Hello all!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

This Wednesday, July 3rd, we celebrate the Feast of St. Thomas the Apostle, the Patron of architects! Here is a little bit of information on St. Thomas, also known as doubting Thomas.

St. Thomas was a Jew, called to be one of the twelve Apostles. He was a dedicated but impetuous follower of Christ. When Jesus said He was returning to Judea to visit His sick friend Lazarus, Thomas immediately exhorted the other Apostles to accompany Him on the trip which involved certain danger and possible death because of the mounting hostility of the authorities. (Jn 11:16)

At the Last Supper, when Christ told His Apostles that He was going to prepare a place for them to which they also might come because they knew both the place and the way, Thomas pleaded that they did not understand and received the beautiful assurance that Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. (Jn 14:5)

But St. Thomas is best known for his role in verifying the Resurrection of his Master. Thomas' unwillingness to believe that the other Apostles had seen their risen Lord on the first Easter Sunday merited for him the title of "doubting Thomas." Eight days later, on Christ's second apparition, Thomas was gently rebuked for his skepticism and furnished with the evidence he had demanded - seeing in Christ's hands the point of the nails and putting his fingers in the place of the nails and his hand into His side. At this, St. Thomas became convinced of the truth of the Resurrection and exclaimed: "My Lord and My God," thus making a public Profession of Faith in the Divinity of Jesus. (Jn 20:24-29)

St. Thomas is also mentioned as being present at another Resurrection appearance of Jesus - at Lake Tiberius when a miraculous catch of fish occurred. This is all that we know about St. Thomas from the New Testament. Tradition says that at the dispersal of the Apostles after Pentecost this saint was sent to evangelize the Parthians, Medes, and Persians; he ultimately reached India, carrying the Faith to the Malabar coast, which still boasts a large native population calling themselves "Christians of St. Thomas." He capped his life by shedding his blood for his Master, speared to death at a place called Calamine.

As you head home this weekend some things to ponder on our readings from Sunday:

What happens to Jesus when He reaches his destination – Jerusalem?

What is your (spiritual/material) destination?

Where will your material path lead you?

Is your material path blocking or enhancing your spiritual journey?

“Suffering, injustice, and evil, even our own personal brokenness, are encompassed by a prayer of praise and lose the power to claim primary importance in our lives. They are included mysteriously in our wholehearted trust in the goodness of things. We may still feel the power of darkness that exists everywhere, but we have the freedom to open the door to heaven in our midst and bear witness to a singing universe. This is truly a gift, one that Francis calls forth from his companions, from all creation, and from us.

Believing in the dream of heaven on earth, we live with the confidence that heaven is not only at the end of the journey but accompanies us along the way. At some time or another we have all glimpsed the new creation. Our response? Praise wells up within us. Praise assures us that we live daily in the radiance of God; it gives us strength to choose a freedom, a greater sense of giftedness, and an awareness of our bond with humanity and creation. Our willingness to sing and dance an alleluia – this is the sign of life in the Spirit! This is our ongoing prayer as it was for Francis.” (Wayne Simsic, Living the Wisdom of St. Francis)

Sing to the Lord: Music in Divine Worship is the latest document from the church to guide us in our understanding of divine worship. The Committee on Divine Worship of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) developed the document. Over several weeks I am going to print in my column the parts of the document that pertain to you, THE ASSEMBLY. Happy reading and reflection on our Catholic worship! If you want to view the entire document, you can go to the bishops website and view it: www.usccb.org

WHY WE SING

•3. Our ancestors reveled in this gift, sometimes with God's urging. "Write out this song, then, for yourselves," God said to Moses. "Teach it to the Israelites and have them recite it, so that this song may be a witness for me."⁵ The Chosen People, after they passed through the Red Sea, sang as one to the Lord.⁶ Deborah, a judge of Israel, sang to the Lord with Barak after God gave them victory.⁷ David and the Israelites "made merry before the Lord with all their strength, with singing and with citharas, harps, tambourines, sistrums and cymbals."⁸ "Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person; for the temple of God, which you are, is holy" (1 Cor 3:16-17).

4. Jesus and his apostles sang a hymn before their journey to the Mount of Olives.⁹ St. Paul instructed the Ephesians to "[address] one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and playing to the Lord in your hearts."¹⁰ He sang with Silas in captivity.¹¹ The letter of St. James asks, "Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praise."¹²

5. Obedient to Christ and to the Church, we gather in liturgical assembly, week after week. As our predecessors did, we find ourselves "singing psalms, hymns and spiritual songs with gratitude in [our] hearts to God."¹³ This common, sung expression of faith within liturgical celebrations strengthens our faith when it grows weak and draws us into the divinely inspired voice of the Church at prayer. Faith grows when it is well expressed in celebration. Good celebrations can foster and nourish faith. Poor celebrations may weaken it. Good music "make[s] the liturgical prayers of the Christian community more alive and fervent so that everyone can praise and beseech the Triune God more powerfully, more intently and more effectively."¹⁴

⁶ Ex 15:1-18, 21.

⁷ Jgs 4:4-5:31.

