Bartholomew, apostle

This week, on Friday, August 24 as Catholics we celebrate the feast of Bartholomew- one of the 12 apostles. Apart from being listed among the Twelve, Bartholomew appears as one of the witnesses of the Ascension (Acts 1:4, 12, 13). We have 1 church in the Archdiocese of Detroit dedicated to this Saint- it was founded in 1925 in the 8-mile/1-75 area of Detroit on East Outer Drive.

Bartholomew was from Cana, in Galilee, who some scholars believe to be also called Nathaniel (John 1:45). He preached the gospel in India & Armenia and converted great numbers to Christ. In the end he was cruelly tormented, flayed (Skinned) alive, and then beheaded by Astyages. Because of responses to intercessory prayers made to him, he became well known as a healer during the Middle Ages- many hospitals have been named after him (e.g.- St. Bartholomew's Hospital in London).

In Rome, there is an island in the Tiber River, called Tiber Island, which was the site of an ancient temple to Aesculapius, the Greek god of medicine and healing (the staff of Aesculapius is used as the symbol of medicine in the today). A basilica for St. Bartholomew was built on the site of that temple in the year 998 by Emperor Otto III and is known as San Bartolomeo all'Isola (St. Bartholomew-on-the-Island). It is believed that there was a spring of sacred waters at the ancient temple.

Are we today here in Canton Michigan apostles for Christ? The definition of an apostle is: One sent as an envoy or messenger. Bartholomew's friend Philip brought him to Jesus. I know a priest who in his funeral homilies puts it this way: I think when we get to heaven God will ask us 2 questions: Do you love me & who did you bring with you?

FAITH WORKS

Is everyone ready for school? There are ads everywhere reminding us that classes will begin soon and that students need new clothes and supplies for a successful year.

Are you setting your schedule for the Fall? Plans for healthier living? One more diy project before the cold weather? An enrichment class? If you have children, setting up car pools? Choosing extracurricular activities? The planning cycle definitely has begun.

What about your faith formation? Not just for your children but for YOU! Faith UNwrapped is faith formation for all ages. Yes, for families but for individuals too. 2012/13 is an extraordinary time for Catholics.

Pope Benedict has set this year as the "YEAR OF FAITH." He invites Catholics to a renewal and maturing of their faith in Jesus. He designated October 11 as the beginning of the Year of Faith. This date is also the 50th anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council.

The Design team for Faith UNwrapped has been planning throughout the summer to help you reflect on the Themes of the Council as a means to help you reflect on the maturity of your faith. As a reminder look for the "Did You Know about Vatican II" insight each week. I hope you add Faith UNwrapped to your calendar this year.

Did You Know about Vatican II...

Pope John XXIII saw the two-fold purpose of the Council to be an updating of the Church and the work of Christian Unity.

Parish Picnic

Do you know someone who has never been baptized? who has talked about becoming a Catholic? who hasn't completed the Sacraments of Initiation? who wants to be updated in the Catholic Faith?

Then invite that person to learn more! We are forming a group for the ADULT FAITH INQUIRY, to begin on Wednesday, September 12.

Lay folks make up 99% of the church. Our witness to the role of Jesus in our life affects others greater than any papal declaration or slick marketing campaign.

Invite someone to come to know Jesus in the community of faith.

In today's Gospel reading we hear Jesus talk more about being the Bread of Life for us . This week I heard a wonderful meditation on our receiving of Jesus during the Mass. The meditation was given by Sister Margaret Scott. Sr. Margaret reminded us that during the Mass we ask the Holy Spirit to transform the bread and wine into the Body and Blood of Jesus but we also ask the Spirit to transform us, the people of God, into the Body of Christ. And of course we know that Jesus has told us that whatever we do to others , especially the least among us, we do him. So Sr. Margaret pointed out that when we say "Amen" and receive the Eucharist into our hand we are indeed saying "Amen" to the body of Christ present in the host but also in each other. It is as though we embrace the entire human race but especially the poor. Our "Amen" lays an incredible responsibility on us.

