

IN THE SPIRIT @St. John Neumann Parish

May 12, 2013

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests; however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello Everyone!

Again I am continuing the theme of Stewardship in my article!

The Scope of Stewardship

When the topic of stewardship comes up, most people think of only one area: money. But from a biblical point of view, stewardship is all-inclusive. It touches every area of life, including our time and talent as well as our treasure. Stewardship is faithfully using whatever God gives us (opportunities, interests, skills, employment, family, talents, spiritual gifts, land, money, etc.) for His glory. The theme of stewardship ranges from Genesis 1-2 when God made the man and woman stewards of this planet, to Revelation 21-22 when God will make His children stewards of the new creation.

The Lifestyle of Stewardship

If biblical stewardship involves every facet of life, it requires a basic commitment on our part: we must present ourselves to God as His servants, with no conditions attached. The real issue of stewardship is whether we are administering our affairs and possessions as though they are ours or as though they are God's. The pattern of our lives is shaped by the decisions we make, and the greatest of these decisions is this: Am I the lord of my life, or is God the Lord of my life? We will either seek to rule our own lives (the tragedy of the first Adam), or submit to the rule of God (the triumph of the second Adam). This is the difference between the great I WILL (Isa. 14:13-14) and the great THY WILL (Matt. 6:10; Mark 14:36). Whether we realize it or not, we face this decision many times in the course of each day. Our answer to this question will determine how we manage the time, abilities, and money God has placed under our care.

All of us have legitimate physical and psychological needs, and God wants us to trust Him to meet these needs. Satan would deceive us into depending upon our own abilities and resources to meet our needs, while God tells us to depend upon Him. While selfless living is the essence of righteousness, selfishness is the essence of sin. The difference between grabbers who live for themselves and givers who live for God and others is the difference between saving our lives for our own sakes and losing our lives for Christ's sake (see Mark 9:34-37). We cannot keep what we do not give away.

When we trusted Christ, we exchanged the old for the new; we passed from death into life, from darkness to light, from sight to faith, and from an earthly to a heavenly citizenship (John 3:36; 2 Cor. 5:17; Phil. 3:21; Col. 1:13). True stewardship reflects this exchange in a lifestyle ordered by the lordship of Christ over all things. We are free to give without expecting anything in return because our needs are fully met in Christ.

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

For the Beauty of the Earth

A hymn that we sing here at SJN for weekday and weekend Masses is For the Beauty of the Earth. This hymn's text was written by Folliot Sandford Pierpoint who lived from 1835 to 1917. After getting his education from Cambridge, he taught at Somersetshire College in his home area of Bath. One day at age 29 he was walking in the countryside and was overwhelmed with God's beautiful creation; the blue sky; the ocean and all the rest. Pierpoint intended it to be a hymn to be used for Communion services in the Anglican Church in England, but when it came over here it was quickly used around Thanksgiving time.

I love the last line of each verse: Lord of all, to you we raise. This our hymn of grateful praise. This last line is filled with an "attitude of gratitude"

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? Facilitator Rosemarie Shim, social worker and parishioner, has 14 years experience working with Alzheimer patients and their families.

The Alzheimer's Support group meets the third Thursday of each month at 7:30pm.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Rosemarie at 734-981-0556.

Neumann's Needlers - Thanks to the creative efforts of several people, we donated over a dozen each of baby blankets and baby hats to U of M's Newborn Intensive Care Unit last month. We are currently creating hats, scarves, shawls, lap blankets and baby blankets. Our next gatherings are on May 14 and May 28, 2013 at 7:30 PM. We welcome men and women, young and old, beginners and advanced. Questions? Contact Bev Polcyn at bevpolcyn@hotmail.com or at 734-740-3701

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:

1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O'Flynn at 734-453-0829.

2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm, please call Cindy Pronze at 734-416-9914.

For special programs for children and teens, please call Regina Adams for an appointment at 313-268-6951.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

Last week we concluded the current season of Faith UNwrapped with an ADULTS ONLY session.

There was much to review from the sixteen documents of Vatican 2. What was impressive was teaching that the Church is not merely an institution, a bloc to be reckoned with. It is not a ticket to salvation once you get your name in the book and observe the minimum. It is not out to condemn, defeat, be Number One, put the fear of the Church militant into its enemies.

No, the Church is a community that carries the light of Christ on its face. What else is necessary? Some organization, surely. Some definite statement of principle. But to be a community shining like Jesus is at the heart of the Church's identity.

