IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!
rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello!

I hope everyone had a wonderful week this past week. So it is August! Yep summer is almost over, school is starting and why not just call it what it is, it is Christmas! The summer just flew by didn't it? In just a few short weeks we are going to be having our parish picnic and then school will actually be starting. I hope all of you have had a pleasant summer to this point.

This weekend is the 18th Sunday of Ordinary time and we hear of the bringing down of manna from the desert. When we think of how the Israelites were so concerned about where their nourishment would come from, they completely forgot about the real nourishment, which is God filling their hearts with His love. The nourishment that gives them life forever. I frequently wonder how often we forget about this in our own lives? It is easy to look on the outside in and say, I would never act the way the Israelites do. However, if we take an honest look at ourselves I think we can all say that is not true!

As you drive home today I ask you to think about the following:

Do you believe like Moses in "the bread that the LORD has given you to eat?"

Do you believe that the "bread of angels" is sent to you in abundance?

Do you receive the Eucharist and Reconciliation as often as you are able?

What does it mean, "put on the new self?"

How do you become enabled to believe in and be one with Jesus?

"I am a dwelling place. I am not alone. In the secret depths of my poor human substance is the presence of God. Not a God who is solitary but a God who is Trinity, a God who is love. A God who is Father, a God who is Son, A God who is Holy Spirit. But a God made one by love. And a God whose love enables me to become one with him: 'that you may be one as you, Father, are in me, and I am in you, I pray that they may be one in us, that the world may believe that you sent me' (John 17:21). I believe that no moment exists for man that is more important, more beautiful, more dramatic, more decisive, more radical than the moment when he becomes aware of – or, rather, 'lives' – this reality." (Carlo Corretto)

The Lord Gave Them Bread from Heaven

This weekend we are singing a psalm which has chanted verses: The Lord gave them bread from Heaven. Chanted psalm verses is an ancient practice of the Catholic Church. Michel Guimont composed the music for this weekend's setting. It can be found in our Gather hymnal at # 73.

Michel Guimont is a native to Quebec whose music has been available to the Catholic Church in the US since 1991. Currently he is Music Director at the Cathedral of Ottawa. He holds degrees in psychology and music composition.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

After the sign of the loaves and fishes, John began the discourse on the Bread of Life that will last in the readings for the next four Sundays. In typical Johannine fashion, the dialogue worked on two levels, 1) between Jesus and his audience and 2) between John's community and the synagogues influenced by the Pharisees. In the case of the level two, there was a tug-of-war between a spirituality focused on the present and one focused on the past. Between one centered on the activity of God now, and one concerned primarily about God's action in the history. Between presence and tradition. Of course, God's action in the past and the present cannot be separated. But the minds of people needed a hook, a vantage point to see God working. Time was a perfect starting point.

The crowd that was fed sought Jesus for more satisfaction. If Jesus fed them once, he would feed them again. With bread. With preaching about the Kingdom. With insight. With signs of God's power. But, Kingdom was not about personal satisfaction. It was about faith in Jesus. The crowd focused upon what they could get from Jesus. Not what they could give to Jesus. This difference between take vs. give set up the tension and misunderstanding in the passage. The bread the people received would spoil. But, the Bread that gave eternal life stood before them. This man, this Jesus, was the One God placed his seal of approval upon. God empowered his Son and his Son's ministry.

Jesus did not say he would give them bread. He stated that, in his divinity, HE was the Bread of Life. To feed from him, people would have to come and to trust him. Then, they would be truly satisfied.

For John's audience, of course, only the Christian community held up the Christ as one to be worshiped as God. So, the only way to come and trust was through that community. This was the challenge Christianity lay before its Jewish competitors. The activity of God was present in the community, because the Christ was present. While what God did was important, what God was doing now was more important.

How is God active in your life now?

How does the Bible and tradition help that insight?

