BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests; however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

Hello all

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

CALL TO ALL WHO ENJOY DECORATING!!!!!! Have you wondered how the decorations in the parish happen, the flowers around the altar, the banners, the decorations at Christmas and Easter??? I would love to say we have a whole group of people who are committed to doing this and maintaining all of this throughout the entire year, but alas, I cannot! This is mainly due to one person, our business manager, Jan Jacobs. Not that Jan is not doing a great job at this but she, I and more importantly all of the St. John Neumann people need help. We need to have a committee of people who will take on the decorations of the Parish worship space and such. So I am asking any of you out there who have any sort of passion for this type of ministry to PLEASE step forward and give us call so we can maintain the beauty and sanctity of the worship space throughout the year. If interested at all, in any capacity, call the office and ask to speak to Jan Jacobs about this all important ministry in the Church!!!

As you all go home this week I would like for you to reflect on the following:

Is there a place or activity in your life where you shine?

Is there a place in your spiritual life where you rest in God/s presence?

Is there a faith community where you meet Jesus and become Christ for others?

Is your life part of a faith community where you witness God's love?

"We must long to learn the secret of our own nothingness (not God's secret first of all, but our own secret). But God alone can show us our own secret. Once we see it, we can seek to receive His love into our hearts, and we can desire to become like him. Indeed, by His love we can begin to become like ourselves – that is, we can find our own true selves, for we are made in his image and likeness." (Thomas Merton)

Peace

Fr. Ron Richards

The Parish Council is thinking of celebrating Mardi Gras in February along with having an international potluck at the same time. This will be a family event. If you are interested please sign up on the bulletin board in the Gathering Area.

Cucchi's Corner

November 22nd is the feast day of St. Cecilia. A few years ago we had a festival titled "Saints among Us" where we considered lives of Catholic saints that were holy people and human people who lived extraordinary lives. Each saint the Church honors responded to God's invitation to use his or her unique gifts. God calls each of us to be a saint.

St. Cecilia was a third-century Roman martyr. We are left with little more than enduring legends about her life. While still a young girl, Cecilia dedicated her virginity to God. When forced by her family to marry, she converted her husband who also vowed celibacy. One legend tells of "pipes" played at her wedding. Although these pipes were probably the bag-pipes common throughout Europe, ancient translations rendered the word "organ pipes." Consequently, St. Cecilia has often been portrayed by a pipe organ. Another legend calls her "the inventor of the organ," while another says an angel fell in love with her because of her musical skill. This heavenly visitant gave both her and her husband a crown of martyrdom, brought from heaven. With such ample fable and longstanding tradition, she is considered the patron of music & musicians.(Catholic Source Book, Edited by Rev. Peter Klein, 1970).

There are many churches, schools, choirs, orchestras, museums, musical societies and even a religious order- the Dominican Srs. Of St. Cecilia named in her honor. In our diocese there is a St. Cecilia church in the I-96/Livernois area.

FAITH FORMATION

BY DONNA FRANKE

In today's Gospel (Mark 13: 24-32) Jesus tells us to be prepared for when he returns. What he says will happen can be frightening; but not if we trust God and love as Jesus has told us.

Toward the end of the Gospel, Jesus says, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away." Jesus' words are in the Bible and specifically in the Gospel. Jesus tells us in the Gospel and through his life, death and Resurrection that God loves us immensely. We need to love God with our whole being and love others as we love ourselves.

We also need to trust God for he has told us how much he loves us. Praying and reading the bible will help us grow in our friendship with God. Then we need to try our best to live as Jesus' disciples.

The Good News is that some day God's plan for a world full of goodness will be fulfilled. We know that this will happen, but we don't know when. Praying the following prayer is a good way to respond to today's Gospel:

Lord Jesus Christ,

Help us hear your word and grow in faith and love

Until you come again glory!

FAITH WORKS

In the Constitution of the Church from the Second Vatican Council, we find an expanded explanation of the meaning of holiness which affects all the baptized. It explains that all Christians share in the responsibility of bringing forth the Reign of God. The role of lay people in the Church is significant and essential. Consider some quotes from "Lumen Gentium," - The Light for All People.

We serve one another unto salvation, which means that by loving each other we give each other the opportunity to be embraced by God and live with God eternally. #7

By their lifestyles, their work, their prayer, their family life, their leisure and entertainment, and their hardships too laypeople give witness to the Light of Christ. #34

The laity are entrusted with the important job of ordering the world's goods so that all people are cared for and no one is overlooked. #36

In the end, the Christian layperson must be to the world what the soul is to the body #38

By transforming the activities and events of everyday life into holy moments, all the faithful grow in this perfection and the world more and more resembles God's Reign. #40

By our holy love, we nurture in the world a way of life that is more gentle, more beautiful, more human. #40

The Scriptures describe for us what this holiness will resemble: a heart of mercy, humility, meekness, patience, awareness of God's mercy when we have sinned, and a spirit of forgiveness toward others. #40

Love is the principal way to holiness. Beyond that and included within it are: the sacraments, prayer, the Eucharist, self-sacrifice, service to others, and virtue lived every day. #42

Let neither the use of things of this world, nor attachment to riches hinder them in their quest for perfect love. #42

In our discussion at Faith UNwrapped we realized that it is a tremendous challenge to make this vision part of our daily lives. It is a new way to evaluate our lives. Vatican 2 gave a purpose to lay people.

Which of the quotes is most meaningful to you? How would you include that insight into your life? What would happen if some of the 1.1 billion Catholics lived the Universal Call to Holiness more consciously?

