TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY
IN ORDINARY TIME

We are a Catholic faith community called by God to give living witness to the gospel through encouraging an open, loving and caring environment. We strive to accomplish this by sharing in prayerful, and joyous worship, respecting individuals and serving their needs.

BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. Hello all!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

Well can you believe that next weekend is Labor Day already, where did the summer go?

As you know we have been talking about the picture directory we are going to be doing in September. I do hope all of you are signing up to have your photos taken so we can have the directory as full as possible. The great thing about a picture directory is it allows parishioners to put names to faces that they do not know. So the more of you that come and get that photo taken, the better it is for the entire community. On top of it all, you get a free 8x10 photo! Can you beat that? I don't think so. Remember, you can sign up for a time to get the photo taken on line. So please I hope that everyone can participate in the directory.

On this, the 21st Sunday of Ordinary time, I ask you to reflect on the following as you head home today:

- Is it possible to hide the intentions of your heart from God?
- Does God see your action in the same way that the world measures worth?
- Is there anything that is not forgivable by God?
- Would you act differently if the measure of your actions was from God?

Grant us Prudence in proportion to our power, Wisdom in proportion to our science and Humaneness in proportion to our wealth and might. Bless our earnest will to help all races and people to travel in freindship on the road to justice, liberty and lasting peace.

Grant us above all to see that our ways are not necessarily your ways, that we cannot fully penetrate the mystery of your designs and that the very storm of power now waging on this earth reveals your hidden will and inscrutable decision. Grant us to see your face in the lightning of this cosmic storm, O God of holiness, merciful to all. Grant us to seek peace where it is truly to be found! In your will, O God is our peace! Amen. (Merton, Thomas, Dialogues With Silence)

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

The Sermon on the Mount

After the call of the disciples, Matthew has Jesus climbing the top of a mountain, sitting down and teaching. The words Jesus speaks are what we now call the Sermon on the Mount. It is the most analyzed, most contested and most influential moral and religious discourse in human history. It is on the mountain that Matthew has gathered the teaching of Jesus together in words which have reverberated through the centuries.

Come and listen and share anew the living Word of the Sermon with your spouse, friends and neighbors.

Please register through the Parish Office. There is a $25.00 tuition for these sessions. Scholarships are available.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

Jesuit Fr. Thomas Reese reports that Pope Francis provided a vision for the Church in his talks to the Latin American Conference of Bishops. What does Pope Francis suggest?

We need a church unafraid of going forth into their night. We need a church capable of meeting them on their way. We need a church capable of entering into their conversation. We need a church able to dialogue with those disciples who, having left Jerusalem behind, are wandering aimlessly, alone, with their own disappointment, disillusioned by a Christianity now considered barren, fruitless soil, incapable of generating meaning. ...

Are we still a church capable of warming hearts? A church capable of leading people back to Jerusalem? Of bringing them home? Jerusalem is where our roots are: Scripture, catechesis, sacraments, community, friendship with the Lord, Mary and the apostles. ... Are we still able to speak of these roots in

Francis then presented practical challenges for the Brazilian (and other) bishops that follow from this ecclesiology:

Unless we train ministers capable of warming people's hearts, of walking with them in the night, of dialoguing with their hopes and disappointments, of mending their brokenness, what hope can we have for our present and future journey?

There is need, then, for a greater appreciation of local and regional elements. Central bureaucracy is not sufficient; there is also a need for increased collegiality and solidarity." What is needed is "not unanimity, but true unity in the richness of diversity.

The church's legacy is transmitted through witness, and "one needs to hand it over personally, to touch the one to whom one wants to give, to relay, this inheritance."

We need a church capable of rediscovering the maternal womb of mercy. Without mercy we have little chance nowadays of becoming part of a world of 'wounded' persons in need of understanding, forgiveness, love.

Let us not reduce the involvement of women in the church, but instead promote their active role in the ecclesial community. By losing women, the church risks becoming sterile.

In speaking to the coordinating committee of CELAM, Francis continued to flesh out his agenda for the bishops.

Do we see to it that our work, and that of our priests, is more pastoral than administrative?"

Are we creating a proactive mindset? Do we promote opportunities and possibilities to manifest God's mercy?"

Do we make the lay faithful sharers in the mission?"

