Hello all!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

So this past weekend I preached on not stepping over/ignoring people. Those of you who were at the 10:30 and 12:30 mass know what I am talking about! Basically the idea was that the rich man completely ignored that Lazarus was laying down at the step of his door and walking over him, completely ignoring his human existence and that we should never ignore anyone especially those in need!

Well after the 10:30 mass there happened to be a family outside holding a sign saying "homeless with 5 children." The mother, father, and one of the children were out there. One of the things asked of me was did I plant these people to see what the reaction of you, the parishioners, would be. First let me say that NO I DID NOT DO THAT!

The other thing I want to say is the following: I know that some of you probably gave money to the family and that was done out of the generosity of your heart, not that I have not done that myself in the past. But I want you to know that as soon as I heard they were out there, I went outside, spoke to the father and brought him into the building. I set him up with our St Vincent De Paul and had them speak to him. One of the reasons for the SVDP is the people who are a part of this organization deal with these situations and know how to determine the true need of people asking.

Though I preached to not overlook people in this world, I generally do not give cash; I help people out in other ways. Personally I have found that someone standing outside a church often is not a person in need, but someone trying to play on the sympathies of the people leaving the house of God. Normally, for me, I offer to buy them food or fill their tank up with gas rather than give them the cash for those things. At the same time, I admit that rather than err on the side of not giving and ignoring, I will give the money as I know many of you did and I am grateful for that.

The reason I write on this is that I am sure many of you were surprised when you were exiting church and saw this family in the parking lot! I wanted to reassure you all that we did take care of the family and set a meeting up for them at the parish. Our Christian Service at St. John Neumann is at work!

Thank you once again for the true charity you hold in your heart for the people of God.

Peace to you all

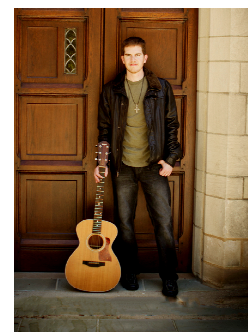

Fr Ron Richards

Recently I came across this poem by Teresa of Avila who lived from 1515–1582. Teresa was born in Spain and entered a Carmelite convent when she was eighteen years old.

Christ Has No Body

Christ has no body but yours,
 No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
 Yours are the eyes with which he looks
 Compassion on this world,
 Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good,
 Yours are the hands,
 with which he blesses all the world.
 Yours are the hands, yours are the feet,
 Yours are the eyes, you are his body.
 Christ has no body now but yours,
 No hands, no feet on earth but yours,
 Yours are the eyes with which he looks
 compassion on this world.
 Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

Here is an excerpt from our 2nd reading this weekend:

"The Spirit God has given us is no cowardly spirit, but rather one that makes us strong, loving and wise. Therefore, never be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord, nor of me, a prisoner for his sake; but with the strength which comes from God bear your share of the hardship which the gospel entails."

Women's Spirituality Group - Please join us.

Our meetings are a discussion format in which we seek to discover God in our lives. As a springboard for discussion, we will be reading the book Twelve Steps for a Compassionate Life by Karen Armstrong. Sr. Arlene Kosmatka, O.P. will serve as facilitator.

Meetings are monthly, 7-8:30pm on the first Monday of the month.

Participants are responsible for ordering their own books. Please read Chapters 1 and 2 prior to the first meeting.

Questions? Call Vicki at 734-416-9405 or Sr. Arlene at 734-451-0461

Women Retreat's

The women of St. John Neumann and Resurrection Parishes are invited to participate in a weekend retreat at St. Paul of the Cross Retreat Center.

Our Retreat theme for this year is "You Believe In Him: Can You Believe Him?"

We deal with change in almost every aspect of our lives, from relationships and work to church and society. Some changes we undertake ourselves, but much of the time we don't like change, and we often wish that those who initiated the changes would have kept them to themselves. But as is symbolized by the image of a butterfly with a cross, our faith can give us a different perspective on change. We often find that God is present in the changes we undergo. In fact, these changes can be for us, moments of transformation, just like the change that transforms a caterpillar into a butterfly.

Our retreat will lead us to reflect on how we respond to change in faith, and how we might even be called to enter into change, so that we may become more and like the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who underwent various changes in order to bring us to salvation. Instead of resisting change, we may find ourselves willing to "keep" it.

Do You Know Someone You Think Would Be A Good Priest?

Last week, we talked about Eucharistic Adoration. This week, I'll talk about the Vocations Chalice program.

The purpose of the Vocations Chalice program is to encourage parishioners to pray to promote vocations to the Priesthood and the Religious life. The parish is blessed to have an available consecrated chalice to use as a tangible reminder of this special intention for the Church. Each week, a different parishioner – any one person, couple or family – takes the Chalice to their home, displays it in a prominent place of honor, and uses it as a reminder to pray for Vocations. When we pray for vocations, we lift up to God those men and women whom He is calling to follow Him in a very special way.