Impossible. Of course. Yet that is the Church's nature and task. It is as if the Church must say, embarrassedly, "Jesus is no longer visible, except sacramentally. We're sent to show you how he looked and what he did." Jesus is not visible today: Therefore he must be seen in us—his radiance on our faces. This means that we the Church are a sacrament. That is, there is something visible that reveals and hides a deeper reality.

In the Dogmatic Constitution on the Church, Laypersons are now recognized in a way surpassing anything in the past. "Everything that has been said about the People of God is addressed equally to laity, religious and clergy" (#30). The laity are not, then, merely what is left over (99.99 percent) after the pope, the bishops, the priests and the religious. "A secular character is proper and peculiar to the laity," and they "seek the kingdom of God by engaging in temporal affairs" (#31). "There is a common dignity of members deriving from their rebirth in Christ, a common grace as sons and daughters, a common vocation to perfection" (#32). Men and women of the laity are commissioned to their apostolates by the Lord himself, through Baptism and Confirmation. So they are a part of the church's mission. They are not just "allowed to help."

The relentless Holy Spirit is always working—everywhere, not just where things appear bright. It is working, too, perhaps even more relentlessly, in the night of persecution, apparent failure and spiritual change. God works in seconds—and centuries. Perhaps the full impact of the Council is yet to come. Perhaps Vatican 2 is not yet out of baby clothes.

Or, as someone has said, perhaps we are only beginning to smell the coffee.

BLESSING OF MOTHERS

God of all love,
We ask you to bless all mothers
this day and every day.

Bless them with the strength of your Holy Spirit,
they who have taught their children
how to stand and how to walk.

Bless them with the melody of your love,
they who have shared how to speak,
how to sing, and how to pray to you.

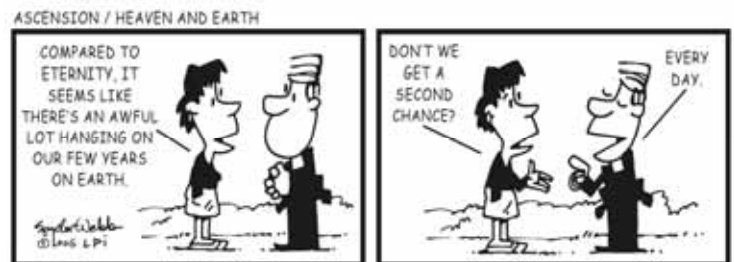

Bless them with a place at your dinner table,
they who have fed and nurtured the life
that was formed with in them.

Bless them today, now, in this lifetime
with good things, with health.

Bless them with joy, love, laughter and pride in their children and surround them with many good friends.

We pray for our Mothers, our grandmothers,
our godmothers, our stepmothers,
our adoptive mothers, our foster mothers,
mothers who have lost their children,
women who are unable to bear children,
and ALL women who nurture and support us,

in the name of the Father, and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
AMEN!

HOW DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

CONTACT GENE gkijek@stjohnneumann.us

Today we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. In this moment, Jesus ascends into heaven to return to his Father; this marks the end of Jesus' time on earth with his disciples. Think of a time when you were a small child, were you ever told by an adult... "I promise to tell you when you are older?" Jesus almost says the same thing to his disciples in Acts. They were excited and anxious, and very much wanted the answers. Jesus tells them... "you are not ready but I promise that when you are, all the answers that you will need will come from the Holy Spirit." That had to be aggravating to hear. Back then and today, we are asked to TRUST in full confidence that our parent (God) really knows what is best for us.

Before I conclude this week, I would like to thank our wonderful Middle School Catechists for a super fantastic year. Thank you for your Ministry... Marsha Hoff, Mike Nolta, Tina Walkuski, Rita Robinson, Jim Stager, Barb Dame, Arlene Siedel, Greg and Laura Pietron, Jodi Ring, and Emily Avey. May God Bless you greatly for all you do for his flock.

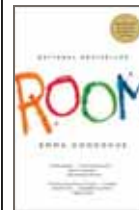

Also, I would like to thank the generous hearts that helped make our 2013 Confirmation ceremony a radiant experience. Thank you, Deacon Pat, Jodi Plopan, Don and Jane Dickman, Sidney Bowerman, Jason Brown, Hannah Urbaczewski, Adam Handley, Rebecca Lopez, John McGee, Bill Franke, Rick Cucchi, Gene Kijek, Mary Wilkerson, Donna, Betty, Emily, and last but certainly not least our Most Amazing Pastor Fr. Ron.

Have a good week everyone and remember... If God is your Co-pilot swap seats!

