IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

So this week is the Transfiguration of the Lord, I thought I would give you a brief reflection on this event.

Why did our Lord not manifest His divine glory on Tabor before all the disciples instead of before three of them? First, because He Himself gave the Law through the mouth of Moses: "At the mouth of two witnesses or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established" (Deuteronomy 19:15). Therefore, three witnesses are sufficient.

These three witnesses represent three main virtues: Peter Faith, for he was the first to confess his faith in Christ as the Son of God; James Hope, for, with faith in the promise of Christ, he was the first who laid down his life for the Lord, being the first to be slain by the Jews; John Love, for he reclined on the bosom of the Lord and remained beneath the Cross of the Lord until the end.

Are we prepared to see God's glory? God is eager to share his glory with us! We get a glimpse of this when some of the disciples see Jesus transfigured in glory on a high mountain as we see in today's gospel passage. Luke's gospel tells us that while Jesus was transfigured, Peter, James, and John were asleep (Luke 9:32)! Upon awakening they discovered Jesus in glory along with Moses and Elijah.

How much do we miss of God's glory and action because we are asleep spiritually?

There are many things which can keep our minds asleep to the things of God. The life of ease can also hinder us from considering the challenging or disturbing demands of Christ. Peter, James, and John were privileged witnesses of the glory of Christ. We, too, as disciples of Christ, we are called to be witnesses of his glory. The Lord wants to reveal his glory to us, his beloved disciples.

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

The Summons

This weekend we are singing The Summons by John Bell. The text really challenges us to give all of our person and entire being. I think it also deals with the fear we all sometimes encounter in regard to sharing our faith concretely with others. But the hymn text reminds us of an exciting truth present in current reality: we can live in God and God can live within us. It doesn't get more exciting than that! The hymn comes to us from the Iona community. Here is some information explaining the tenants of the community from their website <http://www.iona.org.uk>:

Iona is a small island off the west coast of Scotland, where in 563 Columba founded a Celtic monastery that was very influential in its own times. In the middle ages it was the site of a Benedictine abbey and over the centuries has attracted many thousands of people on their own pilgrim journeys.

The Iona Community, founded in 1938 by the Rev George MacLeod, then a parish minister in Glasgow is an ecumenical Christian community that is committed to seeking new ways of living the Gospel in today's world. Initially this purpose was expressed through the rebuilding of the monastic quarters of the mediaeval abbey on Iona and pursued in mission and ministry throughout Scotland and beyond. The Community today remains committed to rebuilding the common life, through working for social and political change, striving for the renewal of the church with an ecumenical emphasis, and exploring new more inclusive approaches to worship, all based on an integrated understanding of spirituality.

The Iona Community today has almost 250 Members, mostly in Britain, over 1500 Associate Members and around 1400 Friends worldwide. An ecumenical community of men and women from different walks of life and different traditions in the Christian church, its members share a common Rule which includes:

- Daily prayer and reading the Bible
- Mutual accountability for their use of time and money
- Regular meeting together

Action and reflection for justice, peace and the integrity of creation

Rick Cucchi

Director of Music Ministries

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name? Will you go where you don't know And never be the same? Will you let my love be shown, Will you let my name be known, Will you let my life be grown In you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind If I but call your name? Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same? Will you risk the hostile stare Should your life attract or scare? Will you let me answer prayer in you and you in me?

Will you let the blinded see if I but call your name? Will you set the prisoners free and never be the same? Will you kiss the leper clean, And do such as this unseen, And admit to what I mean in you and you in me?

Will you love the 'you' you hide if I but call your name? Will you quell the fear inside And never be the same? Will you use the faith you've found To reshape the world around, Through my sight and touch and sound in you and you in me?

*Lord, your summons echoes true
When you but call my name. Let me turn and follow you And never be the same. In your company I'll go Where your love and footsteps show. Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.*

The Sermon on the Mount

After the call of the disciples, Matthew has Jesus climbing the top of a mountain, sitting down and teaching. The words Jesus speaks are what we now call the Sermon on the Mount. It is the most analyzed, most contested and most influential moral and religious discourse in human history. It is on the mountain that Matthew has gathered the teaching of Jesus together in words which have reverberated through the centuries.

Come and listen and share anew the living Word of the Sermon with your spouse, friends and neighbors.

FAITH WORKS

What measures of success do we have? Why does society reduce success to material wealth, fame, or power? How many of us look out for a "sure thing?" The score. The big pay-off. The retirement check. Watch enough late night cable television and you will find the same "get rich quick" infomercials play over and over. Look beyond the gloss of these presentations and you will find one fact. If you want really to make big money, sell greed!

Is the road to success paved with greed? Jesus didn't think so. In the time of Jesus, there was no middle class, only the few who were rich and the masses who were poor. In the Roman empire, the elite (less than five percent of the population) controlled 80-90% of the wealth. The poor rented land to farm from the wealthy. Greedy bureaucrats served these elite by taxing the poor, and served themselves by "skimming" extra tax moneys for themselves. So the poor were victims in two ways, from land rents and over-taxation. The poor were so burdened that it was not unusual for many to be underfed in times of food surplus; many would actually sell themselves into slavery in order to feed their families.

