

IN THE SPIRIT @St. John Neumann Parish

April 21, 2013

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

Called by Christ Gifted by the Spirit

For a couple weeks we have been talking about Christian stewardship in the parish and the sharing of our time and talents. Not only have you heard Fr. Manny and I preach on the subject, but you have one of your fellow parishioners, this weekend, give testimony as to what Christian Stewardship has meant to them in their lives.

As we come to learn more about the essence of Christian stewardship, it is important that we not neglect the significance of prayer in our daily lives. Prayer is the first fundamental principle of Christian stewardship. It is the foundation on which we base our most meaningful relationship with the Lord.

Prayer is one of God's greatest gifts to us. Just as Jesus Christ often paused from His ministry to pray, we, too, should find time in our busy lives to tune into God's presence and open ourselves to His love. We are disciples of the Lord, and prayer is a wonderful way for us to thank God for His many blessings and to ask Him for guidance and support.

Contained in this week's bulletin is the brochure, Praying to God with Grateful Hearts. I ask that you please read it and reflect on your life of prayer. I hope this brochure will inspire you to embark on a spiritual journey to Christian stewardship through prayer and to deepen your relationship with the Lord.

To continue our process of learning more about Christian stewardship and its value in everyday life, we will hear more lay witness testimony from some of your fellow parishioners during the weekend masses of April 27th/28th, May 11th/12th, and June 1st/2nd. Please join me in welcoming them as they share their personal experiences with stewardship and its impact on their daily journey.

Peace and God Bless

Fr. Ron Richards

Cucchi's Corner

On the liturgical calendar, St. Anselm's feast day falls on April 21st. This year his feast day is displaced by the 4th Sunday of Easter. I thought I would write about him anyway. Anselm was a Doctor of the Church and Archbishop of Canterbury, England. He was born in Aosta, Italy around the year 1033. He wanted to enter the monastery at age 15 but his father would not allow it. Anselm left home in 1056, after his mother's death, to pursue studies in Burgundy. Three years later he moved to Bec in Normandy. There he was mentored by the great Abbot Lanfranc. Anselm became a monk at age 27. He succeeded Lanfranc and was prior and abbot at Bec. Eventually Anselm was elected by other clergy to become Archbishop of Canterbury.

Anselm was considered an independent thinker and a great theologian. He believed that our reason and revelation from God could be successfully synthesised. Anselm has been called the "the Father of Scholasticism."

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS: 50TH ANNIVERSARY

The purpose of the World Day of Prayer for vocations is to publically fulfill the Lord's instruction to "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), to the Religious life in all its forms (male and female, contemplative and apostolic), to societies of apostolic life, to secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life, in the particular sense of mission "ad gentes".

Prayer for Vocations

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's kingdom as priests, deacons, religious, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help us respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen

THANK YOU St. John Neumann Catholic Church

Thank you For Your Support of Family Life Services Clinic and Pregnancy Center.

Thank you for your generous response to the Baby Bottle collection to benefit the Family Life Services Clinic and Pregnancy Center. St. John Neumann parish family raised over $2,779 to support our Ministry's programs and services- and we are very grateful for your support!

Family Life Services is currently reaching out to over 130 clients a month. In 2012, FLS provided 313 free ultrasound exams. Approximately 34 abortion-minded clients have made the decision to preserve their baby's life! Your support and generosity makes this happen!

Special thanks to Fr. Ron Richards and staff for their commitment to Life and our Ministry, and to Marshall Graziolli for spearheading this project.

If you have a baby bottle, even if empty, would you please return it? Please return to the church office or Family Life Services, 2950 Packard Road, Ypsilanti.

We are most grateful for your partnering with the FLS ministry!

FAITH FORMATION

BY DONNA FRANKE

Religious Formation

THIS WEEK:

20th Week of Class

April 22 & 23

We will celebrate the end of the Religious Education year with Ice Cream Sundaes

Today we hear Jesus compare his voice to that of a shepherd. Sheep recognize the voice of the shepherd. We who are Jesus' disciples must recognize Jesus' voice.

Recognizing the voice of someone we know, someone who cares for us is an experience most of us have. Think of the moment when you are already home and one of your family comes through the front door; you can't see them but you hear them say, "Hello.." It gives you a good feeling to hear that voice and to know they are home.

One author, who suggests ways to pray with children, asks the children to sit in a circle. The children will naturally sit facing each other in the circle. She invites the children to turn around and face the outside of the circle and then all sit quietly and listen to the sounds they hear. After about one minute, she suggests to the children that they pay attention to their heart. "Listen quietly to God in your heart. Does God have a message for your heart today?"

