IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!
rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello!

How is everyone doing this weekend? Well, I first wanted to congratulate Diane Brown, a member of our parish, who received candidacy in the IHM (Immaculate Heart of Mary) Sisters a little over a week ago. I went down to the Mother House for the mass and reception into candidacy. Thanks to her for listening to the voice of God in making this choice!

This weekend is the 15th Sunday of Ordinary time

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out, Two by Two, and gave them authority over unclean spirits.

The sending of the apostles did not end when Jesus sent out the Twelve or on the last pages of the four Gospels. We too have been summoned to advance the reign of God, to act and speak in the spirit of Jesus.

What is essential with God?

What do you leave behind to find God (or for God to find you?)

What blocks Jesus? (from working through you?)

“To those who love money and pleasure and reputation and power it says: be poor, go down into the far end of society, take the last place among men, live with those who are despised, love other men and serve them instead of making them serve you. Do not fight when they push you around, but pray for those who hurt you. Do not look for pleasure, but turn away from things that satisfy your senses and look for God in hunger and thirst and darkness, through the deserts of the spirit in which it seems to be madness to travel. Take upon yourself the burden of Christ’s Cross, that is Christ’s humility and poverty and obedience and renunciation, and you will find peace for your soul.” (Thomas Merton, New Seeds of Contemplation)

Peace

FAITH WORKS

In today's gospel, travel had its dangers. Provisions were scarce. The activities of marauding bandits made travel perilous.

So, Jesus instructed the Twelve to travel in pairs for safety, and to travel light for endurance (the lighter one traveled, the faster he or she could go). Since many people traveled in large caravans, the missionaries could join these groups and share their provisions. Hospitality was a common, honorable virtue that acted as a counter weight to the dangers of travel. Travelers were safe in numbers and safe with a caring host.

With the call of Jesus came power. The Twelve preached. They exercised power over spirit that possessed and weakened their victims. In the mind set of the ancient world, Jews commonly believed the cosmos contained a hierarchy of beings. The transcendent God sat at the pinnacle of this order. Then, came powerful spiritual beings ("archangels, principalities, and powers"). Third, came lesser spirits (common angels and "unclean spirits"). Fourth, stood humanity. Finally, came plant and animal life. Notice authority delineated this hierarchy of being. The higher level of being had power over the lower forms. So, unclean spirits could possess, weaken, and even kill people. This was the way of existence for the ancient. But, the Jesus and his Twelve preached to announce a change in that hierarchy. God would adopt humanity, making its members "sons" and "daughters" of the Father (in doing so, humanity would jump two levels of being above powerful spiritual beings. This was Good News!) Jesus, the very Son of God, gave his Twelve power over a higher level of being ("unclean spirits") as they preached the coming of the Kingdom.

In this summer time of relaxation and leisure travel, let us remember the efforts of those who went before us. Those who evangelized us, our parents, or grandparents. Their travels, their sweat and tears, their example brought others to Christ. Along our travels, let us take time, thank God for the efforts of missionaries past, and seek to do good for others. Let us live in their spirit of self-giving and in the Spirit that moves us all to action.

Do you know someone who has never been baptized?
who has talked about becoming a Catholic?
who hasn't completed the Sacraments of Initiation?
who wants to be updated in the Catholic Faith?

Then invite that person to contact me!

We are forming a group
for the Adult Faith Inquiry, to begin on Wednesday, September 12.
Catholics make up 99% of the church.
Our witness to the role of Jesus in our life affects others greater than any Papal declaration or slick marketing campaign.

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

Happy 'Working our Way through the Month of July' weekend! Please remember the awesome Religious Formation challenge this summer to bring home bulletins from the various parishes we will visit during our summer vacations. Teens, I know that we go on a lot of trips during the summer, we would love to have you participate in this one.

In other news, I ran across this blessing for trips on the internet and thought it was really good. It is slightly adapted, but think about praying together as a family before you leave on your journeys this summer!

Leader: May the Lord turn his face toward us and guide our feet into the way of peace, now and forever.

All: Amen.

Leader: Let us pray that God will give us and all those who travel a prosperous journey and that as we travel we will praise God in all his creatures; that we will experience God's own goodness in the hospitality we receive, and bring the Good News of salvation to all those we meet; that we will be courteous toward all; that we will greet the poor and afflicted with kindness and know how to comfort and help them.

All: Amen.

Read Tobit 5:17

Leader: All powerful and merciful God, you led the children of Israel on dry land, parting the waters of the sea; you guided the Magi to your son by a star. Grant us a safe journey. Under your protection, let us reach our destination and come at last to the eternal haven of salvation. We ask this through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

Leader: May almighty God bless us in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

In his 'Porta Fidei' he encourages all Catholic Christians for a "more complete conversion to God" and to a renewed commitment to the teachings of God through Jesus Christ. Let us come together in this Silent Retreat to pray for God's grace for a total conversion to the true teachings of God, faithfully handed down by the Church, and to be valid witnesses for the spreading of the faith in today's world. We are honored to have Fr. Bernard Luedtke as our Retreat Master.

Neumann's Needlers

We are currently creating lap blankets/shawls for older adults, baby hats and blankets, as well as hats for cancer patients. Thanks to some generous parishioners, we have a good selection of yarn for these projects. We gather on the second and fourth Tuesdays to work together, help each other, and enjoy each other's company. We next meet on July 24; we're here from 7:30 to 9:00 PM. Men and women, young and old, beginners and advanced, all are welcome.

SUMMER IS HERE!

It's that time of the year when our schedules become a little more relaxed but we never want to relax from our mission to do the work of Jesus. We are reminded of this mission at the end of every Mass. Our Faith UNwrapped Summer Project is to go live that mission daily. There are many ways to do this. We made some suggestions in our Take Home Gift, but you may find some ideas while on vacation as you read a bulletin from another church. Share the bulletin by putting it in the basket in the Gathering Area. Be sure and highlight things that parish does for service. Post a picture of your family in front of the church you visit at www.facebook.com/stjohnneuanncanton.
