Hello All!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Well I hope you are all doing well! I am down in Lakeland, FL at the Tigers training camp, going to all the games they have had here, so that has been nice!

As you all are aware, this week on Thursday we are having a communal penance service with private confessions to follow. Last weekend in my homily, I used the sacrament of reconciliation as a part of the homily and the beauty of what that sacrament brings to us. Well, our Gospel reading gives us a physical example of what reconciliation does for all of us when we seek it out.

The parable of the Prodigal Son has reconciliation at the heart of the story Jesus tells. This story relates to most of us, doesn't it?

When we are baptized, we are made a new creation in Christ, but when we sin, we are like the prodigal son, "quitting the Father's house, squandering our inheritance in trying to live without him."

When we lose ourselves in sin we cut ourselves off from the grace of God in our lives. But the beauty is that we can always find our way back to our Father's house! The Father welcomes us back, and He and only He, can restore the divine Sonship we have spurned.

Like the father in the prodigal son, God longs to call each of us My Son or Daughter, to share His life with us, to tell us: "Everything I have is yours."

"The Father's words of longing and compassion still come to His prodigal children in the Sacrament of Penance. Reconciled to God, like Israel, we take our place at the Eucharistic table, the homecoming banquet the father Calls for His Lost sons, the new Passover we celebrate this side of heaven." (Scott Hahn)

As you go home this day, ask yourself the following:

How might the parable of the prodigal son help you to participate in the sacrament of reconciliation this Lent?

Do you identify more with the younger brother or the older brother in the parable? What do you make out of the older brother's reaction?

What elements link the first Passover in the Holy Land, the banquet for the prodigal son and the Eucharist?

Peace

Our SJN Chorale is combining with the choir of St. Mary's of Wayne for 2 performances of the Magnificat by John Rutter. The first performance will be over at St. Mary's of Wayne on Saturday, March 9th at 7pm. The second performance will be here at SJN on Saturday, March 16th at 7pm. Both performances will have full orchestra!

Magnificat was first performed on May 26, 1990 in Carnegie Hall, New York, by Maria Alsatti (soprano), the Manhattan Chamber Orchestra, and participating choirs in a MidAmerica Productions concert conducted by the composer.

LENT SOUP AND BREAD SUPPERS and STATIONS of the CROSS

The three traditional practices during Lent are prayer, fasting and almsgiving. One of the Lenten events that St. John Neumann has offered for a number of years is Friday Soup and Bread Suppers followed by Stations of the Cross. Supper starts at 6:00 PM and runs until we run out of soup or until about 6:50ish. The soups are meat free with a side of bread provided and a beverage. Then there is the option to move to church for Stations of the Cross. At the supper a donation that would be equivalent to what you would spend on a meal for your family is accepted. Donations go directly to our St. Vincent De Paul ministry. Stations start at 7:00 PM. Your family is invited to one or both parts of the evening.

There are plenty of opportunities to go beyond just savoring the fine soups that are provided every week. In the gathering area there is a sign up board over the credenza. The following are the various opportunities you and your family can participate in.

COORDINATOR: This individual / family / group supervises the kitchen preparations and the evening activities. They need to be available from 4:45 PM until clean up is completed. A list of who has signed up will be provided. Making a reminder call to those who have signed up during the week before the supper is helpful to make certain the evening goes smooth. Training and a walk through the kitchen for the team/individual will be provided. Dates open for this are March 8 and March 15. Please contact Marshall Grazioli at mgraz5@yahoo.com or 734-981-6778 if interested.

SOUP PROVIDER: Please make or purchase 6 – 9 quarts of meatless soup. You may use a meat base like beef or chicken, as long as there are no chunks of meat. In the soup section they do sell vegetable soup stock and soup base. If we are warming, please get it to the kitchen by 5:15 PM; if you are bringing it hot, bring it by 5:45 PM.

Possible soups: Vegetarian Chili, Cabbage, Cream of Broccoli, Mushroom, Corn Chowder, Seafood, Vegetable, Seafood Chowder or your favorite.

BREAD PROVIDER: Please make or purchase One Large Loaf or it's equivalent (about 20 slices). Bring it to the kitchen during the day on Friday by 5:15 PM. Suggestions: Dinner Rolls, Whole Wheat, Rye or other Grain, French or Italian.

SET UP CREW: Need to be available from 5:00 PM until 6:00 PM. This team of folks will be responsible for covering and setting the tables, getting out the soup bowls, napkins and silverware, setting up the butter, peanut butter, jelly and bread area, making coffee and tea water, cutting up bread and warming soups as necessary. Setting soup out.

