Hello all

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hello

I wanted to let you all know about some stuff going on with the Screen Displays/PPT we have prior to and during masses. First I know that many of you have noted the yellow in the center, well that has nothing to do with the bulbs it is actually the projectors themselves. They are old and slowing going. We are hanging on to them till they do go, reason, they are a tad pricey and they do still work. So as long as they are working we will use them. However, we are going to do couple things with the PPT, unrelated to the projectors themselves.

We are going to be taking some things down from the PPT display during the liturgy itself.

How this came about was a concern I had, a concern I approached both worship and parish council about. that was having the "Our Father" on the PPT. Personally I never understood why a basic fundamental prayer is on the PPT. Then I found that many of our older kids in religious formation could not recite the "Our Father." Not that having the prayer on the PPT is the reason, but at the same time it does enable the lack of knowing a fundamental prayer our youngest children should know. I will be honest I am not a big fan of the PPT to start with but at the same time I recognize the aid it is for many of you. So I would never get rid of it completely but I do think it is time to limit what we do have displayed.

First, what is displayed during the liturgy is going to be in white with black background with print that is easily read. I have noticed and heard many people say to me, the print is hard to read sometimes especially with the background color. Also, the purpose of the display is to make it easier for you to see the words of the music, etc. By putting background imagery, not only does it make it more difficult to read, but we are also telling you what image to create in your own mind rather than allowing God to create that image.

Second there are a number of things we will remove from the PPT display during the liturgy. For one, as I already addressed, the "Our Father."

Other things we are planning on taking down are:

The responses "and with your spirit."

The Confiteor, which is the "I confess to all mighty God" which we say at the beginning of mass.

The Lamb of God

The response "Lord I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed"

I think after a year and a half most of us, if not all pretty much know these responses. For those of us who are still concerned, we continue to have the cards in the pockets of the chairs to help you out.

The Gloria, Psalm Response, Music and the Profession of Faith will remain. We are going to begin this process sometime in mid July but I just wanted to give you some fore warning about all that is happening.

Peace

June 22 is Saint Thomas More's feast day. Thomas was a lawyer, statesman & author. In his lifetime he held many public offices including Lord Chancellor from 1529 -1532. He was canonized in 1935 by Pius XI. More is also venerated in the Anglican Church. More is mostly remembered for his refusal to accept Henry VIII's claim to be supreme head of the Church of England. If you have never seen Paul Scofield play Thomas More in the movie A Man for All Seasons I urge you to see it! It is one of my all time favorite movies. Man for All Seasons was originally a play by Robert Bolt. It was first performed in London opening at the Globe Theatre on July 1, 1960. It later found its way to Broadway. The movie with Paul Scofield came in 1966.

Thomas More refused to endorse King Henry VIII's plan to divorce Katherine of Aragon; He refused to attend the coronation of Anne Boleyn in June 1533; and didn't like Henry's denial of the Pope's authority. One of my favorite lines from the movie, when Thomas More is speaking: "What matters is not that it's true, but that I believe it; or no, not that I believe it, but that I believe it." More fears that if he breaks with his conscience, he will be damned to hell, while his friends are more concerned with holding onto their own earthly power. More was found guilty of treason and beheaded on July 6, 1535. More's final words were: "The King's good servant, but God's First."

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

June 24th -28th

Today’s gospel story (Luke 7:36—8:3) is a wonderful story about forgiveness. The story reminds us to be forgiving, not to judge others and to be thankful for the forgiveness we have received—all in one story! We hear about the woman who comes uninvited to the dinner of Simon and washes and anoints Jesus’ feet, a gracious act in Jesus’ time. Simon is indignant that Jesus would allow this to happen for Simon knows of the woman’s sinfulness. Jesus on the other hand acknowledges her sorrow and her love for God.

Jesus explains her heart to Simon by telling the story of two people in debt, one for a little and one for a lot. Both are forgiven their debt. Who will love the person forgiving the debt more? I love Simon’s reluctant reply, “The one, I suppose, whose larger debt was forgiven.” What I hear, for myself, is not to judge others’ “terrible wrongs” but to have great thankfulness for all the forgiveness I have received. And... be like Jesus...free with handing out forgiveness.

This story reminds me of one of my favorite psalms, Psalm 103, and the melody written for it by Jeanne Cotter. It is #99 in the Gather hymnal. “The Lord is kind and merciful; the Lord is kind and merciful... Slow to anger... rich in kindness... the Lord is kind and merciful.” Can you hear the melody?

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

William Holman Hunt made his fame by painting scenes rich with Christian symbolism in a detailed, realistic style. His most famous painting debuted in 1853 at a London exhibition. "Light of the World" portrayed Jesus knocking at the door. The night scene was lit by a lamp Jesus held up in his other hand. In the background, there was a neglected, yet lush undergrowth. You may have heard the story about the painting. According to the fable, he revealed the painting first to family and friends. They knew he was proud of his extreme attention to detail, so they inspected the painting carefully. Suddenly, someone spoke up, "Did you forget something?"

