The poster features a vibrant, multi-colored geometric background resembling a kaleidoscope. The text is arranged in a central column, with the title and date in bold, and the event details in italics. A list of instructions is provided in a simple font, and the final call to action is in bold. The overall design is festive and celebratory.

Cucchi's Corner

We are not sure of the year of his birth. He was born at the family castle in Roccasecca near Aquino, Italy. His family was of noble descent, the counts of Aquino, can be traced back several centuries to the Lombards. Landulf, Thomas's father was a knight and his mother Theodora was of Norman descent. When Thomas was 5 he was sent to the Benedictine abbey of Monte Cassino to be educated. Around 1239 he went to the University of Naples to finish his education. During that time he joined the Order of Preachers (Dominicans).

His great contributions are his many volumes of theological writings-characterized by his sharp distinction between faith & reason. The idea here is that Christian doctrines that cannot be totally understood by reason, are not contrary to reason but can reach us by revelation.

Aquinas's great literary work is Summa Theologica-it was so important that at the Council of Trent, it was placed upon the altar beside the Bible. Aquinas, one of the 33 Doctors of the Church, is considered the greatest theologian by many Catholics.

* GIVE YOURSELVES A WEEKEND*

On a Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend, you get away from the distractions of everyday life and focus on each other. The team couples and priest set an atmosphere for open and loving communication. They model the method, and share their own life experiences, making it easier for spouses to talk with each other. Although your conversations are private between you and your spouse, seeing other couples striving for a better relationship makes it easier to understand the importance of the Sacrament of Marriage. A priest is also sharing in the weekend, and is representing the Catholic Church and the Holy Orders.

In today's Gospel (Luke 1: 1.4; 4:14-21) we hear the story of Jesus announcing who he is to be to the world. He reads from the prophet Isaiah, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he has anointed me to bring glad tidings to the poor." Jesus continues to read but when he finishes he announces that "Today, this Scripture... is fulfilled."

Jesus is telling us that he is the one who was chosen to bring the world the Good News that God had come to save us. Anointing is done with oil and it is an action that is used to set a person aside to fulfill a certain mission.

One thought we might have today is that we too have been anointed at our Baptism. We have been anointed to carry on Jesus' mission to bring glad tidings to the poor. When we are anointed at our Baptism the holy oil is a symbol that we are now a part of the Body of Christ. As members of the Body of Christ we are to help others to follow the way Jesus has given. The others we will help are those we will meet today and tomorrow and the rest of this week.

We recently completed the January Faith UNwrapped regarding the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy - probably the most influential document to come out of Vatican 2.

There were several teachings that altered the way we laypeople prayed during the liturgy.

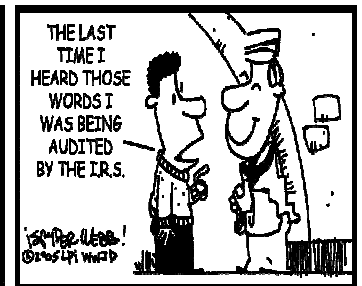

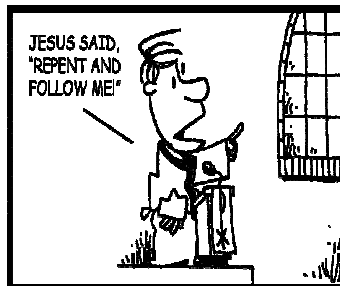

- The Church was described as the whole People of God, not simple the clergy. Prior to Vatican 2 the clergy prayed the Mass while the congregation was directed to private prayer. This approach provided a new role for laypeople in the liturgy of all sacraments. The church celebrated the liturgy, not only the ordained. A reason why the priest/presider moved to the other side of the altar.

- The restoration of Baptism-linked-to-Confirmation as essential and basic sacrament of ministry restored the liturgical roles of readers, extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist, cantors, ushers, mass helpers (both genders), sacristans, even greeters and media ministers.

- The recognition that the local community constitutes full expression of the Church (a microcosm of the universal church) encouraged local customs, language, provided for cultural adaptation. Using the language of the people radically changed how the assembly participated.

- The renewal of the Liturgy being based in Scripture produced the development of our lectionary in which there are 3 years of scriptural readings for Sunday and 2 years for all the weekdays. More scripture than any other Christian community encounters in their prayer. More next week

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Gospel Reflection...In Today's Gospel Jesus asserts that the promises spoken by the prophets of Israel are fulfilled in him. It probably would seem like Jesus was bragging if we didn't know that he really did follow through and do everything that Isaiah promised he would do. Being CHRISTian is about more than telling people what kind of person you think you are. We prove that we are CHRIS-Tians through our actions. Catholic Social Teaching calls us to go beyond ourselves to be of service to those who are forgotten, unloved, or oppressed. We are challenged to be an evangelizing people who spread God's word to all who can hear. How do you bring the love of CHRIST to others through your actions?

The Middle School Youth Group had a lot of fun at Cosmic Bowling last weekend. This was a Catholic Youth Trek event. We attended with local parishes, 200 youth in attendance! Middle School Youth Group will meet this Thursday, Jan 31st at 6:30p.m. Please make sure your permission slips for the Whalers Game and Zap Zone are returned.

A prayer for this week's journey...Holy God, trusting in your promises, may we be free of doubt. Trusting in your promises, may we never give into discouragement. Trusting in your promises, may sin have no power in our lives. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Peace,

Sabrina Queen

The Youth Group attended Faith Unwrapped this past week. The evening started with bonding with my fellow Youth Groupians during dinner. Following this, we discussed gifts. We discussed how great God’s gifts are, and how we should do our best to give Him gifts that are just as good. We talked about how gifts should be given for the spirit of giving, not for something in your favor. Finally, we discussed how we are supposed to reflect on gifts given to us and gifts we can give during mass. I look forward to utilizing and reflecting on gifts that have been given to me.

Sunday Morning at 2:00 am, several of us returned from the March for Life, an opportunity for us to engage and enter into a strong witness for life with 500,000 other people. As I have said before, I find it SHOCKING how the media portrays or even worse ignores this massive event of people at our Nation’s Capital. In the next couple of weeks, we will let you know what our trip was like. Special thanks to Father Ron who committed to joining us on this trip, even though leaving on the weekend is VERY hard to do. And to Marshall Grazioli who chaperoned this event!

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.
