

IN THE SPIRIT

@St. John Neumann Parish

May 19, 2013

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

CALLED BY CHRIST, GIFTED BY THE SPIRIT

THE HOLY SPIRIT WILL TEACH YOU EVERYTHING.

BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests; however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello Everyone!

Over the course of the past several weeks, we have been introduced to two fundamentals of Christian Stewardship, those being the sharing of our time and talent. Enclosed in the bulletin this week I have included a brochure entitled, Sharing our God-Given Gifts with the Parish Communion.

All of us have been given unique and special gifts by God. Answering the call to discipleship means that we share these gifts with others, beginning with our families and friends and with those who are part of our parish communion.

There are many ways in which you can share your time and talent with our parish. The list of available opportunities here at St. John Neumann are endless and being handed out to you in a larger tri-fold pamphlet. Giving just a little time, or whatever your circumstances will allow, will not only be a blessing for our parish and for those whom these activities touch, but it can also provide you great personal joy and satisfaction as you help others and develop a closer relationship with God working through your parish family.

In the tri-fold pamphlet handed to you is a commitment form. These forms are going to be collected from now through June 1st and 2nd when will be celebrating a ministry fair PARTY following all of the masses that weekend. I hope that this pamphlet will prompt you to consider sharing your God-given gifts in the spirit of Christian stewardship. Please take some time between now and the ministry fair to review the opportunities that are available, not only for you but also for your children, to give to our parish communion. I ask you to ask God for guidance as you reflect on this aspect of Christian stewardship.

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

It is with great pleasure that I announce to the St. John Neumann Parish Community, our students recorded as your registered parishioners, that have achieved Honor Roll status at Divine Child High School for the third quarter of the 2012-2013 school year:

Kyle Fite - Summa Cum Laude
Lauren McGlinch - Magna Cum Laude
Sarah Samsundar - Magna Cum Laude
Ryan Lim Teevens - Summa Cum Laude

Cucchi's Corner

rcucchi@stjohnneumann.us

Today in the United States people are speaking in Spanish, French, Korean, Italian, German, Chinese, Arabic, Polish, Lithuanian, Chaldean, even other dialects that have no particular name. These men and women bring to our parishes a new energy! We experience echoes of Acts chapter 2, verse 4: "All were filled with the Holy Spirit. They began to express themselves in foreign tongues and make bold proclamation as the Spirit prompted them."

As I meditated on the mysteries of Pentecost the words of Hymn 663 in our Green hymnal came to my mind:

As a Fire Is Meant for Burning

As a fire is meant for burning
With a bright and warming flame,
So the church is meant for mission,
Giving glory to God's name.
As we witness to the Gospel,
We would build a bridge of care,
We join hands across the nations,
Finding neighbors everywhere.

We are learners; we are teachers;
We are pilgrims on the way.
We are seekers; we are givers;
We are vessels made of clay.
By our gentle, loving, actions,
We would show that Christ is light.
In a humble, listening spirit,
We would live to God's delight,

As a green bud in the springtime
Is a sign of life renewed,
So may we be signs of oneness
'Mid earth's peoples, many hued.

As a rainbow lights the heavens
When a storm is past and gone,
May our lives reflect the radiance
Of God's new and glorious dawn.

Peace to you today on the great feast of Pentecost and call upon a fresh presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives, and in the life of the Church.

La paz a usted este día como nosotros anticipamos el gran banquete de Pentecostés y la llamada sobre una presencia fresca del Espíritu Santo en nuestras vidas, y en la vida de la Iglesia.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:

1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O'Flynn at 734-453-0829.

2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm, please call Cindy Pronze at 734-416-9914.

For special programs for children and teens, please call Regina Adams for an appointment at 313-268-6951.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

John and Liz Snow

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

What’s gotten into you?” This question usually stems from unacceptable behavior. But it is an appropriate question for today’s feast. The very people who for days, even weeks, had hidden themselves in fear for their lives, were out and about and acting in astonishing ways. They no longer lived in secret. In fact, they were calling attention to themselves by their behavior. What had gotten into them?

“They were all filled with the Holy Spirit.” It is such a simple statement, a statement that may no longer startle us! These previously terrified people were all filled with the dynamic power of God—the power that refreshes and recreates, that comforts and heals; the power so eloquently acclaimed in today’s sequence. This Spirit burned within them like tongues of fire, and they went forth and proclaimed the message of God’s love manifested in the resurrection of Jesus.

This same Spirit was given to us when we were baptized into the death and resurrection of Jesus and confirmed in the power of the Spirit. If we received the same Spirit as did the disciples on that first Pentecost, why can’t we do the same marvelous deeds?

But we can.

One of the questions we ask candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation is, “Why do you think we ask you to do Christian service deeds?”

Most candidates are thirteen or fourteen years old. They have all they can to complete the requirements for Confirmation Preparation, school and the onslaught of adolescence. They tend to focus on the “what” of the requirements, not the “why.”