"No," Hunt said, "what?"

"Jesus can't open the door. The door doesn't have a handle."

"No, I didn't forget. The door represents the heart of the person and the handle is on the inside. Jesus knocks at the door, but only the person can let him in."

Regardless whether the story is true or not, the painting makes a very clear point. When we invite Jesus into our hearts, we make him an honored guest. Letting him in requires repentance. Making him an honored guest requires hospitality. For a Christian, repentance and spiritual hospitality are interwoven.

Reflect on Hunt's painting. Imagine that you have opened the door and Christ has entered. What accommodations do you offer him? Now, consider that Christ lives in others. How do you open your heart to them? What accommodations do you offer them?

BLESSING OF FATHERS

God of all love,
we ask you to bless all fathers,
grandfathers, godfathers,
adoptive fathers, foster fathers, stepfathers.
and those men who treat us with fatherly care,
this day and every day.

Their love for us
has been a sign of your love for us.
Their continuous concern for our needs and well-being mirrors your care for us.

Bless them this day
with your strength and your love,
with your understanding and compassion.

Bless them with joy, love, laughter and pride in their children and surround them with many good friends.

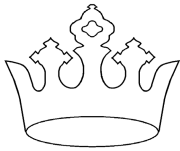

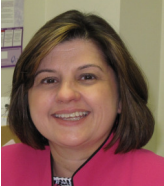

Bless them with happiness and good health,
with peace and contentment
that they may live with you forever.

We pray for our Fathers
in the name of the Father,
and of the Son,
and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

WHERE DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

CONTACT GENE gkijek@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

In today's Gospel we meet a sinful woman who loves Jesus. This is a pure image of adoration. This unnamed woman brings her tears to wash the tired feet of Jesus, and using her hair as a towel to dry them. She then brings out a small jar of ointment to soothe and comfort his feet. In her sinfulness, she came to Jesus to adore the best way she knew how; with a gentle touch, while doing the most basic task of washing dirty feet. How do you show your love for Jesus?

Have a great week everyone and in honor of Father's Day and to my own Father who is at eternal rest with our Savior, I would like to share this poem I found in my travels.

The Author is unknown.

WHAT MAKES A DAD?

What Makes a Dad, God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree, the warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature, the comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring, the faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity, the depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities, when there was nothing more to add,
He knew His Masterpiece was complete, and so,
called it – DAD.

Peace to you, and one last message:
HAPPY BIRTHDAY FATHER RON!

Sabrina Queen

Saint John Neumann Youth Ministry and the whole Saint John Neumann parish community are so very proud of our senior’s accomplishments today! Graduation is such a special time and we are blessed that you have allowed us to celebrate it with you. Please know that your Parish is always a place you can turn to in order to receive support, love and faith-encouragement. Stay close to Jesus as life takes you to many places, it will be the best decision you make!

Blessing of Graduates

Before you were even formed, God knew you.
While in your Mother’s womb, God named you.
At your birth, God’s breath filled you with life.
Today we celebrate what you have become at this moment in time. And so we pray,

God of our beginnings,
We thank you for the gifts of these graduates;
their excitement, their awesome wonder and curiosity,
their open speech and encouraging words.
Their contributions have blessed and challenged
us,
and we have become a richer
and more diverse community because of them.

As they step forward into the world that awaits, comfort their fears with the full knowledge of your divine presence.

Strengthen their resolve to walk in the footsteps of Jesus

as modern-day disciples in a world that needs their spirit.

Guide their feet as they move through life,
protecting them from the pitfalls of darkness
while they help to lead future generations into the warmth and promise of your light.

We ask this blessing upon each of them,
In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

AMEN!

The pilgrimage will be from June 10-19, 2013 and the group is composed of 28 discerners, 5 seminarians, 3 priests, and 1 Bishop. The support and prayers of the people from the Archdiocese of Detroit has been overwhelming and much appreciated. Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Mel and Rosario Munoz

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

Walking In New Life

Please remember in your prayers this week the souls of:

Alphonse Guczynski

Lisa McMaster

Shirley "Anne" Theisen

My name is Matthew Kurt. I am currently a life scout in Troop 743 and I am starting a diaper drive for AAA Crisis Pregnancy Center for my Eagle Scout project. If you could please put any new diapers that you wish to donate in the box outside of the gathering area labeled "Diaper Drive." The boxes will be in the welcoming area from June 2 through June 16. AAA Crisis Pregnancy Center supports women with unplanned pregnancies. These diapers will help AAA continue this important work. If you have any questions, please contact me at matthew.kurt@gmail.com. Thank you for your support.

Thank You

To all who helped prepare food and or served the funeral refreshments for the family and friends of

Alphonse Guczynski
