BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests, however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

Hello to you all!

In Pope Benedict XVIth Apostolic Letter Porta Fidei he declared the year from October 11, 2012 – November 24, 2012 as the year of faith. This is something I will address in later articles. With this in mind, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops have listed saints of the month for the Year of Faith. I thought I would let you know the saint for the month of November.

November – St. Frances Xavier Cabrini, M.S.C. – Missionary and founder of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus

“Francis Xavier Cabrini was born into a family of thirteen children. Due to health reasons, her first request to join a religious community was refused, but she was finally able to take her vows in 1877. Soon after being named prioress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart, she was urged by Pope Leo XIII to become a missionary in the United States. However, the house that had been promised to her for an orphanage was unavailable when she reached New York City, and the archbishop advised her to return to Italy. Frances departed from the archbishop’s residence all the more determined to stay and establish that orphanage. And she did. In 35 years, Frances Xavier Cabrini founded 6 institutions for the poor, the abandoned, the uneducated and the sick, and organized schools and adult education classes for formation in the Catholic Faith. She died of malaria in her own Columbus Hospital in Chicago in 1917. She was the first United States Citizen to be canonized, and she is known as the patron saint of immigrants.” (USCCB website)

I NEED HELP! We have a HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE and we need more people as a part of this. As you know, we have hospitality weekends along with a few other times throughout the year in which we do things. A group of people, on the HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE, make this possible. Currently we have a small handful of people who are a part of this but they need help and so do I! SO PLEASE consider being a part of this group. This is an easy thing to do that makes, not only people of the parish feel welcome, but guests as well. Please call the office and speak to Jan Jacobs to let her know you are more than willing to help!

A reminder to the 5:30 mass crowd, there is a brief meeting with you all immediately following mass.

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

Office of Priestly Vocations

Next week, November 1-4, men ages 18-55 seeking to determine if God is calling them to the Roman Catholic priesthood are invited to a discernment weekend at Sacred Heart Major Seminary.

During the weekend, men will be able to meet with seminarians and learn about seminary life, as well as spend time in prayer and reflection.

Your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal help the Archdiocese of Detroit encourage vocations to the diocesan priesthood through the efforts of the Office of Priestly Vocations. Besides discernment weekends, the office offers overnight discernment experiences for high school-aged men, an annual vocations convocation, vocation days for junior high and high school students, and outreach to parishes and schools.

For information about vocations, or other CSA-funded ministries, programs and services, go to www.AOD.org.

Cucchi's Corner

This weekend we begin singing a new Gloria entitled Holy Name of Jesus Glory to God composed by Norah Duncan IV. Norah was the Music Director of the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Detroit for over 26 years. He is the second longest serving Roman Catholic cathedral musician in the country. This new Gloria uses the new translation of our Roman Catholic Gloria (revised order of the Mass 2010). Norah's Gloria is dedicated to Monsignor John P. Zenz and the parishioners of Holy Name Church, Birmingham, Michigan, in memory of Sister Shirlee Hoski.

The Gloria or as it is sometimes referred to: The Great Doxology (hymnus angelicus) is preferably sung on Sundays & Holy Days of Obligation. Starting out first as a morning hymn of praise in the east then later came to the west becoming part of the Mass. The beginning of the text, and we, bear witness (and herald) the song of the angels at the Nativity (Luke 2:14).

Norah Duncan IV is Associate Chair and Associate Professor of Music at Wayne State University. Additionally, he directs the WSU Concert Chorale and coordinates many of the choral concerts presented by the Department of Music.

Duncan received an undergraduate degree (English Literature) from the University of Detroit, a Master of Fine Arts degree (Organ Performance) from Wayne State University, and a Doctor of Musical Arts (Church Music/Organ Performance) degree from the University of Michigan.

FAITH WORKS

With his Apostolic Letter, The Door of Faith, Pope Benedict XVI declared that a "Year of Faith" to begin on October 11, 2012 and conclude on November 24, 2013. October 11, 2012, the first day of the Year of Faith, is the fiftieth anniversary of the opening of the Second Vatican Council. . . (Vatican II) and also the twentieth anniversary of the Catechism of the Catholic Church. During the Year of Faith, we are asked to study and reflect on the documents of Vatican 2 and the catechism so that we might deepen our knowledge of the faith.

The Year of Faith is an opportunity for Catholics to experience a conversion – to turn to Jesus and enter into a deeper relationship with him. The “door of faith” is opened at one’s baptism, but during this year Catholics are called to open it again, walk through it and rediscover and renew their relationship with Christ and his Church.

The United States Council of Catholic Bishops’ website, www.usccb.org, has a whole section established for the year of Faith. One of the sections recalls American Saints for each month of the year. The following are featured in October.

