IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

For the past couple of weeks, we have been learning about Christian stewardship. While prayer is the first fundamental principle of Christian stewardship, nurturing our family is the second.

Christians are called to exercise good stewardship by nurturing family relationships. With Christ as its center, the family is a sign of Christian love in the world today. The Holy Spirit strengthens family relationships, whether they are between husband and wife, parent and child, or brother and sister.

The hustle and bustle of today's hectic world often limit the amount of time families are able to spend with each other. But it is important that families make time to share in each other's lives. This period of "family time" brings families closer to each other and to God.

Please review and reflect on the enclosed brochure, Nurturing Our Family with Time and Love. I pray that this brochure will bring you to a deeper understanding of the family and its relationship to the true spirit of Christian stewardship.

These past two weekends we heard from Ray VanHoeck and Lorraine Zazsek. I want to thank them for their witness.

As a continuation of our Called by Christ Gifted by the Spirit, I wish to address in further detail, The Stewardship of Time.

Each of us has been given enough time to accomplish God's purpose for us on this planet. The Scriptures ask us to invest our time wisely, reminding us that God determines the length of our stay on earth. "Watch carefully then how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise, making the most of the opportunity, because the days are evil." (Eph 5:15-16).

Toward the end of his life, Moses prayed, "Teach us to count our days aright, that we may gain wisdom of heart" (Ps 90:12). Time is our most valuable asset, but without a proper perspective, we will spend it foolishly. A biblical perspective on time involves several things:

Life is brief, and we cannot be presumptuous about the future (Jas 4:14)

The eternal gives meaning to the temporal (Rom 13:11; 2 Cor 4:18)

Like other assets, our time is owned by God (Ps 31:15)

We must be sensitive to opportunities so that we can make the most of them (Ecc 8:5; Col 4:5)

Our use of time will reflect our priorities (Mt 6:19-21, 34)

Just as it is wise to budget our financial resources, it is also wise to budget our use of time. Most time is wasted not in hours, but in minutes. If we do not regularly assess the way we spend our 168 hours per week, our schedules will get cluttered with activities that may be good, but not the best.

How much quality time do we spend with the Lord, with our spouse, with our children, and with our non-Christian friends? God wants us to be faithful stewards, not squanderers, of the time He has given us.

Exercise: Carefully evaluate your weekly use of time by filling in a 168 hour worksheet as accurately as possible. What areas need to be trimmed down, and where should you be spending more of your time?

Peace

Fr. Ron Richards

If Christ has not been raised then our preaching is useless and your believing it is useless.

I Corinthians 15:14

We have been singing Christ the Lord is Risen Today during the Easter Season. The Easter Season refers to the 50 days from Easter Sunday to Pentecost Sunday. It is our participation in Christ's resurrection which brings us from the death of sin to a grace-filled life.

The text of this hymn was penned by Charles Wesley (1707-1788). The tune LLANFAIR was composed by Robert Williams (1781-1821). Charles Wesley was a leader of the Methodist Church, son of Anglican clergyman and poet Samuel Wesley.

As I read through the text the one line that struck me was: Where, O death, is now your sting? This line references I Corinthians 15:55. As believers we should have no fear of death and dying if we trust in Christ's victory over death.

YOUNG AT HEART

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

Faith UNwrapped: ADULTS ONLY

After 50 years of the Second Vatican Council, where do we go next?

THIS Tuesday, May 7, 7:00pm

RSVP at the Parish Office

ADULTS ONLY! This Tuesday we conclude a six month study of the teachings of the Second Vatican Council for adults. All of the 1.2 billion Catholics today have been affected by this ecumenical council.

One of the most warmly received insights of Vatican 2 is that salvation is concerned not solely with saving souls but also with saving the whole person—body and soul. This holistic view is appealing because we naturally do not want to lose any genuine part of our human experience. St. Irenaeus, often quoted at the time of the Second Vatican Council, captured this well: “The glory of God is the human person fully alive!”

Jesus’ mission on this earth was not only to free the human heart from sin, but also to free men and women from disease, oppression and everything that hinders their development as humans created by God and destined for eternal life. When we profess our belief in the resurrection of the body, this integral salvation is implied.

In The Church in the Modern World, the bishops of Vatican II acknowledged the intimate bond between the Church and all humanity. This great document begins: “The joys and hopes, the grief and anguish of the people of our time, especially those who are poor or afflicted, are the joys and hopes, the grief and anguish of the followers of Christ. Nothing that is genuinely human fails to find an echo in their hearts.”

Every authentic dimension of human existence is to be saved and brought to wholeness. We are to help all people come to their full humanity as men and women created in the image and likeness of God and redeemed by Christ.

Consider joining us this Tuesday to discuss what is next for us Catholics.

