This will be short! But this past week and this week we have had Lifetouch here taking pictures for a Pictorial Directory which we have not done in 13 years!!!! We still need many of you to sign up and get your pictures taken this week. So if you have not done so please do so NOW! Having a pictorial directory is a great tool. It allows all of us to get to know each other by face. So I am asking you to be a part of the family and sign up!

Here are a few thoughts for you for when you head home from mass!

- How may we know God's will for us?
- Is time for God the same s time is for us?
- Who has Jesus sent to guide us?
- What does being a disciple of Jesus require?

“No follower of Jesus must be so taken up with external activities as to forget the “one thing necessary” (Luke 10:42) namely, to be inwardly transformed by the knowledge and Love Christ brings into the world” (Dulles, Avery Cardinal, Models of the Church)

It takes a village to raise a child.
What does it take to cure childhood cancer?
Cancer remains the leading cause of death by disease among children in the United States. With only 4 percent of all federal cancer research funding dedicated to pediatric cancer research, raising awareness and funds is critical!

It is time for the choir to get back into session. So I am putting the invitation out there for anyone who is interested. This is such a meaningful ministry to the parish at large, so I would ask each of you to think and pray about your response. It is also great fun to be part of a choir. There are many reasons floating around out there—here are a few:

- Rehearsal every Thursday night means one night without the kids.
- Single men, we have a three to one ratio of women to men.
- You always have a great, reserved seat for Christmas and Easter.
- Choir parties—they are fun!
- You will no longer be able to complain, "Church is so impersonal—I don't know anyone in my parish."
- Psalm 100 will come to life for you as you make joyful noise unto the Lord.
- Intellectual stimulation—when you make music, you are using both sides of your brain simultaneously.
- He who sings prays twice (St. Augustine).
- Looks good on your resume.
- They don't pass the collection basket in the choir loft.
- From the choir loft, you can see who's nodding off and give them grief after Mass

We began rehearsing last Thursday. See all of you NEWBIES at rehearsal next Thursday!

Men And Women Retreat's

The men and women of St. John Neumann and Resurrection Parish's are invited to participate in a weekend retreat at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center.

Our Retreat theme for this year is "You Believe In Him: Can You Believe Him?"

We deal with change in almost every aspect of our lives, from relationships and work to church and society. Some changes we undertake ourselves, but much of the time we don't like change, and we often wish that those who initiated the changes would have kept them to themselves. But as is symbolized by the image of a butterfly with a cross, our faith can give us a different perspective on change. We often find that God is present in the changes we undergo. In fact, these changes can be for us moments of transformation, just like the change that transforms a caterpillar into a butterfly.

Our retreat will lead us to reflect on how we respond to change in faith, and how we might even be called to enter into change, so that we may become more and like the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who underwent various changes in order to bring us to salvation. Instead of resisting change, we may find ourselves willing to "keep" it.

Men's Retreat – September 20 – 22, 2013

Women's Retreat – October 18 – 20, 2013

The Sermon on the Mount

After the call of the disciples, Matthew has Jesus climbing the top of a mountain, sitting down and teaching. The words Jesus speaks are what we now call the Sermon on the Mount. It is the most analyzed, most contested and most influential moral and religious discourse in human history. It is on the mountain that Matthew has gathered the teaching of Jesus together in words which have reverberated through the centuries.

Come and listen and share anew the living Word of the Sermon with your spouse, friends and neighbors.

Please register through the Parish Office. There is a $25.00 tuition for these sessions. Scholarships are available.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

In Luke's gospel, Jesus laid out three "trip wires" for discipleship: attachment to family, the hard consequences of discipleship, and attachment to possessions. All three have a caveat. If someone cannot detach from family or possessions, if someone cannot live out the consequences of Christian life, he or she "is not able to be my disciple."

