

IN THE SPIRIT @St. John Neumann Parish

October 21, 2012

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests, however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

Hello to you all!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

I hope this week has found you all well!

First I want to let the 5:30 mass crowd know that at the end of mass next week we are going to have a meeting immediately after the mass ends right inside the body of the church to discuss the mass. As you know, over the two and a half years I have been here I have made several appeals to all of you, included two articles I wrote this past summer, one in July and the other in September. I am taking the time after mass on Sunday the 28th to further discuss this situation. So there will be no recessional hymn on that day when the 5:30 mass comes to a close.

On a spiritual note, as you head home this weekend from the liturgy I ask you to reflect on the following from what you experienced in the mass:

How do you serve the community around you?

How do you reflect Christian values in your life regardless of the cost?

How are you a servant to the most vulnerable?

How do you model Christian values that conflict with secular values?

From who I think may have been the greatest Theologian of the 20th century Avery Cardinal Dulles:

“The Church’s mission, in the perspective of this theology (church as servant), is not primarily to gain new recruits for its own ranks, but rather to be of help to all men, wherever they are. The special competence of the Church is to keep alive the hope and aspiration of men for the Kingdom of God and its values. In the light of this hope the Church is able to discern the signs of the times and to offer guidance and prophetic criticism. In this way the church promotes the mutual reconciliation of men and initiates them in various ways into the Kingdom of God.” (Dulles, Avery Cardinal, Models of the Church)

FAITH WORKS

A simple test of character is the question: "Why?" Why does the candidate seek the power a political position holds? Why does the actor seek fame in Hollywood or on Broadway? Why does the business person seek wealth or the climb up the corporate ladder? Why does the person of faith seek a position of ministry?

There is nothing intrinsically wrong with ambition in any of these fields. In fact, most people use ambition to better themselves and their surroundings. But the question must be asked: why do they seek? Do they want to wealth and fame and power for themselves alone? Or do they want to use these ambitions for the greater good? These were the questions Jesus asked his followers when the subject of ambition raised its head among the Apostles.

Jesus rejected a leadership of power but pointed to a leadership of service. He uses the image of the servant/waiter at a dinner to make his point. At the banquet of God's kingdom, it was not the person who passed the cup that was important; it was the one who took the order. Referring to the "Son of Man" image, Jesus saw himself on the cross as the primary model for "servant leadership."

Think of waiters or waitresses in our own culture. A good waiter or waitress must be part entertainer (making good "small talk") when the order is placed, timely provider of food and drink, and invisible guide, ever to provide assistance, yet at a discrete distance. They are to leave us alone when we desire privacy, but approach immediately when we need help. They are to serve us and, in doing so, they lead us through the meal.

Jesus fits the waiter/servant role perfectly. He leads by serving us; even though he seems distant, he is ever present to help. As Christians, we are to lead others in the same way, with tact and quiet guidance, by moral example and moral commitment. Such leadership leads to the cross. But it also leads to resurrection.

MINISTRY SIGN-UP - THIS WEEKEND

ALTAR SERVERS, CHOIR MEMBERS,
COMMUNION MINISTERS, LECTORS,
MEDIA MINISTERS, SACRISTANS, USHERS

Every year at this time, we invite parishioners to come forward to serve at the Liturgy. It's something we all should do at some time in our lives. Perhaps now is your time. We have great training, supportive leadership and flexible scheduling!

If you are completing a commitment to liturgy, consider moving to Formation, Christian Service, or Stewardship. There are plenty of opportunities to offer your time and talents in the Assembly Room this weekend.

I hear that it is also Hospitality Weekend, another reason to get to the Assembly Room.

FAITH FORMATION

BY DONNA FRANKE

Religious Formation

THIS WEEK

Fifth Week of Class

First Reconciliation
Preparation # 2

Wednesday, Oct. 24th

NEXT WEEK

Sixth Week of Class

Confirmation Prep:

Fall Fiesta:
Monday, 7:30 p.m.

In today's Gospel story (Mark 10: 35-45) some of the apostles are asking Jesus to have a place of honor in the kingdom or perhaps a place of authority. Jesus points out that for people who follow him, being great means the opposite of being great in other situations. For followers of Jesus, Christians, being great means being a servant to the others. He emphasizes this and says we need to be a slave to all.

Jesus explains that he himself did not come to be served but to serve us. He gave the ultimate in service. He gave his life for us.

What does what Jesus says in today's Gospel mean for us? What does being a servant mean at home? ...at school?...at work?...in our neighborhood?...in our parish?

