June 23, 2013

TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

If you wish to follow me, you must take up your cross daily and follow me.

Hello all

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

I am not preaching this weekend, the Deacon is but I had to gather some thoughts as I do have mass for the Tigers so I had to come up with something. So earlier in the week, on Monday these were some of the rambling thoughts I have in my head. I thought I would jot them down for my article. At this point I have no idea if this will become my homily for the Tigers, but I think it is a good start!

In the Gospel this weekend Jesus asks people who they think He is. Then He tells them what it must be to be His follower, what we must do. We need to look at that because the first question determines what we do with the next question or the next command if you will. Jesus asks, "Who do people say that I am?" When you go to any bookstore today you can find out who the crowds say Jesus is. Some say Jesus is a prophet. Some people say he was just a man who deceived many people. There are all kinds of things out there that people say. If you watch the Discovery Channel or you watch the History Channel, they try to come up with their own theories as to who Jesus is. So, we can listen to what TV says about Jesus and all of these other places or we listen to ourselves. Ultimately it comes down to Jesus looking at you and saying, "Well who do YOU say that I am?" And how YOU answer that question determines how YOU live your life.

So who do you say Jesus Christ is? Is He a good person who gave us some nice moral ways to live life? You know, the LOVE stuff. We have to love each other and care about each other. That is all nice. Or is He really the Son of God and is GOD?

Somewhere in our lives we have to make sure that we have the faith of the Church. That we believe what we believe; that we know that Christ is God and if we don't really know that, then we have to search until we find that out. Once we come to know and believe that Christ is the God of the universe, the Alpha and the Omega, the One that each of us will stand before on judgment day, the One that keeps us alive by His resurrection, once we believe that, then we just cannot follow Him as a moral teacher. We must follow Him with our lives.—Not part of our lives on Sunday.—Not just trying to be good people.—That is not enough!

In the words of Jesus, "No one can be My disciple unless you deny your very self, take up your cross daily, every day and follow in My footsteps. Those who seek their life will lose it. Those who lose their life will find it." This goes against the grain and teaching of the world! To truly come to Jesus you must die! You cannot come to Jesus to "get what you want and make yourself feel good."

Many people will start church shopping because they want the church to make them feel good. To follow something because of how you feel will never make you satisfied. Why? Because your feelings change all the time, don't they?

Those of you married, I venture to guess there are days you look at your spouse and say, WOW I am so lucky. Then there are other days you look at your spouse and say to yourself (or maybe even to your spouse), "what did I do???" Ultimately though you married the person you married to give your life for them and so this is what you MUST do for Jesus, you give your life for Him!

When you and I come to Him, He says this is a daily dying to be with Me. Not just once but every day! This means we seek God's will each day of our lives and we live His will instead of our own. When it comes to following Jesus a lot of people go into automatic pilot, like saying "The Lord's Prayer." Well, YOU NEED TO STOP THAT!!!

In your daily prayer to God we should add the following:

Jesus, I have plans today but I am willing to put all of those plans aside if You have another set of plans for me.

By doing this, every day we deny our very selves, pick up our cross and follow in His steps.

Who Is Jesus to you? Is He God, the one you turn your life over to, or just some nice guy who had a lot of nice things to say?

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship is the latest document from the church to guide us in our understanding of divine worship. The Committee on Divine Worship of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) developed the document. Over several weeks I am going to print in my column the parts of the document that pertain to you, THE ASSEMBLY. Happy reading and reflection on our Catholic worship!

If you want to view the entire document, you can go to the bishops website and view it: www.usccb.org

Rick Cucchi

Director of Music Ministries

Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship, a revision of Music in Catholic Worship, was developed by the Committee on Divine Worship of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). On November 14, 2007, the Latin Church members of the USCCB approved these guidelines. These guidelines are designed to provide direction to those preparing for the celebration of the Sacred Liturgy according to the current liturgical books (in the ordinary form of celebration).

Foreword

Greetings from the bishops of the United States to priests, deacons, liturgists, music directors, composers, cantors, choirs, congregations, and faith communities throughout the United States. "Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."<sup>1</sup> It is our duty and our joy as shepherds of the Church to guide and oversee liturgical song in each particular Church. Liturgy is the source of the Church's prayer and action, and the summit by which our lives and all our ministries ascend to the Father. We pray that this document will draw all who worship the Lord into the fullness of liturgical, musical prayer.

I. WHY WE SING

1. God has bestowed upon his people the gift of song. God dwells within each human person, in the place where music takes its source. Indeed, God, the giver of song, is present whenever his people sing his praises.<sup>2</sup>

2. A cry from deep within our being, music is a way for God to lead us to the realm of higher things.<sup>3</sup> As St. Augustine says, "Singing is for the one who loves."<sup>4</sup> Music is therefore a sign of God's love for us and of our love for him. In this sense, it is very personal. But unless music sounds, it is not music, and whenever it sounds, it is accessible to others. By its very nature song has both an individual and a communal dimension. Thus, it is no wonder that singing together in church expresses so well the sacramental presence of God to his people.