What a beautiful question. And it is a question that is not just for children. Who is Jesus asking me to reach out to with my heart today?

Vacation Bible School is coming to St. John Neumann June 24th—28th.

Volunteers are needed to make it happen

Please call the Religious Formation Office to volunteer 455-5986

FAITH WORK

Gene Kijek

The liturgical season of Easter is 50 days! The Church wants us to reflect on the meaning of the resurrection of Jesus. Its impact is enormous. It is the core tenet and mystery of our faith.

Ten different appearances of our risen Lord are recorded in the New Testament. They may be arranged as follows:

1. To Mary Magdalene at the sepulcher alone. This is recorded at length only by John (20:11-18), and alluded to by Mark (16:9-11).
2. To certain women, "the other Mary," Salome, Joanna, and others, as they returned from the sepulcher. Matthew (28:1-10) alone gives an account of this. (Comp. Mark 16:1-8, and Luke 24:1-11.)
3. To Simon Peter alone on the day of the resurrection. (See Luke 24:34; 1 Cor. 15:5.)
4. To the two disciples on the way to Emmaus on the day of the resurrection, recorded fully only by Luke (24:13-35. Comp. Mark 16:12, 13).
5. To the ten disciples (Thomas being absent) and others "with them," at Jerusalem on the evening of the resurrection day. One of the evangelists gives an account of this appearance, John (20:19-24).
6. To the disciples again (Thomas being present) at Jerusalem (Mark 16:14-18; Luke 24:33-40; John 20:26-28. See also 1 Cor. 15:5).
7. To the disciples when fishing at the Sea of Galilee. Of this appearance also John (21:1-23) alone gives an account.
8. To the eleven, and above 500 brethren at once, at an appointed place in Galilee (1 Cor. 15:6; comp. Matt. 28:16-20).
9. To James, but under what circumstances we are not informed (1 Cor. 15:7).
10. To the apostles immediately before the ascension. They accompanied him from Jerusalem to Mount Olivet, and there they saw him ascend "till a cloud received him out of their sight" (Mark 16:19; Luke 24:50-52; Acts 1:4-10).

Jesus of Nazareth was the man who came to tell us that it is all right to trust our hopefulness. "Dream your most impossible dream," he tells us. "Hope your most expansive hope, fantasize your wildest fantasy, and you will have just begun. Out beyond those dreams, hopes, and fantasies, the generosity of my heavenly Father only begins. For eye has not seen nor has ear heard nor has it entered into the human heart what the heavenly Father has prepared for those who return his love."

It is the nature of hope that it shatters our sorrows and our fears, our disappointments and our anxieties.

Hope has its healing effect because it enables us to see things differently, to put together the pieces of our life in a pattern we may not have tried before. Hope throws something new into the picture (or, more often, perhaps, throws a spotlight on something old, lighting it in such a way that it is almost as though we had never seen it before).

Our life can begin all over again. If we hold on to hope, we can see possibilities in the other and in ourselves which were not apparent before. Angers and injuries dissolve and love is reborn.

Jesus is the man of hope. He is the Christ, the one whose words and deeds reveal the heavenly Father to us as he was never revealed before. Jesus is the "sacrament" of God, the best revelation we will ever have of what God is like.

Our Congratulations to

MIDDLESCHOOL NEWS

Greetings and Salutations,

Gospel Reflection... It's the winning 3 point shot made when the team is only 2 points behind, or its the ace serve that nails a tough volleyball match. In each scenario, there is complete joy for the moment of winning, and most especially for the temporary hero. While the whole team was needed, just one person saved the games, and all glory goes to them as the MVP of the event. If you can recall ever being in or watching these kinds of games, you can grasp the feeling people have for Jesus in the first 2 readings today. There is so much love, and joy that is uncontainable. Even if you shouldn't boast about the amazing play made to win the game, inevitably it happens. Someone has to praise the person who sealed the victory. For the next few weeks, all the disciples and Apostles are still on the high of the greatest victory known to mankind, a God who came down to earth, taught, died a horrific death, rose from the dead and then calmly says, "Peace be with YOU."

If you were to hear that Jesus was waiting for you, how would you prepare yourself to meet him? Would you be like Peter, who jumped in the water quickly, or would you hold back at first?

What is your favorite way to praise God for all the awesome things that have been done in your life?