EASTER RELEVANCE What is the cost of love? When we frame love in this question, the subject transcends the feeling. No longer does love remain in the realm of the heart. It becomes a decision of the will. The question implies that we do not truly love unless we are willing to act upon our feelings and live with the consequences. Love may not be love without an inner emotion, but it cannot survive without action. And it cannot grow without testing.

To claim love is easy, to live love is difficult. Yet, in Jesus, we find the example of love perfectly lived out. We also find the power to live love to the fullest.

Jesus "chose" his "friends." They did not choose him. Jesus chose his followers for a mission: to "lay down" their lives as he did, so their self-giving might produce lasting "fruit." Hence, the kernel of Christian spirituality, self-giving ("laying down" life), roots the Christian community: relationship based upon service. Both of these notions were based upon love. When Christians truly loved others, even to the point of death, they became "friends" of Jesus and the Father.

When have you felt the love of God? When have you passed that love onto others? How did your efforts effect those you loved?

HOW DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

Greetings and Salutations,

Let me begin this week with FELIZ CINCO DE MAYO!

In today's Gospel, Jesus says he will send an advocate meaning someone who will support, encourage, and teach us. Jesus tells us to "Listen Now" but he will also send us a tutor to help us really "get it" the Holy Spirit! Think about all the rules we have to follow each and every day: Rules in school, driving rules, family rules, and rules of sports. Each situation has a different set of guidelines. Do all the people you choose to follow help you find your way to God? I know of a group who has chosen to follow and truly be inspired by the Holy Spirit.

This weekend, SJN teens had the opportunity to go to a hotel over night for a community building activity. We wanted some way to celebrate another year completed in youth ministry and this seemed the way to do it! I'll be sure to post a few pictures in the upcoming weeks. This has been a great year in youth ministry and, as it begins to wind down, it is important that we celebrate the successes we have been blessed with!

Hey, did you hear the news? We still have three more youth group meetings left this year and 8th graders... you are invited!!! How cool is that? We love to invite 8th graders to share in the high school experience to hopefully help them bridge over to our group next year. Make sure you come and check it out.

Confirmation

Speaking of 8th graders, congratulations on receiving the Sacrament of Confirmation. I always say, it is so hard to live out the Catholic faith as a young person in today's culture. Jesus knows/knew that and so He sent the Holy Spirit, that we might, through our Confirmation, receive every grace possible to make it easier! We are so proud of you all and so excited to see you have completed Baptism in such a cool way!

And... help me spread the word! The last youth group meeting this year is May 22nd! As always, we will be inviting alumni to join us. This year is a bit special because it will be my last meeting as a Coordinator of Youth Ministry here at Saint John Neumann. I would love to see some old faces, please help us spread the word!

Escrip Programs to support Saint Vincent DePaul at St. John Neumann

We will have a script registration information table after masses the weekend of 5/4-5/2013 in the hall. For Kroger Community Rewards note that each member of your organization will be required to re-enroll his or her Kroger Plus Card on an annual basis. If your currently signed up for the Kroger program you must re-register every year before May 1st, even if are on currently on their system. If you're currently enrolled in the Holiday Market and Meijer program they continue each year. We recently added the Meijer's Rewards Program to our fundraising partnerships in addition to Kroger and Holiday Market. Please see the information below on how to register and sign up to support Saint Vincent DePaul in the Parish. These programs help us to support our families and individuals they have been helpful and we have been able to collect up to $500 per quarter in contributions.

Thank you again for your support!

"I call on the Lord in my distress, and he answers me..."
Psalm 120:1

As we pray for our spiritual commitment during this Stewardship Campaign, it is a befitting opportunity to address a needed change in the Funeral Ministry. Briefly, the Funeral Ministry provides family support for the loss of loved ones through fellowship and the sharing of a meal following a funeral.

Presently our volunteer lists are proving to be difficult to manage and out of date. With an overwhelming number of Parish family members eager to lend their thoughtful time to this essential ministry, we will be reestablishing new volunteer lists and filing all old lists. This process will hopefully allow us to prepare for our services more efficiently. If you are a current member and want to continue to be a part, please resubmit your name with current contact information during the ministry sign up. Parish members, truly interested in serving in this capacity, will have every opportunity to actively participate.

Starting with an updated list of volunteers will also allow our current volunteers to seek other service opportunities if the Spirit moves them! There are so many service opportunities at St. John Neumann, as you will see during the upcoming weeks. Why not be a vital part of a ministry that truly calls you? If you are a current member and would like to devote yourself to another ministry, please accept our whole hearted thank you for your past commitment.

If you have not been a part of the Funeral Ministry and can lend yourself to the comfort of others, please consider being a cook, a donations caller, a food donor or a server. Thank you in advance for your thoughtful stewardship.

We hope to see you during Ministry Sign up weekend, June 1 and 2.

For any questions please contact Marivi Latham by phone: 734.397.7361 or by email : marividel@comcast.net.