At Faith UNwrapped: ADULTS ONLY we continue the discussion began the previous week at the parish F.UN. You are invited to join us this Monday at 7:00pm for ADULTS ONLY.

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Gospel Reflection... As we move toward the end of 2012, it seems fear is being conjured up about the end of the world according to the Mayan calendar. Chapter 13 of Mark's account of the Gospel may seem to go right along with these fears because it talks about the end of the world, but if you read it closely, you will see that is about the coming reign of God, not about doom and gloom. In these words, we hear that God is "journeying" with us in all of the trails and difficulties of our lives, and that his word is ever present to shine the light of hope on our paths. All of us will probably have moments over the course of the years when tough things happen that make us feel as if the world is ending. In these times, trust in the light of God to bring you back to life.

Confirmation Shout outs... Next week please remember we will be asking Parish members to become Prayer Partners to our Confirmation Candidates. As mentioned in previous weeks, there will be a display on the bulletin board as you walk into church. We ask that you take a necklace from the basket; on the back of the necklace box will be the first name of one of our Candidates, please pray for them daily. Prayer Partners can be from age 8 to 108.

Next, we are asking for Candidates to help with a Service Opportunity here at SJN. Eighth Graders are needed to help with childcare while parents can take a few hours and enjoy the upcoming Advent Night's of Reflection. Childcare volunteers are needed Wednesday, December 5th from 5:45pm-8:00pm and again on Thursday, December 6th from 5:45pm-8:00pm. We will need three volunteers for each night. Please call me at 455-5986 to volunteer. Thanks!

At this time of Thanksgiving, may our gracious God, the giver of the harvest, bless and protect us. Amen.

Happy Thanksgiving everyone!

“We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.
By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment
In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church.”

HIGH SCHOOL WITH MARY WILKERSON

It’s amazing to see how time flies when you’re having fun, which is exactly what happens every week at youth group! This week, we had a meeting on peer pressure. We started with an icebreaker that allowed each teen to choose from one of three game options, with the point being that a number of teens just went with their friends, an example of peer pressure. After that, the youth group went into small groups to look at different scenarios based on peer pressure. Finally, everyone watched four YouTube clips, ranging from Disney to Star Wars, to see negative peer pressure and how it is often handled, followed by a large group discussion.

When many teens hear the words “peer pressure”, they assume there is only the bad kind of peer pressure. It is important to remember that there is also the good type of peer pressure. The kind of peer pressure that influences us to do good, and to improve the community. This includes the friends that help us to make positive decisions, and to avoid the negatives as much as we can control.

Hannah Urbaczewski, 11th grade

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer’s Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas!

Since the founding of our parish in 1976, the Jesse Tree has been a part of St. John Neumann's compassionate outreach to the poor and underserved in the Archdiocese of Detroit. For over 30 years, our parish has committed our spirits and opened our hearts to make sure that everyone may share in the true blessings of this Holy Season.

This year we graciously bring warmth (clothing), sustenance (food), and laughter (toys) to many agencies in dire need of intervention. Close to 2000 tags will be generated this year to help fulfill the smallest of wishes of people like you and me. People who just want to feel the magic of Christmas. The organizations that will be recipients of your generous spirit are: AOD Aids Ministry, AOD Prison Ministry, First Step, Plymouth Canton Clothing Bank, St. Al's, St. Christine, Caritas Welcome Center, St. Hedwig, St Leo, St. Vincent DePaul and families within our own St. John Neumann parish.

The Jesse Tree will be in our vestibule next week. Please consider these families, who are not unlike our own families, and take a tag or two. Please bring in all of your gifts, with the tags securely attached, by December 9. This will give the Jesse Tree volunteers ample time to sort the gifts and purchase any remaining gifts not received. We want all wishes to come true this Christmas!

Thank you in advance for your most generous spirit.

In preparation, we will be assembling the wish tags to adorn the tree. Please join fellow parishioners on Tuesday, November 20 beginning at 6:00pm and working through the evening. Join us when you can. A special invitation to all Confirmation Candidates to lend yourselves in the spirit of service. Enjoy a little fellowship and fulfill your Christian service. If you are unable to join us this evening, you can request a packet of wish tags and assemble them at home. Please contact me if interested.

If you have any questions or comments please call or email: Marivi Latham marividel@comcast.net

Attention Nativity set owners: Would you love to see your nativity scene displayed and help raise money for the homeless in our area?

Do you collect nativity scenes and have no place to show them off?

If you answered "yes", please consider displaying your nativity scene(s) on December 1st and 2nd in the Assembly Hall at St. John Neumann Catholic Church.

This spectacular viewing of the "Christmas Story" will illustrate countless private collectors of nativity sets.

Last year's No Room at the Inn was terrific and we want to repeat the success this year. The true meaning of Christmas is celebrated by focusing on the humble birth of the blessed Baby Jesus, two thousand years ago and helping those for whom there is also "No Room at the Inn," the homeless.

Nativity Set viewing opportunities for the weekend:
December 1 from 10 am – 4 pm and 5:30 pm – 7 pm

December 2 after each morning mass,
1:30 pm – 4:30 pm,

and after the evening mass

Suggested donation is $5 for adults/ $1 for children

All proceeds benefit the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Please contact Karen Stuard (734-844-0166)

laohelizabethfagan@hotmail.com

for more information, or to have your nativity set included in this event.

If you have any questions you may contact Mary @734-634-7154 or Tracie @ 734-718-5575.