Hard to believe we are coming to the end of our Formation year. Next week will be our last week of class. Confirmation Interviews are over and Confirmation is just two weeks away. I am very proud of all our students, especially the eighth graders. This group of young people is not afraid to question, work, and serve, for our Savior, Jesus Christ. It was wonderful to witness their love for Christ by their love for one another. Many times during the year they have stood strong in their faith with some very personal challenges. Remember your Parish Family needs You. Great work and many blessings eighth grade!

Have a great week everyone and remember... God's Word Your World!

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

The Villarruel Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

Last weekend, the teens at Saint John Neumann had an opportunity to attend the New Pentecost Project. It was an awesome night! We began by experiencing DYNAMIC praise and worship music led by an awesome gospel choir from the city of Detroit. The worship was so good, that it was difficult to get through the words without dropping a tear or two. After a dynamic speaker (her name was something like Mary Wilkerson), we had the pleasure of experiencing Eucharistic Adoration. As Jesus was processed through the crowd, we had an opportunity to be quiet with the Lord. What a cool thing to experience dedicated time to grow in our relationship with Christ.

This weekend we have really cool things happening as well. On Saturday, we will be going to Sacred Heart Seminary to get a tour by our very favorite seminarian Mario Amore. After the tour, the plan is to enjoy night prayer with the seminarians! Following that, we will had to Greek Town to enjoy dinner and fellowship. If you have never had the chance to visit our diocesan seminary, it is gorgeous! You should try to make it out!

Sunday is the Timothy Awards. Five young people from our Parish will be receiving recognition for the service they bring to their families, the community and their parishes! I will be telling you more about that next week!

Don't forget youth group is from 7:00-9:00 pm on Wednesday. And... wait for it!!! 8th graders are invited. Come check out all that we do for high school youth in this parish!

SJNMatch.NOW

The Stewardship Commission is partnering with the Christian Service Commission to help provide opportunities for you to participate in the parish mission of serving individuals and their needs. The Stewardship Commission is to engage you in prayer, nurturing, sharing, giving of time, talent and treasure within our parish and the community beyond.

Now it's "Match Time" between the Stewardship Commission and the Christian Service Commission. First comes prayer. We have the Grief Support Team and Homebound Ministry within the nurturing, there are the Respect Life Activities such as the baby bottle collection and the baby shower. Thirdly, sharing applies to the SVDP top hat collection and the Salvation Army food drives that benefit the Plymouth-Canton area. We also see this with the Jesse Tree, where people of all ages prepare tags and sort the gifts that benefit so many individuals!

As you can see, it's a "Perfect Match"! Look over all of the opportunities within our SJN Family to find the match for you in the Stewardship and Christian Service Partnership!

God will bless those who give of themselves to enrich others. "What good is it, my brothers, if someone says he has faith but does not have works?"

Greetings and Happy Easter from All Saints Catholic School! We wanted to share some of the exciting outcomes of our school's Lenten projects. Each grade level was asked to pick a project that was connected to the Corporal Works of Mercy. Our Kinder and 1st graders made 26 fleece blankets that were donated to a shelter in Detroit. 2nd graders donated 18 blankets, as well as towels and treats to the Michigan Humane Society. 3rd graders collected 10 boxes of household products to people in need who are getting back on their feet. 4th graders put together supplies so that children celebrating birthdays while in the shelter Grace Centers for Hope can have birthday parties. They collected 4 boxes of party favors, streamers, candles, balloons, and more! 5th graders collected 1,153 books to be donated to prisons and children visiting incarcerated family members. 6th graders held a bottle drive and raised enough money for 60 ten dollar phone cards which will be given to soldiers so that they can visit with family and friends. 7th graders donated 7 boxes of kitchen items like pots, pans, and can openers for people to prepare the food they have or receive. 8th graders made cards to brighten up people in local nursing homes. Thank you to everyone who contributed!

Golf event and raffle to benefit Angela Hospice

Don't miss out on a fun opportunity to support a charity that has helped thousands of families throughout Southeast Michigan. On Monday, May 13, Angela Hospice will hold its 25th annual Golf Outing in Plymouth, on Fox Hills' championship course, the Golden Fox. There are still spots available for golfers to play.

Golfers will enjoy a full day—beginning with continental breakfast and an open driving range at 9:30, followed by 18 holes of golf with a cart, a delicious barbeque lunch at the turn, beverage carts on the course, a golfer goody bag, plus a gourmet dinner reception with an enticing silent auction after the game. Individual golfers can register for $200 per person, due by Friday, May 3. Corporate packages and hole sponsorships are also available.

For event details, raffle tickets, or to register for the outing, call Angela Hospice at 734-464-78100, or visit www.AskForAngela.com.