Attachment to family came first. For, place in family defined place in society. Jesus did not condemn society or the clan system that built it. He simply used a Semitic idiom of extreme language to make his point. When he said "hate," Jesus was not talking about emotional revulsion and physical distance. He was talking about spiritual detachment, the ability to put God first (before relationship or self-interest). Indeed, spiritual detachment requires one to die to self-interest and let God be Lord of one's life. Without such detachment, one does not have the ability to truly follow Jesus.

Next, Jesus spoke of carrying one's cross. We moderns sometimes reduce the meaning of this phrase to our personal struggles. For early Christians, however, this phrase had a far more literal meaning. As Jesus went to the cross, his followers could taste death for their devotion to the Master. Jesus, then, told his audience they must accept that palpable danger. If they did not, they did not have the ability to be a true disciple.

Third, Jesus turned again to the notion of attachment. This time, he addressed the subject of possessions with two parables. The first parable involved a farmer constructing a silo (i.e., a "tower"). Without the money, why should a farmer rush to build a silo that will stand only half-finished? If that happened, the farmer would look like a fool. The second parable spoke of a king planning strategy against a belligerent opponent. Can the king win the battle against an army twice the size of his own? Or should he sue for peace? In either case, the message of Jesus rang out clearly. Stop! Think long and hard about Christian discipleship before a decision is made. Divided priorities drain the ability of the person to be a disciple.

How important is Jesus in your family's life? In Luke's Gospel, Jesus demanded absolute fidelity. No one or nothing had a higher priority. The question can be rephrased: how can I make Jesus first in my life? Develop a practical plan for this week to answer that question. Create a poster labeled "Put Jesus First." Use that poster to brainstorm activities for the week. Chose one or two different activities each day. List those activities on the poster by day. Place the poster in a central area. Use the activities to remind your family members who is first.

Thanks to scripture scholar, Larry Broding, of these insights.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges his disciples. He redefines our priorities as Christians living in a world often filled with greed. Discipleship is not a halfway decision, you are all in or not in at all. Sounds easy? Right? Well I guess it is. We give up everything, pick up our crosses and let Jesus be in control. This week think of at least one way you could follow Jesus more closely and dedicate yourself to that. What must I do to be a true disciple of Christ?

This week's reminders.....

Monday, September 9th, Catechist Meeting 6:00pm please meet in the Youth Room, or Catechist meeting on Tuesday, September 10th, at 6:00pm please meet in the Youth Room.

Monday September 16th and Tuesday September 17th Religious Formation classes resume. Welcome Back!

Have a great week everyone and remember... The best vitamin for a Christian is B1!

Rite of Christian Initiation for Teenagers- If any high school teenagers are interested in either joining the Catholic Church or completing the Sacraments of Initiation, please contact me in the parish office. Depending on interest we can begin a Teen's Faith Inquiry group to help young people explore these Sacraments and the meaning of participating in the Catholic Church. Regardless, I will work with each individual teen to meet their specific needs and circumstances.

Let me know if you have any questions about the above announcements and, as always, please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of assistance to you or your family!

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

The Rugenski-Mabe Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

WIDOWED? SEPARATED? DIVORCED?

“BEGINNING EXPERIENCE” is a healing weekend for those who find themselves alone. The program helps grieving, single again persons emerge from the darkness of grief into the light of a new beginning, and move into the future with renewed hope. It’s a weekend away for a lifetime of change.

“BEGINNING EXPERIENCE” was founded by a Catholic nun and rooted in the Christian tradition . www.beginningexperience.org

A “BEGINNING EXPERIENCE” weekend will be held on September 13, 14 & 15, 2013.

GROWING IN FAITH TOGETHER

This year’s theme: “Discernment of the Holy Spirit”
How does God speak to us and guide us—
How do I pray vs How do I avail myself to the Holy Spirit—
Our helplessness is fertile ground for the Holy Spirit—
How do we resist the evils that invade our serenity on a daily basis—

Please join us starting Monday, September 9th at 7:00pm
For further details call Marie at 734-981-6040