Peace and Prayers,
Sabrina Queen

SHOWING OUR STEWARDSHIP THROUGH WORSHIP

Participating in the parish's mission of "sharing in prayerful and joyous worship," parishioners of the Worship Commission's ministries perform many roles that support our liturgies. There are roles for many members of the family, including Mass helpers, sacristans, Eucharistic ministers, media ministers, lectors, choir members, and ushers. Outside of roles performed during Masses, there are opportunities to prepare the church for the liturgies in decorating the worship space, to bring the Eucharist to the homebound, to work with engaged couples in their wedding rehearsals, and to sew baptism garments. Our active participation illustrates our commitment to live our faith and provide service to others.

Morning Book Club

Our next meeting is Wednesday, May 22nd at 10:00am

We will be discussing "Room" by Emma Donoghue

All American

Seniors! Please be sure to pick up Brag Board/Senior Mass information in the gathering space this week or next. You do not want to miss the opportunity to celebrate your graduation with your Parish Community.

8th graders! Remember, you are still invited to join us every Wednesday from 7:00-9:00 pm for youth group. We have had a few of you drop by in the last couple of weeks and it has been awesome.

Hey, it's mother's day...! Happy Mother's day Mothers! I never knew how hard the work of raising kids is until I had my own. And, lemme just say, moms rock! Speaking of moms, I am not sure if I let the Parish Community know, but because we are crazy...the husband and I are cookin' our third kid (well, I am doing most of the cookin', he is more like listenin' to all the complaining). For those of you keeping track, that's three kids in three years! YIKES! We are crazy, but thankfully we like each other and we like kids a lot, so it should work out! Baby Wilkerson #3 is due mid-September. Prayers, of course appreciated.

DEVOTIONS TO THE VIRGIN MARY AT SJN

Wanting to spend added time with “Mary” during the month of May? Join us at St. John Neumann.

We pray the “Rosary” every Monday and Tuesday, after 9 AM Mass.

We pray “Our Mother of Perpetual Help” followed by the “Rosary” and “Novena to Our Lady of Loretto” every Wednesday at 6:30pm.

Every Friday, after 9 AM Mass, we have Adoration until 6:30pm. Also, we pray “Our Lady of the Seven Sorrows Rosary”, at about 10 AM.

All our welcome. You can find us in the Eucharistic Chapel or in front of the “Mary” statue.

Overeater’s Anonymous Open Meeting

OVEREATER’S ANONYMOUS is a fellowship of individuals who, through shared experience, strength, and hope, are recovering from compulsive overeating.

There are no dues or fees for members; we are self-supporting through our own contributions. Our primary purpose is to abstain from compulsive overeating and to carry this message of recovery to those who still suffer. The Overeater’s Anonymous Open meeting will be held every Wednesday at 7:30pm

If you have any questions you may contact

CYO VOLLEYBALL REGISTRATION

Registration is now underway for the St. John Neumann girls CYO Volleyball teams. Any parish member, 5th-8th grade during the fall school year of 2013, is eligible to register. Entry fee for season is $100.00. Practice will begin in early August, with matches beginning in early September. Season runs through the second week of October. You may register after all masses in the gathering area or by contacting Athletic Director Walt Marek at 734 455-5910.

BEFORE WE CELEBRATE LET'S COMMEMORATE! MONDAY, MAY 27TH IS MEMORIAL DAY...

Please join the Canton Public Library as we commemorate Memorial Day with a collection drive for "STIGGY'S DOGS," a non-profit organization that rescues dogs from shelters in order to train them to be service dogs for Veterans suffering from POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER or TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURIES. The organization's name honors fallen hero HM3 Benjamin "Doc Stiggy" Castiglione, who loved his Marines, his family, and dogs. In his name they are "RESCUING ONE TO RESCUE ANOTHER." Throughout the month of May, we will be appreciatively accepting donations at the reception desk of behalf of "Stiggys Dogs." Their needs include:

- 1) collars, 2) flea and tick medications, 3) toys—especially tennis and racket balls, 4) nail clippers, 5) dog treats (please no rawhide), 6) dog beds, 7) blankets, 8) dog crates (new or used), 9) treadmills (new or used), and of course, 10) cash donations—please make checks out to Stiggy's Dogs. The organization is happy to pick up bigger items—please contact Stiggy's Dogs at (248) 677-883364.

The Canton Public Library truly appreciates the giving spirit of our patrons. Thank you for sharing this "give back" opportunity with us.

SJN T-BALL REGISTRATION

Registration is now underway for the SJN summer t-ball league. Any children 4-7 years of age are eligible to register. Cost of the season is $45.00 and play will begin early June and conclude in early August. To register, obtain a contract from the main office.

For more info you may contact athletic Director Walt Marek at 455-5910 or T-Ball Coordinator Andy Bishop at ajbishop1@comcast.net.