So we review the deeds with each Candidate:

- greeting parishioners coming to weekend liturgies,
- serving at one of the Lenten Soup Suppers,
- decorating the church for Christmas or Easter,

- tutoring classmates,
- fund-raising for the homeless,
- shoveling snow for elderly neighbors,
- cleaning the house for an ill mother,
- encouraging a depressed friend,
- babysitting a neighbors child for no charge,
- reminding the family about Sunday Mass.

The list goes on.

Candidates realize that these wonderful acts of service provide positive feelings of self-affirmation as well make a difference in the lives of someone else. Some of them understand that they have the “power within” to do great things, to serve others’ needs, and to do God’s work in their world.

What is the source of this power? Baptism. The gift of God’s eternal life. The presence of God, the Holy Spirit.

To be aware of God’s continuous presence in us, with us brings incredible energy and overwhelming gratitude. God’s promise to be with at all times, in all places - without exception - brings wisdom, understanding, courage, insight. It’s a promise that assures us that we will never be alone, even in the darkest times of our lives. What courage it brings to believe that there is nothing so painful or so scary, that it will destroy us. Whatever our trials, all will be okay in the end because God is always there.

That’s what got into the disciples at Pentecost - the assurance of God’s presence. That’s what gets into us at Baptism, at Confirmation and at every Eucharist.

It’s important for us to talk about how God is part of our lives, that God is part of our lives. By talking about God in our lives, we become more aware, more sensitive to the reality. My granddaughter, Klara, knows to tell us: “God is in my heart; he’s in your heart too, Dziadzia.”

Realizing God’s continuous presence will change our lives. On this Feast of Pentecost, let us pray for grace to let go of our insecurity and a willingness to open our heart to God, the Holy Spirit.

NOMINATIONS ARE BEING ACCEPTED

PENTECOST SUNDAY / THE HOLY SPIRIT, THE GIFT OF THE FATHER

WHERE DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

CONTACT GENE gkijek@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

Come, Holy Spirit, Come! Make your home in our hearts. Warm cold hearts with mercy, soften hard hearts with a desire for justice, fill sad hearts with comfort, and lonely hearts with the joy of God's love. Today, 50 days after Easter, we celebrate the great Solemnity of Pentecost, when the followers of Jesus receive the Holy Spirit. In today's Gospel we hear Jesus promise to send the Spirit. An advocate is someone who supports, counsels, and defends us.

Reflection Question... How does the Holy Spirit make a home with us?

Middle School Youth Group met this past week. We worked on Praying in a different way. We participated in an activity called Praying in Color. This activity is where you quiet yourself and sketch names, animals, objects, shapes, designs that are important and through the sketch create a short prayer about the finished design. We also began a new donation project for the month of May to help Stiggy's Dogs. You may be familiar with Stiggy's Dogs through the Canton Library. The Canton Library is honoring our veterans by holding this collection drive. The organization rescues and trains shelter dogs to become service guides for veterans suffering from Brain injuries or Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. Please see the website for more information <http://stiggysdogs.org>. The "Middle Schoolers" have a display in the Religious Formation Office for donations.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL, Kingdom Rock is fast approaching... reminder to high school volunteers, a Called to Serve workshop is scheduled for Saturday, June 15th from 9:00am to Noon. Please call us in the Formation Office to register. Thank you!

Have a great week everyone and remember... It's Cool to be Catholic!

Peace and Prayers,

Sabrina Queen

SHOWING OUR STEWARDSHIP THROUGH WORSHIP

The Education Commission's mission in St. John Neumann parish is to provide opportunities for each member of the community to learn and grow in their faith in Jesus and, by living out that faith, share it with others. The committees working within the Education Commission offer many opportunities for people to learn through sharing their time and talents.

The Faith Formation/Catechetics Committee is responsible for our large weekly program and Faith UNwrapped, designed for families of all ages. The Middle School and Youth Group Committees, sacramental preparation and VBS are all part of a traditional view of religious education. More than 100 volunteers are needed for the programs to function as planned, as teachers as well as other talented people. The Adult Faith Formation Committee takes care of all the details necessary to arrange faith development programs aimed at adults in the parish. This year we organized five different programs and more are coming. The Vocations Committee this year has implemented our wonderful Traveling Chalice program to pray for vocations. We are all eager to hear new ideas and to work along with you to develop all of us into the servants we are called to be.

The SJN Parish Family Picnic is coming soon!
Sunday, June 9, 2013

Come join us for an afternoon of food, fun, and fellowship following the 12:30pm Liturgy

Fun for all ages!
Moonwalk Bouncer-Pony Rides
Face Painting-Children's Games
Cake Walk-Crafts

Most patriotic dresses (all age groups)
Frisbee Golf competition (Contest-all ages)

Please pitch in and help with food service or one of the attractions. An hour of your time will help to make it an enjoyable day for all. Teens are also encouraged to volunteer!

The sign up board is in the Gathering Area.

“We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. “

Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life.”

This weekend is Relay for Life. Many of our teens and adults will be walking to raise awareness about the disease of cancer. If you think about it, please say a prayer for them!