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,
 These past few weeks we have heard from the book of John. This week, we hear Jesus tell the crowds, "Amen, amen I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day." I wonder if I was in the crowd at that time would I truly understand what Jesus was saying. Today, sometimes it is hard for people to truly "get" it. We travel all over to different cities, and towns to get a glimpse of celebrities and artists in concerts, plays, movies, etc. What would happen if Jesus came into the world right now? Would people go to great lengths to see him? What lengths would you go just to set eyes on him for a second? Perhaps someone famous has visited your city or town, and you have a sense of what happens. We can only imagine that it would be just like that times a thousand if Jesus were to come. We must remember Jesus is present, in person in every tabernacle of every Catholic Church in the world, and many people never find the time to go and see him. At Mass, Jesus comes down from heaven and becomes present to us in the form of bread and wine so that we can take him, touch him, and be nourished by him, and sometimes people often find reasons not to show up. This week, let us reflect in prayer on what the Eucharist means to us. If there is someone in your life who has been skipping Mass, remind him or her of the meaning of the Eucharist and invite him or her to join you next time you go to Mass. Have a great week everyone and remember non exposure to the SON will cause burning.
 Peace & Prayers,

Sabrina Queen

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Need R.N. to lead Wednesday morning blood pressure clinic at SJN. Big reward, little commitment. Call the Parish Office for more information

SAVE THE DATE

In July 2010 I was given the opportunity to go on a pilgrimage to El Salvador with a local group. I was hesitant to go and unsure of what I would experience. I am so happy that I took the leap of faith and went with my daughter Carly to show solidarity with the people in the rural communities outside of Suchitoto.

One of the places we visited was La Mora Medical Clinic. This clinic has been supported by the generosity and fundraising efforts of Resurrection Parish in Canton since 2005. We took a tour of this small, rural clinic which provides access to medical care to approximately 25,000 impoverished people and met one of the doctors and the nurse who work there. Without this clinic and the funding by Resurrection Parish, these people would not have medical treatment without traveling a great distance.

When we came home from this life-changing week, my daughter and I wanted to help the people and the communities that we had visited. The people we met feel like family to us now and we hope that you will help support them now. Our parish's summer project is to do the work of Jesus and I have a suggestion for you to do just that. Resurrection Parish will be having their annual Wine Tasting/Silent Auction here at St. John Neumann on Friday, September 28th at 7:30 p.m. I hope that you will join me at this fundraiser to benefit the clinic and my extended family in El Salvador. It will be a fun and easy way to do the work of Jesus.

Be sure to save the date and watch the bulletin for more information regarding ticket sales. If you have any questions, please email me at elenagmo@wowway.com.

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

My article is still being hijacked by the ol' husband...I guess I will have to forgive him seeing as though Financial Peace University made a significant difference in our life when we got married and I handed him over 80 thousand dollars in student debt. Seriously, check out the class! If you are single, married, just starting off life, been living your 'grown up' life for years! This class will significantly affect you for the better!

For those of you who will be around this weekend, there will be a FREE preview of Financial Peace University that will be happening after all of the masses. Before the free preview, at the end of each mass, I'll also share some of my personal testimony. This program has been such a blessing to my family that I feel that I must share our story to whoever we can to show prove that this stuff actually works. There's no gimmicks or tricks going on here. This free preview will give those interested a look into the class and the style of the lessons that we'll be looking at every week. Hopefully you'll get a taste of how dynamic Dave Ramsey is as a teacher and presenter. I'll also be present to answer any questions you may have about the class. This is such a wonderful opportunity that is being brought to St. John Neumann and we want to have as many people sign up as possible so that we can start changing lives and family trees. If have some free time after whatever mass you attend, please check out this preview of Financial Peace University. I can guarantee you that you will not be disappointed!- Aaron Wilkerson

Teens! Next weekend is the Church picnic after the 12:30 Mass! Please plan on attending, enjoying and of course, helping out...it would be super if you could show up early for set up and help wherever you are needed! Rock.Stars. Thank you.

And, maternity leave is official over which means...I'm baaaaaack! Spending time with the newest little one and managing the active one year old has been awesome, but I sure am looking forward to starting the new school year. More details on that in the weeks to come!

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul

... From the Treasurer

September marks the end of the fiscal year for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. This seems like an appropriate time to let you, who share in our mission to serve the poor, know what your generous donations to our Top Hat Sunday collections have accomplished. From September 2011 through July 2012, together, we have provided the following services to the needy in our community:

Provided Shelter - $14,122 *
Prevented Utility Shut off - $4,453
Provided auto repair - $2,308
Provided food - $1,169
Provided Clothing - $200
Provided medical assistance - $1,084
Provided furniture and bedding- $802
Other - $977
Twinning with other parishes - $2,680

*Within this category, we provided shelter for 13 homeless individuals/families, in addition to preventing evictions for other families.

Although SVDP received a grant from the Plymouth United Way in December 2011 and some additional funding from Christian Service in June 2012, the primary funding for our mission comes from the wonderful generosity of you, our parishioners and partners. Please continue your support each month during Top Hat Sundays, as your donations are vital to our work. You will see the smiling faces of our Vincentians literally “with their hats in their hands” on the 3rd weekend of each month. Please continue to be generous. May God Bless us all.