Do you know someone

FAITH FORMATION

BY DONNA FRANKE

In today's Gospel (John 6: 24-35) Jesus tells us that he is the Bread of Life. "I am the bread of life; whoever comes to me will never hunger, and whoever believes in me will never thirst." When Jesus says this he is talking about nourishment for our hearts and our spirits. The first thing we might think of, when Jesus says this, is that he is the Bread of Life in the Eucharist. When we receive communion we are indeed nourished by Jesus in a special way. But there are also other moments when our hearts and our spirits are nourished by Jesus. When we pray to Jesus, read the Bible, or do good things for others we are nourished by Jesus. Sometimes we forget where to turn when our hearts or our spirits are hungry. Jesus is the person to whom we can turn.

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Happy August!

This week we hear Jesus tell us he is the bread of life, and that whoever comes to him will never be hungry. Bread is our most basic, staple food. Sometimes we find ourselves eating bread three meals a day, in the form of bagels, or pancakes during breakfast, sandwiches or pizza dough at lunchtime, pasta or rolls at dinner. Every nation of the world has their own form of bread in its cuisine: rice, pasta, loaves, tortillas, pitas (yum), couscous. Bread is filling and nourishing. This is true of Jesus, too. He is there for us at all times of the day, and he came for everyone in the world. He fills us and gives us the nourishment we need. This week each time we eat any type of bread, say a quick prayer in your heart thanking God for the gift of Jesus.

Religious Formation Registration for the 2012/2013 year is underway. We have registration forms available in the Gathering area. Our classes resume the week of September 17th.

Thanks for listening, have a great week everyone and enjoy the SONshine!

WINE TASTING

In July 2010 I was given the opportunity to go on a pilgrimage to El Salvador with a local group. I was hesitant to go and unsure of what I would experience. I am so happy that I took the leap of faith and went with my daughter Carly to show solidarity with the people in the rural communities outside of Suchitoto.

One of the places we visited was La Mora Medical Clinic. This clinic has been supported by the generosity and fundraising efforts of Resurrection Parish in Canton since 2005. We took a tour of this small, rural clinic which provides access to medical care to approximately 25,000 impoverished people and met one of the doctors and the nurse who work there. Without this clinic and the funding by Resurrection Parish, these people would not have medical treatment without traveling a great distance.

When we came home from this life-changing week, my daughter and I wanted to help the people and the communities that we had visited. The people we met feel like family to us now and we hope that you will help support them now. Our parish's summer project is to do the work of Jesus and I have a suggestion for you to do just that. Resurrection Parish will be having their annual Wine Tasting/Silent Auction here at St. John Neumann on Friday, September 28th at 7:30 p.m. I hope that you will join me at this fundraiser to benefit the clinic and my extended family in El Salvador. It will be a fun and easy way to do the work of Jesus.

Be sure to save the date and watch the bulletin for more information regarding ticket sales. If you have any questions, please email me at elenagmo@wowway.com.

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

My husband has high-jacked my bulletin article! At least it is good stuff. Check out the article below. This course changed our lives and can do the same for you. Single, newly married, married for 10. 20. 30 years...this class will benefit everyone! Excited to see you there!

This Fall, St. John Neumann is going to be offering a great, life-changing program. Along with asking parishioners for their generosity in financially contributing to various ministries in both the parish and outside activities, we are going to offer a program that helps parishioners with their own finances. We've all seen the numbers and statistics about how families are struggling financially to prosper. 70% of Americans are living paycheck to paycheck and money fights and money problems are the #1 cause of divorce in our society. So we are going to show families how to win with their money. Starting Thursday, September 13th, we are going to be offering a program called Financial Peace University. This is a 9-week course taught by Dave Ramsey who is a financial author, radio host, television personality, and motivational speaker. Each week's session will be 1.5 hours in length. There will be a 45 minute video lesson taught by Dave on video followed by small group discussions to talk about the lesson that was just presented. Millions of families have taken this course around the country and we are happy to bring it to St. John Neumann. Financial Peace University participants have averaged lowering debts by $5,300 and increasing savings by $2,700 over the course of the program and have clear plans to pay off debt, prepare themselves for retirement, kid's college funds, and all the other financial goals that families have. There will be a free preview of the class after every mass on August 18th and 19th.