<sup>2</sup> "Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple,

God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy" (1 Cor 3:16-17)

June 24th - 28th

The day is almost here for me to retire and the emotion that fills my heart is gratitude. I think back to when I first began working at St. John Neumann and how happy I was to have a job that I felt was very right for me. I had been a volunteer catechist for 12 years (6 years in Illinois, 3 in South Carolina and 3 at St. John Neumann) and the opportunity to serve as an assistant DRE for Fran Dawson seemed to fall into my lap. I do believe and recognize that it was God’s call for me.

It is hard to imagine a more rewarding career experience than serving in Religious Formation. It has been wonderful to work with all the families of SJN, i.e. to work with parents who desire to hand their faith on to their children and also to help children prepare for sacraments and accept God’s love with great simplicity. It has been inspiring to experience the enthusiasm of catechists who desire to plant the seeds of faith in our young people.

I have also been privileged to share many a faith-filled conversation with parishioners of St. John Neumann. Many of you have been an inspiration for me in my own faith journey. I will continue to carry these gifts with me as I move to where God is calling me next.

Some have asked me where I am going. My husband (who is not retiring at this time) and I are not planning on going anywhere. We are staying here. We both have appreciated being active parishioners at St. John Neumann and hope to continue that practice for many years to come.

On my page next week, I hope you will reminisce with me. I hope to share a few photos of some of the experiences we have shared together.

Peace, joy, love to all!

The Worldwide Marriage Encounter (W/WME) weekend is a positive and personal experience offering married couples an opportunity to learn a technique of loving communication they can use

Today's Gospel is challenging. Jesus asks the same question twice: whom do you claim me to be? In both cases, Jesus was not asking for an objective answer. He asked about his role in the religious life of (first) the people and (second) the disciples.

for the rest of their lives. It's a chance to look deeply into their marital relationship and their relationship with God. It's a time to share their feelings, hopes and dreams with each other.

The emphasis of the Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend is on communication between husband and wife. The weekend provides a conducive environment for couples to spend time together, away from the distractions and tensions of everyday life, while encouraging them to focus on each other and their marital relationship.

The disciples answer for the people in order of popularity. Since Jesus preached some of the same themes as John the Baptist (repentance and the immanence of the Kingdom), most people saw Jesus as a disciple of John. There were a minority who saw Jesus in terms of the end times. They thought he fulfilled the role of Elijah. The popular belief held that Elijah would return at the end of time to announce the coming of the Messiah. Finally, a few believe Jesus had the spirit of one of the ancient prophets.

Then Jesus turns and asks the question in an emphatic way: "But you! Whom do you claim me to be?" Peter answers with an assertion of faith: You are the Christ! Luke uses Peter's answer as a springboard toward Jesus' self identification.

Jesus explains that would need to suffer, to be rejected by the leadership, and to be killed. The assumed agent for his suffering and death would be "the elders, the chief priests and the scribes." But, he would need to be raised three days later. The assumed agent for that response would be God himself. In other words, the Messiah would suffer at the hands of men, but be glorified by God.

What does it take to follow such a Messiah? To be willing to act like him. To be willing to suffer and die for the Gospel, so God can raise the person up. To be willing to become Christ-like and reject self-centered interests.

The daily cross should not be confused with daily troubles in life. The daily cross is the day by day commitment a Christian makes to follow Jesus. The daily cross is not suffering quietly through each day alone. The daily cross is to help Christ and those in his Body carry the cross that leads to glory.

Losing our life is to let go of being self-centered and focusing on nurturing the lives those around us, especially those who have no support. We accomplish this in our families, in our neighborhoods, in our workplaces, in our economic and civic choices. It's a life-style we live and leads us all to the fullness of life.

It's not a retreat, marriage clinic, group sensitivity, or a substitute for counseling. It's a unique approach aimed at revitalizing marriage. It is a time for you and your spouse to be alone together, to rediscover each other, and together focus on your relationship for an entire weekend.

Any married couple who desires a richer, fuller life together. A marriage can never be too good. Marriage Encounter is designed to deepen and enrich the joys a couple share together, whether they have been married for only a short time, or for many years.

A Worldwide Encounter Weekend gets you more in sync and renewed in your relationship.

YOU ARE INVITED TO AN "IN PARISH" WEEKEND HOSTED AT ST. MICHAEL'S IN LIVONIA ON AUG. 2-4.

"In Parish" Weekends are convenient for couples to return to the comfort of your own home each evening and return the following day.