Martyrs of North America

John de Brébeuf, ordained at 33, was the first Jesuit missionary in Huronia (1626) and a master of the Indian language. He worked throughout all the district, founded mission outposts converted thousands to the faith. He inspired many Jesuits to volunteer for the missions of New France. Massive in body, strong yet gentle in character, his visions of the cross and of his future martyrdom were fulfilled when he was tortured for hours after being captured March 16, 1649. He was martyred at Sainte Ignace, six miles from Sainte Marie at the age of 56

Gabriel Lalemant, a Jesuit at 19 and ordained at 27, was a scholar, professor and a college administrator. After seven months, he was able to speak the native language. For one month he was assistant to Brébeuf and then his companion in martyrdom for 17 long hours.

Anthony Daniel, ordained a priest at 29, was a missionary near Bias-d’or Lakes (1632); he founded the first boys’ college in North America (Quebec 1635) and laboured in Huronia for 12 years. On July 4, he just finished Mass when the mission was attacked. His martyred body was thrown in the flames of the burning Church at Mount St. Louis. He was 48 when he died.

Charles Garnier, was a Jesuit missionary in Huronia at age of 31. For 13 years he was pastor and missionary to the Hurons and Petuns. Gentle, innocent, fearless, a person of faith, he drew converts to the faith. Even when the mission of Etharita was attacked and he himself wounded, he continued to baptize neophytes and to assist a wounded Huron. In this act he died at the age of 44.

Noél Chabanel, a Jesuit priest at 28, a successful professor and humanist in France, had a strong desire to come to the Canadian missions but was unable to learn the native language and felt useless in the ministry. Even his martyrdom came secretly at the hands of an apostate on December 8, 1649 on the Nottawasaga, 25 miles from Sainte-Marie.

René Goupil had to leave the Jesuit novitiate because of ill health. He studied medicine and offered his services to the Jesuit missions in Canada. On his way to Sainte-Marie, he was martyred while making the sign of the cross on a child. The first of the eight martyrs to be killed, he was 35 years old when he died..

Isaac Jogues came to Huronia in 1636 and supplied at mission outposts for three years; he helped to build Sainte-Marie (1639) and explored as far west as Sault Sainte-Marie. Captured by the Mohawks when returning to Sainte-Marie from Quebec (1642), he was tortured, losing several fingers and being made a slave. He escaped to France, but returned the same year as an emissary and missionary to the Mohawks. He was martyred at Auriesville, N.Y. at age 39.

John de La Lande offered his services as a layman to the Jesuits in New France. He accompanied Jogues to the Mohawk Mission (1646), was captured with him and tortured. He saw Jogues martyred. On the following day (October 19, 1646), he himself was killed at Auriesville, N.Y.

Pope Pius XI canonized the whole group of missionaries known as the eight North American Martyrs, whose feast the Church celebrates on October 19: Fathers Isaac Jogues, John de Brébeuf, Gabriel, Lalemant, Charles Garnier, Anthony Daniel and Noel Chabanel, along with René Goupil and John de La Lande.

Did You Know about Vatican II...

Nearly all the bishops in the world were present at Vatican II. Only the sick and old were excused. Average daily attendance was 2250.

CELEBRATING ALL SAINTS DAY!

Last Sunday, October 21, 2012, Pope Benedict XVI canonized seven new saints. Two of those saints are especially important to us because they served God and his people in North America and Hawaii.

St. Kateri Tekakwitha was born about forty miles west of what is now Albany, NY. She was the daughter of an Algonquin Catholic woman who was captured and given in marriage to a Mohawk chief who was not Catholic. During a smallpox epidemic that struck when Kateri was just a toddler, she not only lost her parents and a younger brother but also contracted the disease and was disfigured and partially blinded by it.

Kateri was adopted and raised by an uncle and the women of her community. Throughout her growing up, Kateri was impressed by the Jesuits who lived among her people but she did not request religious instruction, fearing her uncle's angry reaction. But at the age of 18, she gathered the courage to request instruction and was baptized a year later on Easter.

After her baptism Kateri experienced harsh treatment from her uncle who was very opposed to her becoming Catholic. With advice from one of the Jesuits she fled, walking nearly 200 mile to a Catholic Native American village at Sault St. Louis, near Montreal Canada. There she received spiritual direction from a priest and an older Iroquois woman and continued to grow in holiness. Kateri gave herself to prayer and helping others. She also practiced fasting offering the sacrifice involved for the conversion of her people.

St. Marianne Cope was born in Germany but when she was 2 years old her family moved to the United States and settled in Utica, NY. She grew up in an American working class family. To help support her family she left school after the 8th grade and worked in a factory for nine years. Then she joined the Sisters of St. Francis in Syracuse, NY.

In 1883 King Kalakaua of Hawaii asked for her help in caring for lepers of his kingdom. St. Marianne responded to this call and with the help of other sisters she built a hospital for the lepers and eventually a school for girls. Later in her life St. Marianne was asked by Father Damien, who himself had contracted leprosy, to help him with his mission to people with leprosy on the island of Molokai. St. Marianne worked to the end of her life helping people with leprosy but never contracted the disease. This is considered a miracle.