Seniors, please don't forget to grab 'brag board and graduation mass' forms in the gathering area. Once again, we will be having a light reception following the Mass but you MUST RSVP to attend. The forms are due the week before the Mass, no exceptions (so don't try calling!).

The last meeting of the year is this Wednesday, May 22nd. This is a special meeting for lots of reasons. First, we get to celebrate the seniors who have helped shape our program the last four years. Second, we will be introducing the new youth minister to everyone (he is AWESOME!!!). And finally, after almost 10 years, this will be my last meeting as youth minister. We would love to see some old faces as well as welcome new ones (8th graders, I'm looking at you... you are each invited).

Have a great week!

Help save a life and receive a donation for your organization in the process!

Protect your health by finding out your risk of having a stroke by participating in the Life Line Screening that will be at St John Neumann on Friday, July 19, 2013. Through ultrasound, the carotid arteries can be evaluated for the buildup of fatty plaque, which is the leading cause of stroke. Register today for the Stroke, Vascular & Heart Rhythm package by either calling the special Helping Hands registration number or by signing up thru the provided registration sheet (available on the flyers). By signing up for this health event, not only will you be able to receive $10 off any package of $149 or more, but St John Neumann will also receive a $10 donation for every member who signs up and attends this Life Line Screening event. The Stroke, Vascular & Heart Rhythm Package includes four screenings: carotid artery, abdominal aortic aneurysm, peripheral arterial disease and atrial fibrillation. To schedule your appointment and to receive this special offer, please sign up on the flyers provided by St John Neumann or by calling the designated Helping Hands number at: 1-800-324-9458. You may also sign up online by visiting www.helpinghandsforhealth.com. Join in the fight against vascular disease!

DEVOTIONS TO THE VIRGIN MARY AT SJN

Wanting to spend added time with “Mary” during the month of May? Join us at St. John Neumann.

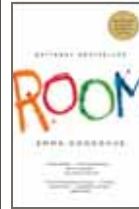

We pray the “Rosary” every Monday and Tuesday, after 9 AM Mass.

We pray “Our Mother of Perpetual Help” followed by the “Rosary” and “Novena to Our Lady of Loretto” every Wednesday at 6:30pm.

Every Friday, after 9 AM Mass, we have Adoration until 6:30pm. Also, we pray “Our Lady of the Seven Sorrows Rosary” at about 10 AM.

All our welcome. You can find us in the Eucharistic Chapel or in front of the “Mary” statue.

Morning Book Club

Our next meeting is Wednesday, May 22nd at 10:00am

We will be discussing “Room” by Emma Donoghue

Neumann’s Needlers - Thanks to the creative efforts of several people, we donated over a dozen each of baby blankets and baby hats to U of M’s Newborn Intensive Care Unit last month. We are currently creating hats, scarves, shawls, lap blankets and baby blankets. Our next gathering is on May 28, 2013 at 7:30 PM. We welcome men and women, young and old, beginners and advanced.

CYO VOLLEYBALL REGISTRATION

Registration is now underway for the St. John Neumann girls CYO Volleyball teams. Any parish member, 5th-8th grade during the fall school year of 2013, is eligible to register. Entry fee for season is $100.00. Practice will begin in early August, with matches beginning in early September. Season runs through the second week of October. You may register after all masses in the gathering area or by contacting Athletic Director Walt Marek at 734 455-5910.

BEFORE WE CELEBRATE LET'S COMMEMORATE! MONDAY, MAY 27TH IS MEMORIAL DAY...

Please join the Canton Public Library as we commemorate Memorial Day with a collection drive for "STIGGY'S DOGS," a non-profit organization that rescues dogs from shelters in order to train them to be service dogs for Veterans suffering from POST TRAUMATIC STRESS DISORDER or TRAUMATIC BRAIN INJURIES. The organization's name honors fallen hero HM3 Benjamin "Doc Stiggy" Castiglione, who loved his Marines, his family, and dogs. In his name they are "RESCUING ONE TO RESCUE ANOTHER." Throughout the month of May, we will be appreciatively accepting donations at the reception desk of behalf of "Stiggys Dogs." Their needs include:

- 1) collars, 2) flea and tick medications, 3) toys—especially tennis and racket balls, 4) nail clippers, 5) dog treats (please no rawhide), 6) dog beds, 7) blankets, 8) dog crates (new or used), 9) treadmills (new or used), and of course, 10) cash donations—please make checks out to Stiggy's Dogs. The organization is happy to pick up bigger items—please contact Stiggy's Dogs at (248) 677-883364.

The Canton Public Library truly appreciates the giving spirit of our patrons. Thank you for sharing this "give back" opportunity with us.

SJN T-BALL REGISTRATION

Registration is now underway for the SJN summer t-ball league. Any children 4-7 years of age are eligible to register. Cost of the season is $45.00 and play will begin early June and conclude in early August. To register, obtain a contract from the main office.

For more info you may contact athletic Director Walt Marek at 455-5910 or T-Ball Coordinator Andy Bishop at ajbishop1@comcast.net.