SERVING CREW: Need to be available from 5:45 until 7:00 PM. Possibly help with last minute set up details. Serve the soup and beverages as needed. Replenish peanut butter and jelly, bread and punch as needed.

CLEAN UP CREW: Need to be available from 6:45 PM until area is cleaned up. This crew is responsible to clear and clean the dining area and the kitchen. Left over soup can be returned to their providers or they can be packaged and left in the refrigerator to be distributed to families in need.

FAITH WORKS Gene Kijek

EVENING PRAYER - Recall that you are in the presence of God. No matter where you are, hilltop or valley, country or city, in a crowd or alone, you are a creature in the midst of creation. As you quiet yourself, become aware that God is present within you, in the creation that surrounds you, in your body, in those around you. The Creator who brought you forth into being is concerned for you. The Spirit of God, sent by Christ, will remind you that you are gifted to help bring creation to its fullness. Ask the Holy Spirit to let you look on all you see with love.

Spend a moment looking over your day with gratitude for this day's gifts. Be concrete and let special moments or pleasures spring to mind! Recall the smell of your morning coffee, the taste of something good that you ate, the laugh of a child, the fragrance of a flower, the smile brought forth by a kind word, a lesson that you learned. Take stock of what you received and what you gave. Give thanks to God for favors received. Also look at your permanent gifts that allow your participation in this day. Recall your particular strengths in times of difficulty, your ability to hope in times of weakness, your sense of humor and your life of faith, your intelligence and health, your family and friends. God the Father gives you these to draw you into the fullness of life. As you move through the details of your day, give thanks to God for His presence in the big and the small things of your life.

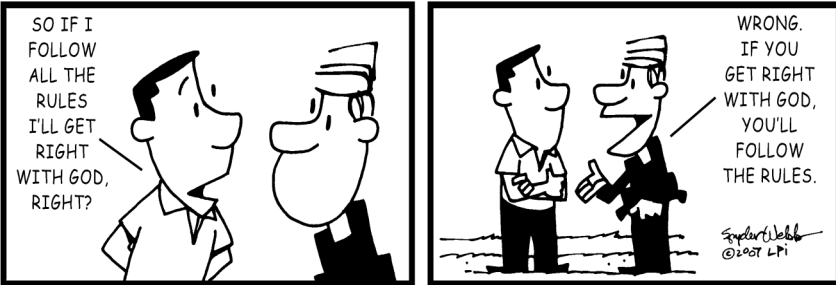

Allow the Holy Spirit to help you look at your actions and attitudes and motives with honesty and patience. The Holy Spirit inspires you to see with growing freedom the development of your life story. The Spirit gives a freedom to look upon yourself without condemnation and without complacency and thus be open to growth. Ask that you will learn and grow as you reflect, thus deepening your knowledge of self and your relationship with God.

Now review your day. This is the longest of the steps. Recall the events of your day; explore the context of your actions. Search for the internal movements of your heart and your interaction with what was before you. Ask what you were involved in and who you were with, and review your hopes and hesitations. Many situations will show that your heart was divided—wavering between helping and disregarding, scoffing and encouraging, listening and ignoring, rebuking and forgiving, speaking and silence, neglecting and thanking. Remember, this is not a time to dwell on your shortcomings; rather, it is a gentle look with the Lord at how you have responded to God's gifts. It is an opportunity for growth of self and deepening your relationship with God. Notice where you acted freely—picking a particular course of action from the possibilities you saw. See where you were swept along without freedom. What reactions helped or hindered you? See where Christ entered your decisions and where you might have paused to receive His influence. His influence comes through His people, the Body of Christ. His influence comes through Scripture, the Word of God. Now, as you pray, Christ's spirit will help you know His presence and concern. As you daily and prayerfully explore the mystery of yourself in the midst of your actions you will grow more familiar with your own spirit and become more aware of the promptings of God's Spirit within you. Allow God to speak, challenge, encourage and teach you. Thus you will come to know that Christ is with you.

The final step is our heart-to-heart talk with Jesus. Here you speak with Jesus about your day. You share your thoughts on your actions, attitudes, feelings and interactions. Perhaps during this time you may feel led to seek forgiveness, ask for direction, share a concern, express gratitude, etc. Having reviewed this day of your life, look upon yourself with compassion and see your need for God and try to realize God's manifestations of concern for you. Express sorrow for sin, the obscuring darkness that surrounds us all, and especially ask forgiveness for the times you resisted God's light today. Give thanks for grace, the enlightening presence of God, and especially praise God for the times you responded in ways that allowed you to better see God's life. Resolve with Jesus to move forward in action where appropriate.

