins on Thursday.

Today, we face some alarming circumstances. The freedom we have to believe in Jesus Christ and to live our lives according to the teachings of His Church is a freedom we are accustomed to having protected by our federal government and by our states. It is a freedom given by God, that is meant to be protected by government. Today, however, in too many instances, we are finding it under attack.

Most prominently, Catholic institutions in Michigan and across the country are fighting an unconstitutional health care mandate that would force Catholic organizations to pay for services that violate our deeply held religious beliefs. That, however, is not our only concern. As Christians, we give charity and pastoral care to undocumented immigrants – a practice that is threatened by a number of state laws. We are experiencing the federal government imposing its own definitions on what a church is, and what a minister is. In several states, Catholic organizations can no longer provide foster care, adoption services, and vital humanitarian aid – simply because we do so according to our Christian faith. We are seeing Christian student organizations at college campuses being denied their status in certain states because of their beliefs. The list goes beyond what I can convey in this letter.

Religious liberty is not only about our ability to go to Mass on Sunday, or to pray the Rosary at home. It is about whether we can live as Christ would have us live – whether we can make our contribution to the common good of all Americans.

In your parish bulletins, and on the website of the Archdiocese of Detroit (www.aod.org), you will find information on the Fortnight for Religious Freedom, which takes place from June 21 through July 4. The fortnight entails Masses, rallies, prayer services and other events. All are welcome to join me for Mass at the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament at 4 p.m. on June 24. I also encourage you to take part in the events and services in your area – and to learn more about this initiative through our website.

Above all, I ask that you pray for our country, and for its leaders. I invite you to join with Catholics across the country in our urgent prayer for religious liberty:

continued

Prayer for Religious Liberty

*Almighty God, Father of all nations,
For freedom you have set us free in Christ Jesus (Gal 5:1).*

*We praise and bless you for the gift of religious liberty the foundation of human rights, justice, and the common good.
Grant to our leaders the wisdom to protect and promote our liberties;
By your grace may we have the courage to defend them, for ourselves and for all those who live in this blessed land.*

*We ask this through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, our patroness, and in the name of your Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
with whom you live and reign, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.*

Preserving our God-given religious liberty is not a Catholic issue. It is an American issue. If our obligations and duties to God are impeded or contradicted by the government, then we can no longer claim to be a land of the free and a beacon of hope for the world. May God bless you, and may God bless our United States of America.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

The Most Reverend Allen H. Vigneron
Archbishop of Detroit

VOLLEYBALL COACHES NEEDED

St. John Neumann parish has openings for two head coaches for the upcoming girls 2012 CYO volleyball season. Openings are for 5/6 and 7th grade girls teams. Practice begins second week of August and season runs through second week of October. Anyone 21 years of age and with prior coaching experience is welcome. Each coach must submit to a background check, as well as complete a "protecting God's children" class. If interested please contact Athletic Director Walt Marek at 734 455-5910.

The wooden food collection bins and the containers for hearing aids & eye glasses have been moved to the small hallway just right of where they originally were.

Thanks so much for your donations.

They are greatly appreciated.