First Reconciliation Preparation #2

Wednesday, October 24th
6:00 -7:30 p.m.

Candidate and Parent to attend

(Children attending First Reconciliation Preparation should not attend Religious Formation Weekly Classes on October 22 or 23)

This past week we began our Faith UNwrapped season for 2012-2013. The first session was entitled: Opening the Window: A Faith UNwrapped about the Vision of Vatican II. I hope you were able to join us. Vatican II began 50 years ago this month. And it is still affecting our lives today.

We talked about Pope John XXIII and why he called for the council and how he invited Bishops from all over the world to communicate their desires for the council. Pope John XXIII used an Italian word, "aggiornamento," which literally means "updating to today." "Aggiornamento" has come to signify throwing open the Church's windows to allow reform and freshness. Pope John wanted to reach out to today's needs, today's times, today's people and so the Council did. Join us in November to hear more about Vatican II.

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Today, Jesus is challenging us to be servant leader. This means that we think less about ourselves and more about the needs of others, placing others first. Instead of seeking a “name” for ourselves, we are called to be nameless in the worldly sense. One of our greatest callings is to love each other, and in doing so, we also love and serve the Lord. Who are the servant leaders in your parish, school, and community? How are you challenged to model your actions on theirs?

Last Friday, our wonderful Middle School Youth Group met with other local parish youth groups for a Halloween Event at 3 Cedars Farm in Northville. A “Bootiful” time was had by all. The groups enjoyed a barn dance, hayride, corn maze, donuts, cider, and hot dogs and s’mores that they made at the bonfire. This was a great event; 538 youth came out to celebrate Catholic Youth Trek. I would like to thank Lynn Walkuski and Emily Avey for being our chaperones.

Middle School Youth Group will get together Thursday, October 25 for some pumpkin fun. I will have the paint, snacks, and a few ghoulish tricks. Don’t forget to bring a pumpkin for painting.

Our Confirmation Class of 2013 registrations are well underway. It was a joy to meet the Candidates and parents at our meeting last Monday evening. We look forward to seeing much of the eighth grade at our Fall Fiesta Fun Night on Monday, October 29, at 7:30p.m.

Have a great week everyone and remember... It’s Cool to be Catholic.

Peace,

Sabrina Queen

Hello Fellow Parishioners,

We, the recently formed Saint Vincent de Paul Conference as part of the Christian Service efforts at SJN have just finished our third quarter in 2012. We have had a very active group thus far with 18 members joining as full or associate members. We are an all volunteer group supported by the church with meeting space and endorsement from the parish priest, Fr. Ron Richards. The committee has been lead since Sept. 2011 by Lorraine and Don Zaksek, (President and Treasure), and Gerry Gutkowski. (Vice President), and Daniel Faoro (Secretary). We have been blessed to be lead in Prayer by Deacon Pat (Spiritual advisor) at the start and close of our meetings.

We serve the poor after providing a thorough background check, a review of personal finances and financial budgeting, and assist them in procuring the social service benefits they are entitled to. Since July 1, 2012 we have provided $10, 871.0 in support to respond to 44 individuals and their needs for assistance from families/individuals to prevent evictions, termination of utility services, meet medical needs, and provide emergency car repair, and food / household needs. In addition to the clothes and other donations to the SVdP store we receive the generous support from parishioners and outreach efforts, “Top Hat Sundays”, and other parish fund raisers. We had a successful Friends of the Poor Walk/Run on Saturday, September 29, 2012 and raised $741, thank you for your support. Our scrip programs are going well and we raised $395 this quarter from your participation in the Kroger and Holiday Market programs, enrollment forms are on the table outside of church for those who want to sign up. We recently registered SVdP for the Meijer’s scrip program as well – see the Bulletin and SVdP website and information below for registration information.

This month we are applying for a United Way community assistance grant. We held our Bundle Days collection is on 10-6/7 - 2012, thank you for your support. We will have a Membership Drive soon our members will speak about the conference activities on the 10-20-12. We will have a sign-up table after mass on 10-20/21st 2012., with a new member ship orientation meeting on 10-27-12 at 10.00AM at SJN.

Our members have attended numerous training sessions in the Detroit area to become familiar with skills to serve area residents, learn how to help families apply for social service programs, and state and federal assistance programs for the poor.

Our information and web site is managed by Matt Dame, it can be found at our web site http://www.stjohnneumann.us/st_vincent_depaul.html. We meet at 7.00PM on the second Monday evening of the month in the SJN Youth room. We look forward to new members at varying levels and ability, full, associate, and our youth group. Thank you for your continued support. Those interested in being members call the Parish office (734) 455-5910 and leave a message for Lorraine Zaksek with your name and phone number.