Life Line Screening will be here at St John Neumann on Friday, July 19, 2013 offering safe, painless, non-invasive preventive health screenings that are typically not a part of a routine physical. To be more proactive about your health and to live longer for yourself, your family and your community, please register for these potentially life-saving tests today. In addition to the savings you will receive, St John Neumann will also receive a $10 donation for every member who signs up (and attends) using the flyer that is available in the Gathering Area! For only $149 (regularly $159) you can learn your risk of having stroke or vascular disease. There is no time like the present to take action. Pre registration is required. Flyers are available in the Gathering Area

Greetings and Salutations,

In today's Gospel we hear Jesus ask the disciples... Who do you say that I am? Peter answers, "You are the Messiah." Although, Jesus is not the Messiah they were expecting. Peter thought the Messiah would become politically powerful and rule the Jewish people like King David. He thought Jesus would be an earthly ruler who would run the Romans out of Israel, restoring power and wealth among the governments of the world. As we know, Jesus did not come for that reason. Jesus came to bring about the kingdom of God. He came to share God's love with us and show us how to love one another. Who do you say Jesus is? Who are you as a disciple of Jesus? Challenge for this week: Ask your parents and friends who they say you are, and see how the responses they give reflects or does not reflect your call to discipleship.

Well, the time has come and I have completed my last day of work as Coordinator of Youth Ministry at Saint John Neumann. The privilege to work at this parish and interact with the amazing young people who have crossed my path is difficult to put into words. Although I am so excited to be at home with my two, going on three, little boys...I will surely miss the time that I have spent here. When I came to SJN, I was 23 years old. I had just started out on my ‘grown up’ life. Now, many of the alumni of our program are older than I was when I first started. How’s that for surreal? I remember being so nervous at parent meetings, before each major event, and as we embarked on the many crazy adventures we have had. In time, I grew into the role with confidence, but never unaware of the blessing my life had handed me through working here. Do you know, as a youth program in the past 10 years we have been on mission trips, national rallies, countless events, hours of service, trips to New York, Germany, Australia and Spain to see the pope. Hundreds of youth nights have come and pass, and at this moment, all I feel is grateful.

Grateful for the staff I was blessed to work with, some of them who have become dear friends. Thankful for my bosses, who mentored with gentleness and helped form my ministry style. Thankful for the Parishioners who have supported the youth of this parish quite unlike any parish that I know of in the Archdiocese of Detroit. I am so very thankful for the adult team members throughout the years, who have served without ever expecting thanks. Some, for a semester or two, to pull us through the lean years of adult support. And some like Jodi and Stacia, who have been there from the beginning, significantly impacting the young people of this parish. At this point, many of our adult team members have been through the program themselves, eager to give back what was given to them. It is absolutely amazing to watch adults change the course of young people’s lives by simply loving them, and through loving them, showing the Who Christ Is!!! How fantastic.

Attention Parents! Enroll your son or daughter in an evening basketball camp this summer at All Saints Catholic School! The camps are run by ASCS alum Matt Jenkins. Matt was a three year starter at Father Gabriel Richard High School (Ann Arbor) and All League and All Area as a senior. In college, he was a two year starter, NAIA Scholar Athlete and Wolverine Hoosier Athletic Conference Scholar Athlete. Matt has also coached the ASCS Varsity "A" Girls Basketball Team, Plymouth Force AAU program, and All Star Basketball Camps for four years.

Camps are for boys and girls who will enter 4th-9th grade in the fall. The basketball camps will be held over two sessions. The first session will be held on Tuesday and Thursday nights June 25-July 18 from 7:30-9pm. The second session will run from July 23-August 15, also on Tuesday and Thursday nights from 7:30-9pm.

This is a great way for students to improve skills, get some great exercise, and have fun in the summer evenings! For more information, please contact Matt Jenkins at mmjenkins1@gmail.com or call All Saints Catholic School: (734) 459-2490.

Solanus Casey Center Golf Outing

Gather your foursome for the 10th Annual Golf Outing, Saturday, August 3, at the NEW location, Greystone Golf Club, 67500 Mound Road, Romeo. The 8:30 AM shotgun start will be followed by a 2 PM lunch. The day includes a continental breakfast (7:30-8:15 AM), 18 holes of golf, cart and lunch. Registration is $100 per person. Don't golf? Tickets, lunch tickets, golf tee sponsorships, or event contributions can be made by calling 313.579.2100, ext. 153.

In today's Gospel, Luke 9:18-24 we hear Jesus asking each one of us: Who do you say that I am? Peter responds from the heart of God: The Christ of God. Jesus then goes on to say: If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Rita Robinson

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

ST. JOHN NEUMANN TO AID IN OKLAHOMA RECOVERY EFFORTS

You have an opportunity to help the victims of the tornadoes that hit Oklahoma by donating the following items: new blankets, pillows, towels, and wash cloths. Tags will be available the weekend of June 15th & 16th in the gathering area.

A truck will be in our parking lot to pick up your items after all masses the weekend of June 29th & 30th.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:
1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O'Flynn at 734-453-0829.

2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm, please call Cindy Pronze at 734-416-9914.

For special programs for children and teens, please call Regina Adams for an appointment at 313-268-6951.