Do diocesan and parish councils, "whether pastoral or financial, provide real opportunities for lay-people to participate

Do you know someone in pastoral consultation, organization and planning?

Do we give the laity the freedom to continue discerning, in a way befitting their growth as disciples, the mission which the Lord has entrusted to them? Do we support them and accompany them, overcoming the temptation to manipulate them or infantilize them?

The center is Jesus Christ. Missionary discipleship does not allow for self-absorption or self-centeredness. "Either it points to Jesus Christ or it points to the people to whom he must be proclaimed," Francis said. Neither the missionary nor the church is the "center," he proclaimed. "The center is Jesus Christ, who calls us and sends us forth." When the church "makes herself the 'center,' she becomes merely functional, and slowly but surely turns into a kind of NGO." Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

In today's Gospel, Jesus uses the image of a narrow doorway to the kingdom of heaven. This makes me think of a big beautiful wooden door with a very vibrant golden key hole. Right now we have to peek and squint and still can't see all that is going on inside. We can only imagine that when that door is open how wonderful it will be. First we must think about the divisions that exist in our schools, workplaces, social circles. Are there people that treat you as "the last"? We need to make a conscientious effort this week to overcome all divisions and treat every encounter as preparation to share in Jesus' banquet, where we all are welcome. What do you imagine it will be like to eat in the kingdom of God?

I would like to send a big THANK YOU shout out to Mrs. Susan Sanders for volunteering to join us on the Faith Unwrapped Design Team. We are so blessed to have you. Thank you for answering our plea.

Also, at this time we are in need of Catechists and Assistant Catechists for our early elementary grade levels. If you would like to volunteer please call me in the Religious Formation office.

Upcoming Events...

VOCATIONS CONVOCATION: Pray for Vocations!

Blessed Monstrance for Vocations coming to the Archdiocese of Detroit

On Saturday, September 14, 2013, the Office of Priestly Vocations will host a morning of prayer for vocations at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. A special monstrance, blessed by the late Pope John Paul II will be at the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral with adoration from 10:00 a.m. until closing Benediction at 12:00 p.m. All the faithful of Detroit are invited to come and pray for vocations during that time. Pope John Paul II will be canonized a saint of the Roman Catholic Church this year. In 2004 he blessed six monstrances to travel the world to encourage prayer for vocations. Our diocese needs good and holy men and women to consider the priesthood and religious life. Come to the Cathedral to pray!

A seminar for New Vocation Committee Members will also be held at the Cathedral on September 14, 2013 from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. If your parish would like to form a Parish Vocation Committee register online to attend!

For more information visit our website: www.detroitpriest.com. Follow us on Facebook: Office of Priestly Vocations or Twitter @DetroitPriest.

Vocations, one of the seven mission priorities for the Archdiocese of Detroit!

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. "

Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life."

YOUTH MINISTRY WITH CHRIS LEACH

I hope everyone is enjoying the last few weeks of summer. Please say a special prayer for our college students who are beginning to move back into dorms this week. Let them know that you will be thinking about them when you see them at Mass this weekend!

Rite of Christian Initiation for Teenagers- If any teenagers are interested in either joining the Catholic Church or completing the Sacraments of Initiation, please contact me in the parish office. Depending on interest we can begin a Teen's Faith Inquiry group to help young people explore these Sacraments and the meaning of participating in the Catholic Church. Regardless, I will work with each individual teen to meet their specific needs and circumstances.

Middle School Adult Team- The first planning/brainstorming meeting for the Middle School Adult Team has been scheduled for 7:00pm on Wednesday, August 28th. If you are still interested in participating but have not contacted me, please do so ASAP! See my article in last week's bulletin (linked on the Youth Ministry Blog) for a greater description of the role our adult volunteers play in youth ministry.

Mailing Lists- There will be a table in the Gathering Space after all of the Masses this weekend where teens, alumni and parents can sign up to be on our various youth ministry mailing lists. Important updates will always be in the bulletin but the best ways to stay informed are to join our e-mail list and to "Like" our page on Facebook! Make sure to stop by the table after Mass to learn more about how to stay connected!

Remember that the Kick-Off for High School Youth Ministry will be Wednesday, September 18 at 7:00pm and the Kick-Off for Middle School Youth Ministry will be Thursday, September 26 at 7:00pm. Mark your calendars! As always, please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of assistance to you or your family!

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Rick and Carol Benoit

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:
