Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lying at the door of a rich man was a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who would have gladly eaten his fill from the scraps that fell from the rich man's table.

Please note the Sunday Oct 6 blood drive will be held at St. John Neumann Church from 8:30am-2:45pm

In this fast-paced world of technology, it's easy to feel disconnected. Reconnect with just a little over an hour of your time by donating blood. Blood is needed by cancer patients, people with blood disorders or diseases, premature babies, transplant patients, trauma and accident victims to mention a few. Accident victims could use up to 50 units of blood. Every pint counts.

Donate your blood and make a difference

We live in a world where you can shop online, telecommute and even play virtual reality games – but the reality is that there's no virtual blood product to help save lives. Blood is perishable and must be continuously replenished. A total of 30 million blood components are transfused each year in the U.S. The need is constant- Every pint counts .

On Saturday night, October 19th we will be having a concert here at SJN at 7pm. The concert will feature music of composer Paul Tiseo. Paul is a friend of Fr. Ron. He recently completed a CD and the concert here at SJN will feature the music from his CD. On the 19th he will perform along with some of his friends and our own Chorale will make an appearance. Here is information about Paul from his website:

Theandric- Sacred Music in a Spirit of Reparation

the`an`dric (thè`àn`drik)

a. 1. Relating to, or existing by, the union of divine and human operation in Christ, or the joint agency of the divine and human nature Theandric is essentially the vision of one man, Paul Tiseo, a singer/songwriter, guitarist, bassist, and aspiring organist whose music is inspired by the pursuit of Beauty and Truth. In the words of the Holy Father Pope Benedict XVI, "Music is, in fact, capable of opening minds and hearts to the dimension of the spirit and of leading persons to raise their gaze on High, to open to absolute Goodness and Beauty, which have their ultimate source in God. The joy of song and music is also a constant invitation to believers and to all men of good will to commit themselves to give humanity a rich future of hope." Tiseo strives to communicate these spiritual fruits of love, joy, peace and beauty through the gift of music. He includes among his influences a wide range of musical styles, including Renaissance polyphony, Neapolitan folk music, heavy metal, and contemporary composers of sacred music such as Tavener and Part. Some of his favorite artists include Genesis, King's X, Iron Maiden, Fr. Stan Fortuna, Massimo Ranieri, Phil Keaggy, and many more. Tiseo grew up in the suburbs north of Detroit where he continues to reside. After completing his undergrad studies in psychology, he spent one year discerning a vocation to the priesthood at Sacred Heart Major Seminary in Detroit. After discerning that his call was to married life, he eventually earned a Master's degree in clinical psychology and works with troubled juveniles in the local community. He is a husband and father of two beautiful children, and considers fatherhood the most rewarding and fulfilling gift of all. In his free time, he dedicates himself to composing and recording music which expresses different aspects of the Divine nature.

THEANDRIC's goals for the future include the completion of a full-length album in 2012, international performances, and building a strong connection with fans of Spirit-filled music worldwide.

The name THEANDRIC was chosen for the project as it can refer to the harmony of Christ's human and divine nature, but also to refer to our humble human efforts to cooperate with God in the creative process.

Women Retreat's

The women of St. John Neumann and Resurrection Parishes are invited to participate in a weekend retreat at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center.

Our Retreat theme for this year is "You Believe In Him: Can You Believe Him?"

We deal with change in almost every aspect of our lives, from relationships and work to church and society. Some changes we undertake ourselves, but much of the time we don't like change, and we often wish that those who initiated the changes would have kept them to themselves. But as is symbolized by the image of a butterfly with a cross, our faith can give us a different perspective on change. We often find that God is present in the changes we undergo. In fact, these changes can be for us, moments of transformation, just like the change that transforms a caterpillar into a butterfly.

Our retreat will lead us to reflect on how we respond to change in faith, and how we might even be called to enter into change, so that we may become more and like the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who underwent various changes in order to bring us to salvation. Instead of resisting change, we may find ourselves willing to "keep" it.

Do You Know Someone You Think Would Be A Good Priest?

Last week, I asserted that Prayer is arguably the most powerful thing we can do as lay people to lead those who are called to the religious life to recognize and act on their calling. Praying for vocations leads to more people answering the call.

At St. John Neumann, we have two programs in place to help you pray for Vocations: Eucharistic Adoration and The Vocations Chalice. This week, I'll talk about Eucharistic Adoration.

What is it? Eucharistic Adoration is prayer and reverence shown to the Blessed Sacrament Exposed. "Exposition is a manner of honoring the Holy Eucharist, by exposing It, with proper solemnity, to the view of the faithful in order that they may pay their devotions before It." (NewAvent.com, The Catholic Encyclopedia)

Every Friday at St. John Neumann from about 9:30AM to 6:30PM, the Holy Eucharist is exposed in the chapel. Jesus, present in the Blessed Sacrament, is calling us to come visit with Him. To adore Him. To let Him work with us and through us. To let him pour out his blessings upon us in a particular way.

Spending time with the Blessed Sacrament Exposed does three things. First, it brings us Peace, the peace that only the Lord can bring. In the presence of the Lord, your soul changes. It can't be helped. It's like sitting in the sun and getting a tan. It just happens. Come sit in the presence of the Son and let Him change your soul, and give you His peace.

Second, He convicts us. Whether we like it or not, He knows us. Everything about us. He tells us, This isn't your life. He leads us to repent and to be more like Him. To think as He thinks, instead of how the world thinks. To live in his Freedom, freedom from the slavery of sin. Come, listen to what he wants for your life and ask him for the grace to live as he wants you to live.

Third, it rejuvenates us. It makes us new again. At Eucharistic Adoration, we are literally allowing His face to shine upon us. This isn't just poetry. This is the reality when we pray in front of the presence of the Lord in the Blessed Sacrament. We are exposed to His glory and we are made new. We are energized with his Love. Come, soak up his Love and be made new.

Eucharistic adoration is a direct line, too, to praying for Vocations. When you come to Eucharistic Adoration, pray that God shows you who in your life would be right for the religious and consecrated life, and gives you the grace to suggest it to them. And also, pray for God to show you what he wants for your life, what he wants your vocation to be, and for the grace to answer that call.

After each mass next weekend and the weekend after that, we will have new sign up for the Vocations Chalice. As you know, we are always looking for more people to host the Chalice in their homes. If you are interested, please sign up then or by sending an email to the Vocations Committee at Vocations@StJohnNeumann.us. We will get you on the list!

Again, please spend a few minutes each day saying a prayer for Vocations. Also, come to Eucharistic Adoration sometime during the day on Fridays, and spend some time with the Lord. And finally, don't forget to ask "that person" if he or she has ever thought about the religious life. Do it TODAY!!

Women's Regional Catholic Bible Study: Come and fellowship with women from a wide number of parishes as we participate in Catholic Scripture Study International. This year we will be studying the book of Hebrews and the book of James. Our DVD lecturers for the study will be Fr. Mitch Pacwa and Jeff Cavins. We meet from mid Sept. to mid May, 10:00AM to 12:00 PM on Thursday mornings at St. John Neumann parish, 44800 Warren Rd. Canton. The cost for the year is $70.00, increasing to $75.00 if registering after Sept. 1st. Childcare is available for children age 6 and under. Children's registration is limited. For more information call Sue Middlemis 248-344-0246 or email wcbs.css@hotmail.com.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

Jesus painted the parable of Lazarus and the rich man in stark contrasts. On the one hand, the rich man lived like royalty (dressed in purple) and partied everyday. On the other hand, Lazarus was so poor he would have even eaten from the rich man's garbage; he was so sick that dogs, the animal all Semites hate, came to lick his sores. As detestable as the rich man was, Lazarus was pitiable.

Both men died. The rich man eternally condemned himself with his hard heart. With all pretense stripped away, the rich man realized his predicament when he looked upon Lazarus in the "bosom of Abraham" (i.e., heaven). But even in his prayer and pain, the rich man treated the lowly Lazarus with contempt. When he was denied help, the rich man prayed for a heavenly messenger (Lazarus) to visit his five brothers so they might convert. "Don't they have the Bible?" Abraham responded. This was not sufficient for the rich man. The parable ended with Abraham's response, the rhetorical question of Christian faith; if you do not believe in Scripture, how can you believe in one risen from the dead?

Like many other parables, Luke recorded Jesus words with an eye to his audience and their advisories. In the early church, the Pharisees were seen as rich, while Christians were poor. Pharisees, who became the leaders of universal Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in 70 A.D., ejected Jewish Christians from synagogues late in the first century. Isolated from their own people, Jewish Christians stood alone religiously. Hated as Jews by the general population, they were isolated economically. These Jewish Christians would love to live off the scraps of the rich synagogues.

At the same time, Luke recorded the words of Jesus with an eye toward great irony. "If you do not believe in Scripture, how can you believe in one risen from the dead?" can be restated: "If you do not believe in one risen from the dead, how can you believe in Scripture?" This was direct challenge to the Pharisees. For the Christian, the resurrection of Jesus was the ultimate revelation, one to

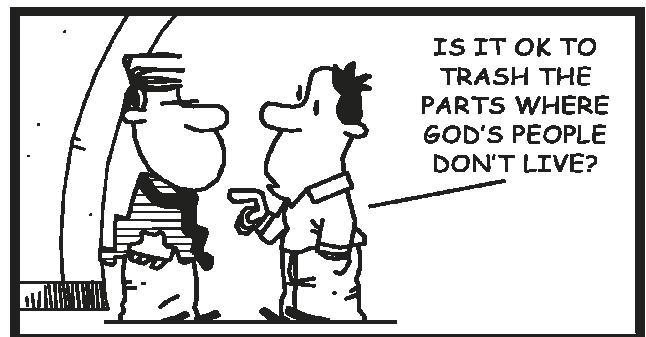

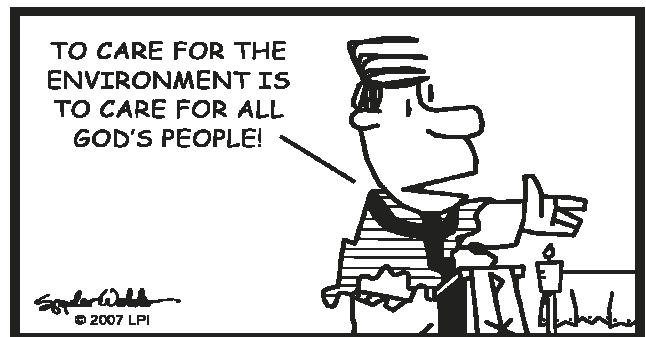

ble) would be impoverished without the resurrection.

Do we recognize the special place of the poor with our service? When we serve them, do we act as if we are doing them a favor, or do we see they are doing us a favor? Do we not realize their presence is an invitation to intimacy with God?

Who are the poor? Most of the time we connect the poor with those who lack material goods. But, look again at Jesus' parable. The poor are the disdained, the hated, those kept at arms length. Those who lack goods might be distasteful to middle class sensibilities. But there are others who lack that we might want to keep at bay. They are simply not like us. They might even be our enemies. At what point do we show them compassion?

In these tragic times in which we are tempted to cry out for vengeance, let us remember we are to seek justice. For justice allows room for compassion.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION NEWS...

During the month of October the Adult Faith Formation Committee would like everyone to participate in singing “Hail Mary: Gentle Woman” a few minutes prior to the beginning of Mass. This month is dedicated to Mary, the mother of Jesus. The Hail Mary prayer is part of this song. The beginning helps us remember Mary’s selfless acceptance of God’s will and the conclusion is a petition for Mary’s intercession. Together let us raise our voices in song.

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Bill and Diane Kapelanski

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

Gary Michuta, nationally known Catholic speaker and author to speak at St. John Neumann

On Thursday, October 3, 2013 at 7:00pm, hear Gary Michuta speak on "Mary, the Mother of Jesus". Gary's latest book, "Making Sense of Mary", helps Catholics and non-Catholics better understand and appreciate Mary's role in God's perfect plan of redemption. He is a contributor to "The Catholic Answer" magazine and is a frequent guest on EWTN's Deep in Scripture and the Journey Home. Please take advantage of this opportunity to learn more about Mary. Please call the Parish office at 734-455-5910 to register or for more information. Child care is provided if you notify the Parish Office.