⁸ 2 Sm 6:5.

⁹ See Mt 26:30; Mk 14:26.

¹⁰ Eph 5:18-19.

¹¹ "About midnight . . . Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, as the other prisoners listened" (Acts 16:25).

FAITH WORKS

The Worldwide Marriage Encounter (W/WME) weekend is a positive and personal experience offering married couples an opportunity to learn a technique of loving communication they can use for the rest of their lives. It's a chance to look deeply into their marital relationship and their relationship with God. It's a time to share their feelings, hopes and dreams with each other.

The emphasis of the Worldwide Marriage Encounter weekend is on communication between husband and wife. The weekend provides a conducive environment for couples to spend time together, away from the distractions and tensions of everyday life, while encouraging them to focus on each other and their marital relationship.

It's not a retreat, marriage clinic, group sensitivity, or a substitute for counseling. It's a unique approach aimed at revitalizing marriage. It is a time for you and your spouse to be alone together, to rediscover each other, and together focus on your relationship for an entire weekend.

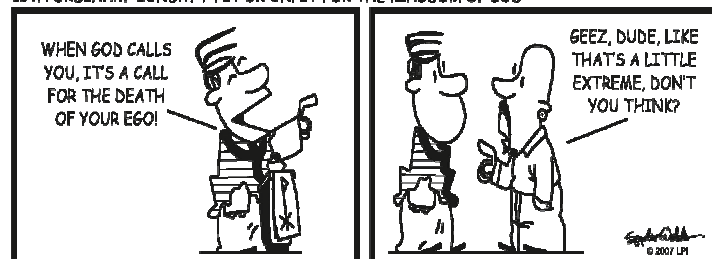

Any married couple who desires a richer, fuller life together should consider this event. A marriage can never be too good. Marriage Encounter is designed to deepen and enrich the joys a couple share together, whether they have been married for only a short time, or for many years.

A Worldwide Encounter Weekend gets you more in sync and renewed in your relationship.

YOU ARE INVITED TO AN "IN PARISH" WEEKEND HOSTED AT ST. MICHAEL'S IN LIVONIA ON AUG. 2-4.

"In Parish" Weekends are convenient for couples to return to the comfort of your own home each evening and return the following day. Contact the Parish Office if you are interested.

13TH ORDINARY SUNDAY / FIT OR UNFIT FOR THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The Sunday Lectionary readings lead us toward a reflection on our discipleship. I looked to Fr. Ron Rolheiser for insights to this relationship with Jesus.

Thus these things - private integrity, social justice, involvement in ecclesial community, and mellowness of heart - are the essentials of Christian discipleship. Jesus mandates social justice as non-negotiable, not optional, within Christian discipleship. This is clear from Jesus' own life, from the text on the last judgement in Matthew's gospel, and from the fact that in the gospels, on average, one out of every eight lines is an imperative from Jesus to reach out to the poor.

We need the right truth, but also the right energy. Nothing counts for much, no matter how right or orthodox the action, if it doesn't issue from love and gratitude. In T.S. Eliot's words: "The last temptation that's the greatest treason, is to do the right thing for the wrong reason." When our concern for truth, orthodoxy, justice, or morality comes out of a place of anger, bitterness, or judgement, we are no longer acting as disciples of Jesus, no matter how right the cause. No action rooted in bitterness, anger, jealousy, self-righteousness, or in a desire for revenge can ever justify itself in Jesus' name.

But there's still a further question: Is there anything in Jesus' teaching and his challenge to us that might serve as a litmus test? Is there any one, singular, teaching that can serve as a criterion as to who is and who isn't a true disciple of Jesus?

There is. For Jesus, the litmus test for a disciple, at least for a mature disciple, is this: Can you love an enemy? Can you bless someone who curses you? Can you forgive, and can you forgive even a murderer?

It is precisely to this challenge that Jesus refers when he tells us that our virtue must go deeper than the virtue of the scribes and Pharisees. The scribes and Pharisees were, for the most part, sincere and decent men and women who loved God, tried to help the poor, were concerned about truth and morals, and practiced justice. But loving an enemy and forgiving a murderer aren't prescribed by justice, the ten commandments, church dogma, human decency, or even sincerity. They're an invitation to something deeper, an invitation that comes from Jesus' life and teaching, and an invitation that, in the end, constitutes the litmus test of mature discipleship.

Who's a real Christian and who's not? The deepest answer in the gospels would be: The person who can love an enemy, bless those who curse her, and forgive everyone, even a murderer.

Greetings and Salutations,

Summer is the time when we can take things a bit more slowly and renew our conversations with God. The following is a short summary on what it means when we pray. Here is wishing you a summer to refresh and relax keeping God in communication.

P= PRAISE – There is no better way to come to Jesus than with a heart full of praise for how much he loves us, for who he is, and how he radically blesses us! Praise reminds us what Jesus is already doing in our lives.

R=REPENT – Our sins create a wall between God and us. When we confess our sins, it is as though God points to a huge laser from Heaven and collapses that wall to bits! Our guilt is gone. We are free to turn from the sinful patterns in our lives. We are free to live a life that pleases God.