Thank you for your support of the poor in the name of Christ,

Daniel Faoro,
Secretary

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church."

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

*"Wednesday, we talked about service. A big chunk of that was talking about helping at mass. We were given a general idea of all the ways a teen can help, and then we specifically talked about the ones teens already are involved in (Eucharistic ministry, ushering, media ministry, etc). I am always told that teens helping at the Masses, brightens everyone's day. Seeing them, getting involved at church just makes some people so happy. I, myself, am a Eucharistic minister, and I know first-hand that it isn't that hard. I encourage any fellow teens reading this to try to help out in some way. There are so many things you can do. If you go to mass already, why not do something? I promise it's incredibly easy and incredibly rewarding.
"Although man can forget God or reject him, He never ceases to call every man to seek him, so as to find life and happiness." "*

Jason Brown, Senior

Please pray for us this coming weekend as we venture to Oxford, Michigan to enjoy our Fall Retreat at Subiaco Retreat House. Subiaco is a Benedictine Monastery that contains nothing but peace. Each year, we are blessed to retreat there and we come back refreshed and ready to face the world possessing a closer relationship with God. It is funny, all of us need to 'slow down' in life, but usually we don't take the time to. That is part of the reason we love this retreat so much.

THIS WEEK IS OUR HIGH SCHOOL YOUTH GROUP HALLOWEEN MEETING. WEDNSDAY, OCTOBER 24TH FROM 7:00 PM-9:00 PM. THERE WILL BE FUN, GAMES AND A COSTUME CONTEST (the costumes the teens come up with are always off.the.hook). If you haven't been to any meetings this year, consider joining us. You can come by yourself, or bring a friend, or two or three. We would love to meet you and you will love the good times we have!

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:
1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O'Flynn at 734-453-0829.

Overeater's Anonymous Open Meeting

OVEREATER'S ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, and hope, are recovering from compulsive overeating.

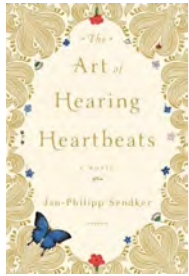

There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer. The Overeater's Anonymous Open meeting will be held every Wednesday at 7:30pm

If you have any questions you may contact Mary @734-634-7154 or Tracie @ 734-718-5575.

You are invited to serve Christ's poor at St. John Neumann Parish. The society of St. Vincent de Paul is inviting caring people to assist people in our parish needing food, clothes, rent assistance, utility assistance and other needs. Christ said, "What you do for the least of my brothers you do unto me." Is it time for you to really live your religious convictions and give something back for all you have received? Come join us Saturday, October 27th at 10:00am at the church, to learn more.

EVENING BOOK CLUB

Our next meeting is on Wednesday, November 14th at 7:30pm

We will be discussing "The Art of Hearing Heartbeats" by Jan-Phillip Sendker

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who helped with the St. Patrick Senior Center's luncheon on October 7, 2012. The food donations were wonderful and so appreciated by the seniors.

We had our largest group ever to travel to St. Pat's and prepare the meal. What a wonderful day for the seniors and for all of our volunteers.

Our next opportunity to help St. Patrick's will be at Thanksgiving when we donate pies for the seniors.

All Saints Features Smart Board Technology

Hello again from All Saints in Canton! We are proud to share the news that each classroom at All Saints Catholic School has a Smart Board, which is the top of the line in educational technology. Smart Boards allow for interactive lessons, increased class participation, and the seamless integration of technology which appeals to today's students who are growing up in this digital society. We are so proud of our vibrant students and staff, our impressive building, and the newest technology featured at All Saints. Please come visit and see for yourself!

Our Rosary Drive Continues

Every year, we have a Catholic identity focus, and our theme for our new school year is "Growing in Faith." We continue to help students grow their faith and we want to reach out to you, our parish partner, to build a community of faith with us. It has become a tradition at our school to pray the Rosary with a volunteer mom leading a group of students with a set of Rosaries that goes from class to class. This year, we would like each student in the school to have one! If you have an extra Rosary or two at home, please deposit any donations to the box in the back of church or drop them off at All Saints Catholic School (48735 Warren Rd. in Canton). If you drop them off in the box in the back of church, please label your Rosaries with your name and address so the children can pray for you and send you a thank you card. If you would like to drop off the Rosaries at All Saints, we would be happy to show you around our school! We are collecting Rosaries through the end of October. Thanks so much for your help as we teach the next generation about our Catholic faith!
