

IN THE SPIRIT @St. John Neumann Parish

November 11, 2012

32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests; however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

Hello everyone!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

Through the course of a few weekends I have asked people to look to different ministries that they possibly felt called to, in particular I brought up hospitality. Today I would like to look at the choir and the beauty of that ministry.

The main function of the choir is to lead and help the assembly sing. The choir animates and encourages the praise of God and assists the faithful to pray with joy, harmony, and beauty. The choir makes it possible for the entire assembly to sing praise to God.

Being a choir member is a call, a vocation that one has to discover, to nourish by purifying his intention to be a choir member. In the words of Vatican Council II, the primary ministry of the choir, and those who play various instruments, is to support and enhance the singing of all the faithful called to lift their voices in praise.

Knowing this, the more members we have in the choir the better our prayer in music will be. I know Rick is ALWAYS looking to get more people involved in the choir and have the chairs in the choir area full! Please call and talk to Rick about joining, even if you think you cannot sing good enough, that is just not true— you can!!!!

Also, I know there will be the children's choir starting up soon. We want to have a regular children's choir here at St. John Neumann, not just a Christmas thing! So we need to get your children involved. Please do not worry too much about age, call Rick and talk to him about that, he will let you know. The more our parish sees children involved with liturgy, the more that LIFE is brought to the parish, so please get your children involved in the children's choir!!!!

Lastly, today I want to let you all know what is going on with the 5:30 mass. As you know, a couple weeks ago I put forth a plea for help in ministries for this liturgy. The number I asked for, 36, was the bare minimum that we could work with for this mass to continue in the future. Well, after giving more than a week for people to step forward for the various ministries, we are still shy of what is necessary for the ministries to be covered in total. As a result, as I said to you at the end of mass, we will have to discontinue this mass beginning the first Sunday of Advent. So November 25th will be the last time we have a 5:30 liturgy.

To those of you who have been committed to helping out at this liturgy, I am sorry to do this, but I really do not see any other option. I do hope that you will continue to serve at the other liturgies we offer; your gifts of service are always needed and appreciated.

Peace,

Fr Ron Richards

FAITH WORKS

God wants your friendship. And once you enter into friendship with God, everything in your life begins to change. As you come to know him better, you find you want to reflect something of his infinite goodness in your own life. You are attracted to the practice of virtue. You begin to see greed and selfishness and all the other sins for what they really are, destructive and dangerous tendencies that cause deep suffering and do great damage, and you want to avoid falling into that trap yourselves. You begin to feel compassion for people in difficulties and you are eager to do something to help them. You want to come to the aid of the poor and the hungry, you want to comfort the sorrowful, you want to be kind and generous. And once these things begin to matter to you, you are well on the way to becoming saints.”

--Pope Benedict XVI

SEVEN KEY ELEMENTS OF LAY SPIRITUALITY

1. First and most important is PRAYER. Prayer is talking over my life with God. The goal of all true prayer is to look at life with the eyes of God. Prayer attempts to make me patient with myself, compassionate toward others and peaceful most of all.

2. The second important aspect is INTIMACY. Intimacy means more than proximity; it means sharing the depths of self with another. To be intimate is to be completely honest about myself.

3. A third characteristic of Christian spirituality is FORGIVENESS. Forgiveness is not exclusively other-centered. Very often the hardest person to forgive is myself. There are only two practical methods for getting over my own blunders: forgetting and forgiving.

4. The fourth aspect of spirituality is WORK. For work to be truly Christian, the worker must be creative. One must try to bring order out of chaos. The creative worker is goal-oriented; not haphazard, sets aside time to think about the implications of one's work.

5. A fifth aspect of spirituality is HOSPITALITY. Hospitality is an attitude of attentiveness that makes the one encountered feel valued. By spending time with someone, listening to that person, I affirm that s/he is more than an object, rather a cherished member of the human community, instead of an intruder.

6. The sixth aspect of spirituality is NETWORKING, or forming associations in order to meet human needs. Networking counteracts the tendency to narcissism so prevalent in our society, by focusing attention away from self to the urgent needs of others.

7. The seventh and last aspect of spirituality is PLAY. Play is the imaginative construction of one segment of reality. Play is much more than diversion or exercise. It is creativity in preliminary form, the fore-runner of authentic change.

Play is creative time-wasting. It relativizes the tyranny of time and the dictatorship of duty. It introduces joy into the seriousness of reality. Play is important for the Christian because it requires a certain distancing from all that is usually considered important.

FAITH FORMATION

BY DONNA FRANKE

FUN sessions are happening this week!

All parishioners are invited to our November Faith Unwrapped which starts today, Sunday, November 11th. This year our Faith Unwrapped theme is the vision, the message, of Vatican II, which opened 50 years ago this Fall. Still today we are affected by this marvelous gathering of all the bishops of the world. We are encouraged to take the messages of Vatican 2 to heart.

At our October session we were reminded that Blessed Pope John XXIII called this council inviting all the Bishops of the world to attend. In referring to the purpose of the council Pope John used the Italian word, “aggiornamento,” which means bring the Church up-to-date where needed in order to reach out to today’s needs , today’s times, today’s people. To prepare for the council Pope John XXIII asked all the bishop to express what they saw as the most pressing issues for the Council to discuss to reach out to today’s world. Over 2000 of the 2500+ bishops of the world responded to this request. At the October Faith UNwrapped we imagined what it would be like to be the bishops of the world suggesting ideas and concerns that the Church could work on to reach out to today’s world. Some suggestions were:

Through charity work show the kindness of our Church; cooperate with people of different religions; consider using contemporary, upbeat music to encourage singing with one’s whole heart; show empathy and live with gratitude for life’s blessing; have a sitcom that shows Catholic values; make a Facebook page; bring the Gospel to familiar places; emphasize common belief and practices with other faiths; read and learn about the bible, reach out to the poor no matter what their faith, focus on younger generations (children & young adults); focus on family; spread the Word through actions; dialogue; nourish one another. Many more suggestions were made.

Our November FUN (Faith Unwrapped) will be called: Holy, Holy...Holy Me? The topic is the Universal Call to Holiness.. This is one important point that was emphasized through the Vatican 2 document on the Church.

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Gospel Reflection...Think about the kind of reaction that the widow in today's Gospel might get from the average person today. Possibly she might be criticized for "throwing away" her money when she could have used it to provide for her future, rather than rely on the charity of others. People might say, "It's silly to waste your money like that, and so little money won't make a difference to the church, anyway." Jesus celebrates this woman's small contribution. From the story, we see that what matters in God's sight is not what a person has, but the devotion that causes him or her to give even at great personal cost. The poorest of the poor can be "rich" in faith. Reflect on this passage each time you make decisions about money this week. How does this passage challenge you? How does it challenge the values of our modern society?

Updates = Check out our Confirmation Fall Fiesta pictures on our Facebook page. Our November Faith Unwrapped is upon us. No regular class sessions this week. We look forward to seeing you at Faith Unwrapped!

Our Middle School Youth Group will meet this Thursday at 6:30p.m. We will be making snowman ornaments for a local nursing home. November 29th will be our Charlie Brown Thanksgiving. We will work out all the details on Thursday. Hope to CU there!

Last week, I mentioned, on the weekend of November 24th and 25th we will ask the Parish to consider becoming a Prayer Partner to one of our Confirmation Candidates. There will be a display on the bulletin board as you walk into church. What we are asking is that you take a necklace from one of the baskets; on the back of the box will be the first name of a Candidate. Please pray for them daily as they journey through to Confirmation.

Have a great week everyone and remember it is Veteran's Day, let us keep all Veteran's in our prayers.

God of compassion, God of Dignity and strength, Watch over the veterans of the United States in recognition of their loyal service to our nation. Bless them with wholeness and love. Shelter them. Heal their wounds. Comfort their hearts. Grant them peace. Amen.

NEUMANN'S NEEDLERS

Last month we celebrated our 5 year anniversary! Since we started, we have donated countless baby blankets, lap blankets, shawls, afghans, mittens, hats, and scarves to Angela Hospice, First Step, St. Joe's Chemo-therapy Treatment Center, Hope International, and the SJN Right to Life Baby Shower. We continue to work on lap blankets/shawls for older adults, baby hats and blankets, hats and scarves, and chemo caps. All are welcome. We will gather on November 13 and 27th from 7:30-9:00pm; we do not meet in December.

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

“And I believe it was sometimes during the first week of Sarah’s life, as I held her tenderly in my arms thinking the sweet thoughts of a new mother, that I realized she was to become my own, in-home disciple in the making. I had spent the last ten years of my life in the ministry of making disciples from people I met in the world. Now Sarah and any future children would become the focus of my ministry”

- Sally Clarkson, ‘The Ministry of Motherhood’

I found this quote in a book I am reading and it spoke to my soul. As many of you know, in the past 2.5 years, my husband and I have been blessed with two really fantastic children. Sometimes, it is crazy to think of how God is directing our lives and we are so psyched to be able to raise these little people to be saints. The call to parenthood is insanely wonderful; the call of being a mother is more powerful than I anticipated. When my oldest son, Aaron, was born, discernment began within our family regarding how I would be able to best meet the needs of my family. Youth Ministry has been my whole life. In many ways, I have grown up at Saint John Neumann these past nine years as the Coordinator of Youth Ministry, but God has made it abundantly clear that it is now time for me to step back and transition to be a full time stay at home mom.

This was a decision that came with a lot of prayer and I feel so blessed to work for a boss who has been incredibly supportive. Although I am just now letting the teens/parish know, one year ago I told Father that in July of 2013 I would be leaving SJN to enter into the world of domestic glory. July 2013 is still REALLY far away, but I wanted to let parishioners know because we will be starting the search for our new youth minister sometime in the next couple of months. The goal would be that we are able to have a smooth transition and our strong youth ministry program (one of the strongest in the Archdiocese of Detroit in my humble opinion) will continue to be a defining feature of this parish.

I ask that you keep SJN Youth Ministry in your prayers as we seek out the perfect candidate to carry forward and minister to the awesome teens of this parish! Thanks!

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

ALL SAINTS CELEBRATION!

At All Saints Catholic School in Canton this past week, we celebrated our feast day! All of our students made saint badges to wear during the day that featured their patron saint or a saint that is important to them. 5th grader Sarah Noonan chose to honor St. Anne because St. Anne is her middle name. Sarah said "St. Anne was the mother of Mary. It was interesting and inspirational to learn about St. Anne's story. On All Saints Day, I felt that St. Anne was with me. Our school Mass was very powerful because we had all learned about saints that were special to us and we came together to celebrate them."

Our Catholic Faith is lived out each day here at All Saints as we work to inspire our students to follow the Gospel teachings and be Jesus' hands here on earth!

Thank you to the many people who donated Rosaries for our Rosary drive! We were humbled by your kindness and inspired by the kind notes you included with the Rosaries! We are proud to teach the next generation about this important way to pray and honor Mary. Thank you for your support!

Overeater's Anonymous Open Meeting

OVEREATER'S ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, and hope, are recovering from compulsive overeating.

There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer. The Overeater's Anonymous Open meeting will be held every Wednesday at 7:30pm

If you have any questions you may contact Mary @734-634-7154 or Tracie @ 734-718-5575.

UNIVERSAL CALL TO HOLINESS

Holiness? You and Me?! Men's Evening Wednesday, Dec. 5

A native of southeast Michigan, Jim has spent the last 23 years ministering to the people of the area in many different capacities. He is a thoughtful and dynamic speaker and will certainly bring you to some new understanding of what it means to be Catholic.

Jim Kiefer

Holiness Who me?

(Exploring the How? When? Why?)

Women's Evening, Thursday, Dec. 6

Sr. Janet Schaeffler has spent many years in catechetics/faith formation both on the parish and archdiocesan level. Currently her focus is on adult faith formation in the light of Vatican II. Sr. Janet's engaging style, along with the wealth of her insights are sure to broaden the meaning of church for all who hear her.

Looking forward to welcoming you aboard!

Call Jim Stager (459-22565) if you have any questions

GRIEVING WITH GREAT HOPE

Grieving with Great HOPE is a two-day grief support series that offers a prayerful, practical and personal approach for anyone who is mourning the loss of a loved one. If you have lost a spouse, a child (including pregnancy loss), a grandchild, a parent, another family member or a friend, you are encouraged to attend. Presenters will include Fr. John Riccardo as well John and Sandy O'Shaughnessy, parishioners at OLG and co-founders of Good Mourning Ministry. See flyer or visit www.goodmourningministry.net for registration details and registration form.

Friday December 14 in church (7-9pm)

Saturday December 15 in social hall (9-3:30) with lunch, Mass at 4pm
at Our Lady of Good Counsel (734-453-0326)

Seating is limited. Advanced registration by December 1 is $15, after December 1 is $20.