A =ASK – “Ask and it will be given to you; seek, and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you.” Matthew 7:7. Remember, nothing is too small or too big to bring to the Lord. He cares about your sick grandfather, your math test, and even what movie you will see on Friday night. Be specific in your prayers and wait for his answers.

Y = YIELD – At a yield sign on the highway, we pause before proceeding to make sure the way is clear. When we yield in prayer, we pause to await God’s signal that our path is clear. The Holy Spirit helps us trust that, in Jesus, God will make our paths straight. Trust in Him.

I would like to take this opportunity and wish two very special people a Happy Retirement and Happy “Stay at Home with your adorable babies” Congratulations! Of course I am talking about Donna and Mary. Donna and Mary, it has been a pure joy working with the both of you. Thank you for your kindness and support these past two years. You both are true blessings in Ministry. Donna, we have had some funny times within the last two years, remember the King and Queen story? That one is my favorite. I am grateful to have shared in this journey of Formation with you, but most of all I am most grateful that we became friends. I wish you nothing but great happiness in your new adventures!

Have a great week everyone and just for fun... Did all the animals go in pairs on Noah’s Ark? Answer... No, the worms went in apples. Hee hee hee.

Peace and Prayers,

(part 2)... Although I am so grateful to the staff, my boss, and all of the parish/adult support over the years, what I am most thankful for are the incredible teens who have been placed in my life. Our alumni roster is impressive! We have several alumni who are or will be dedicating their lives to full time ministry. We have graduated alumni that are now married, have children, spend their time, talent and treasure serving others. It has been so neat to watch the success of the students who have gone through SJN Youth Ministry and I have LEARNED from their faith. I was recently telling someone that I think my faith life will change significantly now that I am home. I can't tell you how often I have been made speechless by the spiritual insights of the young people of this parish. It would be impossible to share all the ways these teenagers have helped shape how I see life and how I view God.

The current teens, to whom this program is entrusted make leaving difficult. They are amazing young people, on fire for the Lord and excited by the possibility to serve one another. I have always said one thing that makes our program unique is the youth leadership aspect. I adore that anything good we have going was probably the idea of a teenager. The Church continues to speak about the importance of the young and this particular parish chooses to live it. I wish each and every one of you parishioners fully understood the specialness that we have going on.

I'd like to apologize to parishioners for the times I screwed up! For the many times I lost paperwork, didn't return phone calls (oh my gosh, I was so bad at this!), or failed to serve the teens the way they needed to be served. I will tell you that I tried, as hard as I could to be good at the job that was handed to me.

I am so excited for you all to get to meet our new youth minister, Chris. He is exceptional. The past few years have been difficult for me in ministry (having three babies in three years will do that to you!) and so I am just so excited to watch Chris build on the foundation that has been set.

I will ask your prayers as I move on from this very special Church to focus on my newly forming family and I will promise that not only will Saint John Neumann have a special place in my heart, but I will always pray for the intentions of this community!

Thank you SJN! It's been good!

LEGION OF MARY

SILENT RETREAT 2013

Come join us at the St. Paul of the Cross Retreat House on July 19th thru 21st for a spiritually powerful weekend retreat. The retreat master is Fr. Hugh Gillespie. Fr. Gillespie will speak about the True Devotion to Mary. All are welcome to participate in this weekend retreat sponsored by the Legion of Mary.

The legionofmarymichigan.org website has all the information necessary to register for the retreat or call Brenda Hayes at 248-862-5105 for more information.

THANK YOU!

THANK YOU!

THANK YOU!

Thank you to everyone who participated in the recent Commitment Weekend designed to encourage more parishioners to become involved in the activities and ministries at St. John Neumann. It was a resounding success. The Stewardship Commission agreed that the most rewarding aspect of the weekend was observing the fellowship shared by everyone who came into the assembly room to join in the event. People enjoyed the food and beverages and stayed to chat with friends long after the first course, and even second helpings were had.

A most sincere thank you goes out to all of the volunteers who helped with the details of setting up, cleaning up, getting the food and drinks in order. The same thanks is extended to those who committed their time and efforts to promote the ministries in such a colorful and engaging manner. It takes a lot of people who love their parish family to put such gatherings together. May their inspiration be felt long after the aura of the weekend fades. Sometimes it also takes people from outside the immediate parish community, such as the Knights of Columbus, to provide the finishing touch. Thank you to the Knights!!!

Those who completed the Commitment to Serve Card should have already received contact from the Stewardship Commission thanking them for volunteering and assuring them that they will be contacted again in the Fall with more specifics about their chosen opportunities to serve.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Audrey Pawenski

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

Thank you to all of those who donated diapers for my Eagle Scout project. I collected 200 packages, for a total of 7,667 diapers. The diapers were delivered to AAA Crisis Pregnancy Center on Thursday, June 20. AAA was incredibly grateful for all these diapers. They will be put to good use by new moms who chose life for their babies! Thank you for your generosity. Sincerely, Matthew Kurt