In that desperate atmosphere, there was the temptation to place prime importance on economic survival. But Jesus questioned that logic: life was more than possessions. To make the point, Jesus told the parable of a rich, self-absorbed man who, on the eve of great material surplus, died. In life, the rich man hoarded, but in death, that what he desired was taken away, leaving his heart empty and his character hollow. So, what is really important? Dying with the most toys? Or, living a life of faith? Accumulating stuff requires greed. But living faith requires a prudent knowledge of good, a sense of justice, an unwavering commitment, and a sense of balance. At the crisis points of life (and ultimately at the point of death) which is more important? Which will carry us through?

Reflect on what you have this week. What could you live without? What do you truly need? Pray God will help you guide you in the accumulation and use of your possessions.

Do you know someone who has never been baptized? who has talked about becoming a Catholic? who hasn't completed the Sacraments of Initiation? who wants to be updated in the Catholic Faith?

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Summer Greetings and Salutations,

Today's Gospel... we hear Jesus was praying in a certain place and when he had finished, one of his disciples asked "Lord, teach us to pray just as John taught his disciples." We know Jesus' response. For me, especially in these summer months, my prayer life is very solid. I begin my day with prayer, and throughout the day I make sure I take time to share in meditation or conversation with God. Prayer is our opportunity to grow closer to God. Normally in these summer months I am catching up on "Catholic reading" for work related topics, or reviewing something a friend has recommended. This summer what I decided to do is read a bunch of children's books and reflect on them in my prayer time. So far, I have completed "The Kissing Hand," "Arnie and the New Kid," "Enemy Pie," "Chicken Sunday," (loved that one) "Granddad's Prayers of the Earth", "The Lonely Teddy," and I even reread "Alexander and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Day." Many of these books are about compassion and encouraging one another to do well. Maybe today, think of what role prayer takes in your life? What do you pray about? How can you motivate your own prayer life?

We would like to remind you that our 2013-2014 Religious Formation Registration packets for grades preschool thru 8th grade are available in the Gathering area. I would like to also mention this year we have ordered a new fun faith series for our darling preschool/kindergarteners. It is a series from Our Sunday Visitor called "Allelu." It is new and very age appropriate to promote the work of Jesus and the church.

Have a great week everyone and remember... keep smiling as of this writing only 160 days until CHRISTMAS!

Peace and Prayers,

Sabrina Queen

YOUTH MINISTRY WITH CHRIS LEACH

Please pray for all of the teens, alumni, and adults who will be away this week at our annual Youth Leadership Training Camp. A lot of great activities have been planned and I am confident that all of us will grow as a result of the experience!

National Catholic Youth Conference- We only have ONE spot left for a high school student interested in attending the NCYC in Indianapolis November 21-24. The total cost of the trip is $415 but we expect to fundraise the majority of the amount. NCYC happens once every 2 years and is the largest gathering of Catholic young people in the United States, I highly recommend it! Please contact me ASAP if you are interested in reserving the spot.

Adult Volunteers- We are always in need of adults who are willing to mentor and share their faith with our young people. We are specifically recruiting volunteers to work with our middle school youth group but numerous other opportunities exist. Please contact me if you or someone you know may be interested in joining our amazing team.

New Website- If you haven't already seen our new website, please take a minute to click on the "Youth Ministry" link on the parish website at www.stjohnneumann.us. The new site contains announcements and dates for the middle and high school youth groups, information about our volunteers, a blog, sign-ups for our e-mail lists, and instructions on how to find us on Facebook. We hope that this will help us to better communicate with the parish!

Kickoff Dates Announced! Regular high school youth group meetings will kick-off on Wednesday, September 18 and middle school youth group meetings will kick-off on Thursday, September 26th. Make sure you don't miss future announcements about our 2013-14 programs by going online and signing up for our mailing list!

Prayer Request from St. Vincent de Paul

Since the almost-two-years that the St. Vincent de Paul has been serving the St. John Neumann Community, we have provided temporary shelter to 20 homeless individuals and families. Other SVDP Conferences in the surrounding areas have experienced a similar increase in the number of newly homeless. To investigate how we might better serve this population, not only to provide temporary shelter, but to assist them to obtain adequate housing and financial resources, an Exploratory Committee to End Homeless in Western Wayne County has been formed. To date, we have developed a preliminary proposal, a budget, and a fund-raising plan. We are now seeking interested parties to serve on the board. People with fund-raising experience, attorneys, real-estate development expertise, bankers, clergy and others are welcome to inquire about how they might assist us in this effort.

Most importantly, however, we are in need of prayer. Please pray that our effort will be successful. The following prayer is said by the committee members at the beginning of each meeting. Please add your prayers to ours. As always, we are most grateful for your support.

Hear our prayer today for all women and men, boys and girls who are homeless this day:

*For those sleeping under bridges, on park benches, in doorways or bus stations;
For those who can only find shelter for the night but must wonder in the daytime;*

For families broken because they could not afford to pay rent.

For those who have no relatives or friends who can take them in.

For those who have no place to keep possessions that remind them who they are.

For those who are afraid and hopeless.

For those who have been betrayed by our social safety net.

For all these people we pray that you will provide shelter, security and hope.

We pray for those of us with warm houses and comfortable beds

That we not be lulled into complacency and forgetfulness.

Jesus, help us to see your face in the eyes of every homeless person we meet

So, that we may be empowered through word and deed,

And through the political means we have

To bring justice and peace to those who are homeless. Amen

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

The Sidick Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.