HOW DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Today is the fourth Sunday of Lent. I would like to share a meditation I found in my journey this week. I found it very powerful and comforting. Perhaps you may enjoy a short meditation in your prayer time this week.

YOUR NAIL...by Peter J. Mead

I look, this Lent, to a Nail-- the simplest of hardware used to construct the earth's most elaborate bit of carpentry;

To secure my Savior to the cross, and to fasten, fast, the convicting notice of my sin above his head.

This is no symbol, no simple sign, but the very machine of God's great love, created of cross and Christ and crudest of nails, to churn out eternity for me.

Quick reminder to our Wonderful Confirmation Candidates by now you should have received your invite to our Extra Preparation session scheduled for Wednesday, April 10th at 7:00pm with Fr. Ron. PLEASE BE ADVISED YOUR ATTENDANCE IS MANDATORY. THANK YOU!

Special Announcement: On Tuesday, March 19, Religious Education 6:10pm sessions will be dismissed at 7:00pm instead of the regular 7:20pm dismissal time. This is only for this week only. Thank you.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Chris and Mary Kay DeBrito and Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

It is crazy that we are more than halfway through Lent. If you are like me, there is a good chance your Lenten commitments have slacked a bit. Now is as good a time as any to renew your commitment to making this Lent a special one. I have said this before, but I love our Church calendar so much, and the fact that we really have an opportunity to walk with Jesus. Make sure you don't waste this opportunity.

In other news, I would like to ask the Parish Community to join youth ministry in prayer. We have begun our search for the new Youth Minister. Applications have been turned in, and we will begin interviews soon. Although it will be very sad to leave this awesome group of young people, I am really excited about the potential of finding a person who will have the zeal and passion for young people to really continue to grow the program. But, as with all things, I truly believe the more time we spend committing to praying throughout the process, the easier it will be to follow the Holy Spirit in choosing the right person. Would you please consider joining us spiritually, maybe even in daily prayer, as we move through this search? Thanks!

The readings this week remind us that the love of the Father is always waiting to embrace us. I can't even begin to tell you the amount of times I have forgotten that love, and felt tempted to feel alone or abandoned by God. One of my favorite images, as I wait in line of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, is the Father getting ready to 'run' to meet me, and offer me forgiveness. My prayer this week is that we can all be confident in the constant forgiving love of God!

Have a great week!

"Blessed are they who mourn, for they shall be comforted."

Please consider being a part of our Funeral Ministry to lend comfort and extend a hand to those in need. The Funeral Ministry is a place where a small gesture becomes an indescribable moment for the families we pray with, mourn with, heal with ... break bread with.

Whether it is preparing a simple meal, serving and interacting with the family members or bringing in a dish for the peaceful gathering, there is a place for you. Your commitment can be as seldom or as often as you need it to be. Perhaps once a month, perhaps every other month, perhaps with every call - your involvement in this ministry is personal and always appreciated.

Thank you for your consideration in being a healing spirit, providing comfort for our brothers and sisters who need us, when they need us the most.

Contact the parish office or contact Marivi Latham directly : 734.397.7361 marividel@comcast.net

If you are currently a part of the Funeral Ministry and wish to be removed from the volunteer list, please let us know and thank you for your past dedication.

THE PASSION AND DEATH OF JESUS (According to Matthew, Mark, and Luke)

The story of the passion and death of Jesus takes a slightly different turn in each of the Synoptic Gospels. As we pay attention to the text in each Gospel, we will ask ourselves, "How is this story going on in my world?" and "How is this story of Jesus my story?"

This Lent we are again offered the opportunity to reflect together on the Gospels and how they continue to call us to discipleship. Come with your spouse and friends for five weeks of study and prayer.

Lenten Projects

Students at All Saints have been asked to focus on Corporal Works of Mercy during Lent. Pre-school and kindergarten students are collecting dish towels, pot holders, and towels for Hugs in Detroit which supports people who are homeless or disabled. First graders are making fleece blankets for those served by Hugs in Detroit. Second grade students are also making fleece blankets. Theirs will be donated to the Michigan Humane Society. Third graders are collecting canned food and toiletries for the Hope Clinic in Ypsilanti. We are proud of their efforts to help those in need by following Jesus' example of helping the poor and marginalized in our society. If you would like to contribute to any of the projects, please email Laura at LHUCK@allsaintscs.com.