This week we celebrate the feast of All Saints. On November 1st (Thursday) we celebrate all the saints that are in heaven. These people have led such Gospel-driven lives that they are united with God. On this Thursday we celebrate the canonized saints, like St. Kateri Tekakwitha and St. Marianne Cope; but also the millions of other holy people through the ages who have obeyed the Commandments, lived the Beatitudes, loved God, and loved their neighbors.

The above comments are provided through Pflaum Gospel Weeklies.

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Today is October 28th and according to the calendar it is National World Youth Sunday, and Priesthood Sunday. Let us be joyful and pray for our amazing Youth and our wonderful Pastor Fr. Ron for his gift of Ministry.

Gospel Reflection...Bartimaeus was a persistent man. He persevered although he was told he was not worthy to be near Jesus, let alone be touched by him. But his cry to Jesus was more than persistence or perseverance. It was a cry of faith and belief that he could be made whole. This passage reminds us to be dependent on God and that we will not be left to fend for ourselves. Name a time in your life when you tried to fix things singlehandedly without praying for support or guidance.

Just a reminder...Monday, October 29th is our Confirmation Fun Night. The evening begins at 7:30p.m. And will conclude at 9:00p.m. Parents and students please remember due to this event evening there will be no 8th grade class sessions on October 29th or October 30th. Also, we would like to remind all families that there will be no class sessions for Preschool thru 8th grade on Monday, November 5th and Tuesday November 6th due to the upcoming Presidential Election.

Thanks for listening. Have a great week everyone and have a safe and HAPPY HALLOWEEN!

Peace and Prayers,
Sabrina Queen

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

Faith UNwrapped has finally returned to St. John Neumann, and it most certainly has received a warm welcome, especially from the teenagers! This week, we started to learn about the Vatican II, its purpose, and why it is important to us as Catholics. It was so amazing to see all the families interact during the meal lesson, with the bishops' miters. During the majority of the high school and 8th grade breakout session, we answered trivia questions. Everyone had a fantastic time, and I'm looking forward to the next Faith UNwrapped!

If you are in high school and have still not joined us for youth group, please meet with us! We'd love to see your beautiful faces there! There is NO youth group on October 31st (due to Halloween), but seriously. Please come: all are welcome!

God bless,

Hannah Urbaczewski, 11th grade

This weekend is our annual Fall Retreat. We are so excited to switch it up a bit and attend Fall Retreat at Subiaco Retreat House. Please pray that the young people attending are moved by the Spirit to grow in their relationship with our God who loves them.

For the first time this year, SJN Youth will be attending the March for Life in Washington DC. We have a limited amount of space, so if you are interested please contact Mary at mwilkerson@stjohnneumann.us. The dates for the trip are January 24th-26th.

Have a great week!

All Saints Soccer Success!

We are so proud of our boys soccer team! The whole school joined together to send our team off in prayer the morning of the big game, and a busload of people went to cheer on the team as All Saints Catholic School's 8th Grade soccer team finished a great season with a final record of 10-1. They won the Division Championship and came in 2nd place in the CYO League. The team had their CYO League championship game on October 16th and lost to Everest Academy. Going into the final game, opponents had only scored two goals against the All Saints team all season! Eric Budd, an 8th grader who plays forward remarked, "The team exceeded my expectations for the year. We worked hard together. We won with all fifteen guys, not just one or two." The All Saints team was coached by Reed Posh, father of 8th grader Drew Posh. Mr. Posh has been a volunteer coach at All Saints for the past fifteen years, including three years with this incredible group of boys! Mr. Posh started the first sports program at All Saints back in 1998. According to Drew Posh, "We improved through the whole season and all fifteen us helped each other get to the finals." Both Eric and Drew plan to play soccer in high school next year. Congrats on a great season!

Our Rosary Drive Continues

Every year, we have a Catholic identity focus, and our theme for this school year is "Growing in Faith." We continue to help students grow their faith and we want to reach out to you, our parish partner, to build a community of faith with us. It has become a tradition at our school to pray the Rosary with a volunteer mom leading a group of students with a set of Rosaries that goes from class to class. This year, we would like each student in the school to have one! If you have an extra Rosary or two at home, please deposit any donations to the box in the back of church or drop them off at All Saints Catholic School (48735 Warren Rd. in Canton). If you drop them off in the box in the back of church, please label your Rosaries with your name and address so the children can pray for you and send you a thank you card. If you would like to drop off the Rosaries at All Saints, we would be happy to show you around our school! We are collecting Rosaries through the end of October. Thanks so much for your help as we teach the next generation about our Catholic faith!

Overeater's Anonymous Open Meeting

OVEREATER'S ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, and hope, are recovering from compulsive overeating.

There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer. The Overeater's Anonymous Open meeting will be held every Wednesday at 7:30pm

If you have any questions you may contact Mary @734-634-7154 or Tracie @ 734-718-5575.
