

IN THE SPIRIT @St. John Neumann Parish

August 18, 2013

TWENTIETH
SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

There is a baptism with which I must be baptized.

The Sermon on the Mount

After the call of the disciples, Matthew has Jesus climbing the top of a mountain, sitting down and teaching. The words Jesus speaks are what we now call the Sermon on the Mount. It is the most analyzed, most contested and most influential moral and religious discourse in human history. It is on the mountain that Matthew has gathered the teaching of Jesus together in words which have reverberated through the centuries.

Come and listen and share anew the living Word of the Sermon with your spouse, friends and neighbors.

Please register through the Parish Office. There is a $25.00 tuition for these sessions. Scholarships are available.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

Jesuit Fr. Thomas Reese reports that Pope Francis provided a vision for the Church in his talks to the Latin American Conference of Bishops.

Where does Francis want to lead the church? What does he want the bishops to do?

Church as reconciler: In his address to the Brazilian bishops, Francis retells the story of the Madonna of Aparecida as a parable of the Latin American church. Tired fishermen, who have experienced failure in a dilapidated boat with old, torn nets, find a broken statue that must be mended. "In Aparecida, from the beginning, God's message was one of restoring what was broken, reuniting what had been divided," Francis explained. "Walls, chasms, differences which still exist today are destined to disappear. The church cannot neglect this lesson: She is called to be a means of reconciliation."

Church of the heart: For Francis, faith enters the church through the heart of the poor, not through the heads of intellectuals. Francis confessed that "perhaps we have reduced our way of speaking about mystery to rational explanations, but for ordinary people the mystery enters through the heart." This leads him to understand the missionary role of the church not as winning an argument but as offering something beautiful. "Only the beauty of God can attract. God's way is through enticement, allure," he told the bishops. "He reawakens in us a desire to call our neighbors in order to make known his beauty. Mission is born precisely from this divine allure, by this amazement born of encounter."

A church with a simple message: Francis concluded, "The results of our pastoral work do not depend on a wealth of resources, but on the creativity of love." He argued that the message should be kept simple. "At times we lose people because they don't understand what we are saying, because we have forgotten the language of simplicity and import an intellectualism foreign to our people." This church does not obsess over whether Jesus is "one in being" or "consubstantial" with the Father. Rather, it presents Jesus as the compassion of God.

 who has talked about becoming a Catholic?

 the Sacraments of Initiation?

 We are forming a group

Lay Catholics make up 99% of the church.
 Our witness to the role of Jesus in our life affects others greater than any Papal declaration or slick marketing campaign.

Invite someone to come to know Jesus in the Catholic community of faith.

Church of Emmaus: Using the Gospel story of Emmaus, Francis talked to the bishops about people who have left the church because they "now think that the church -- their Jerusalem -- can no longer offer them anything meaningful and important." He does not blame the culture, he does not harangue against relativism, consumerism and other "isms"; rather, he calls for self-examination by the bishops. Perhaps the church appeared too weak, perhaps too distant from their needs, perhaps too poor to respond to their concerns, perhaps too cold, perhaps too caught up with itself, perhaps a prisoner of its own rigid formulas, perhaps the world seems to have made the church a relic of the past, unfit for new questions; perhaps the church could speak to people in their infancy but not to those come of age. (more next week)

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

Today we hear a proclamation from Jesus that is a bit startling. He talks about creating division, and setting the earth on fire. Perhaps we need to remember that when fire is talked about in the Bible, it really changes things. Moses encountered God in the burning bush, and his entire life changes. At Pentecost, flames appear over the heads of the disciples, and once they receive the Holy Spirit everything changes. Moses and the disciples cannot return to life as it was. This is what is truly meant when we take Jesus into our lives. We choose to follow Jesus and we cannot go back to former ways of sin. It is true. Faith in Christ can encourage unity and peace, but it can also cause division among friends and family members who have different beliefs. Why do you think Jesus describes conflict when someone follows him? Help us, dear Jesus, to be true to your word.

Religious Formation registration is underway and going well. Please note if you need a registration packet they are located in the Gathering Area. On that note, I would like to talk about our FAITH UNWRAPPED theme for this year: "On the Road" a faith unwrapped about following God. We decided to go back to basics and take a deeper look from our book of directions... the Bible. We will journey with Jeremiah, Ruth and Naomi, Andrew, and several other biblical people to search how we are called to faith, to be faithful, to share faith, and to put our faith into action. In these times we are a very hurried and harried people. Let's journey with scripture to remember who we are and what we are called to do. I hope you will be able to join us the week of October 14-16 as we begin our road trip. More details will follow in the coming weeks.

Have a great week everyone and remember... You can make a difference. Yeah YOU!

Peace and Prayers!

Sabrina

VOCATIONS CONVOCATION: Pray for Vocations!

Blessed Monstrance for Vocations coming to the Archdiocese of Detroit

On Saturday, September 14, 2013, the Office of Priestly Vocations will host a morning of prayer for vocations at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. A special monstrance, blessed by the late Pope John Paul II will be at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral with adoration from 10:00 a.m. until closing Benediction at 12:00 p.m. All the faithful of Detroit are invited to come and pray for vocations during that time. Pope John Paul II will be canonized a saint of the Roman Catholic Church this year. In 2004 he blessed six monstrances to travel the world to encourage prayer for vocations. Our diocese needs good and holy men and women to consider the priesthood and religious life. Come to the Cathedral to pray!

A seminar for New Vocation Committee Members will also be held at the Cathedral on September 14, 2013 from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. If your parish would like to form a Parish Vocation Committee register online to attend!

For more information visit our website: www.detroitpriest.com. Follow us on Facebook: Office of Priestly Vocations or Twitter @DetroitPriest.

Vocations, one of the seven mission priorities for the Archdiocese of Detroit!

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.
By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment
In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. "
Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life."

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

The Bickle Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.

YOUNG AT HEART

Just a reminder for those going on the trip to Caesars Windsor on Tuesday, September 3rd, that our bus will leave St. John Neumann at 12:30pm and return approximately 7:30pm. Looking forward to welcoming you onboard!

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? Facilitator Rosemarie Shim, social worker and parishioner, has 14 years experience working with Alzheimer patients and their families. The Alzheimer's Support group meets the third Thursday of each month at 7:30pm.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Rosemarie at 734-981-0556.