How does it work? First, the Transfer. As most of you have seen, we transfer the Chalice to new parishioners each week at one of the week-end masses. We have set it up so that the transfer takes place at the same mass each week for a number of weeks, and then rotates to a new mass for a number of weeks, and so on. In fact, when you sign up, you can give us your preferred mass time – and who doesn't have one of those!! – and we'll do our best to schedule you on a week that will fit your schedule and preferred mass.

Next, at home. The Chalice comes with a separate packet of information. This packet contains directions on what to do with the Chalice at home and guidelines on how to treat this holy object. The packet also contains a suggested set of prayers to say for the week, a different prayer and intention for each day. You may say the prayers in the packet or pick out prayers of your own. Many participants have set the Chalice on their mantels so they can see it regularly; or have set it up as the centerpiece to their dining room or kitchen table so that they can say the prayers when everyone is gathered for dinner.

The packet also contains additional information on Vocations Awareness and promotion. This information is great for generating ideas on how to identify and encourage young people whom you believe may have been called to a religious vocation.

Finally, the packet contains a journal to document your experience with the Chalice. It is your option as to whether you write something or not. Many people have chosen to do so and all of the entries are beautiful and inspiring!

The last activity to do with the Chalice is to return it to Mass at the end of your week so it can be transferred to the next family. If something comes up where you can't make it to either of your scheduled masses, members of the Vocations committee are available to help facilitate the hand off. We're just a phone call away so that this all happens without a hitch.

The one response we get quite often when we ask people to sign up for the Chalice is that they cannot commit to it right away or that now is not a good time. Just so you know, if you sign up right now, chances are slim to none that you'll get it right away. Here's why. We have between 30 and 40 families that are signed up at the moment and we are continuing to rotate through them. We have only one chalice for this program and each participant gets it for a whole week. Our goal is to have at least enough participants so that we can fill a whole year.

What this enables for you is that when you get on the list today, we can work with you so you can have it in your home when it's just right for you. We may even be able to schedule it for that special religious occasion in your family – First Communion or Confirmation ... or even an Ordination!! Someone from the Vocations Committee will work with you to make the arrangements so that it can all go smoothly.

After each mass this weekend, we will have new sign up for the Vocations Chalice. If you are interested and miss the sign up after mass, you can still sign up by sending an email to the Vocations Committee at Vocations@StJohnNeumann.us.

Again, please spend a few minutes each day saying a prayer for Vocations, whether you have the Chalice at home with you or not. And, don't forget to ask "that person" if he or she has ever thought about the religious life. Do it TODAY!!

SJN Varsity Girls Stay Perfect!

The SJN Varsity girls volleyball team continued their quest for an undefeated regular season, by sweeping 3 matches over the weekend! The team beat second place St. Edith on Friday night, then swept St. Roberts on Saturday. The rematch on Sunday with St. Edith was a barn burner, that saw SJN stay perfect, beating second place St. Edith twice in three days. The team is currently 6-0, with four matches remaining. The varsity team has 13 girls all doing amazing jobs.

Team members:

Abby Zelenak, Rory McMaster, Josie Toth, Hailey Domzalski, Morgan Holmlund, Olivia Smith, Rachel White, Courney White, Kassie Tanana, Claire Schenk, Isabella Mazzuca, Liv Baugh and Denise Jimenez. The team is coached by Danielle Sargis.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

FAITH does not arise as a response to something coming out of the stars, and then authenticated by the Church. Neither does it spring solely from the wellsprings of the heart.

Revelation, or God's self-disclosure, occurs in the ordinary experiences of life.

For the Christian, Jesus Christ is the personification of that revelation and of God's benevolent intentions toward us. However, the Gospel is believable only if it actually helps us to explain and enrich the ordinary experiences of life: whether loving relationships, on the one hand, or tragic misfortunes, on the other.

In other words, we do not have faith because someone in authority or some book tells us to have faith. We have faith because it illuminates and gives deeper meaning to the ordinary experiences of life.

Christian faith is a virtue by which we freely accept God's self-communication in Jesus Christ. Catholic faith is simply Christian faith as embraced and lived out in the faith-community known as the Catholic Church.

The life of faith is a process. We move through various stages of faith-development.

In the beginning, we have the faith of a very young child rooted in images and stories. Their authority is embodied in parents and other significant care-givers. Faith is more a matter of trust than of belief, much less of conviction.

Eventually, the growing child internalizes the rules by which the faith is to be lived. In years past, these rules (commandments, precepts) were committed to memory as if they could be applied to every conceivable situation one might encounter.

Gradually the young person of faith begins to establish some distance between himself or herself and the various mediators of faith (parents, catechists, teachers, clergy). A tension arises between the young person's desire for autonomy and self-expression, and the pull of conformity, both with the Church and with the young person's peers.

At this stage of development, religious appeals that require obedience to authority become less and less effective, while the example and witness of authority-figures become increasingly important.

At the next stage, that is, of young adulthood, they move outside the family into the larger world of college or military service or the workplace. Here they encounter, sometimes for the first time, a wide variety

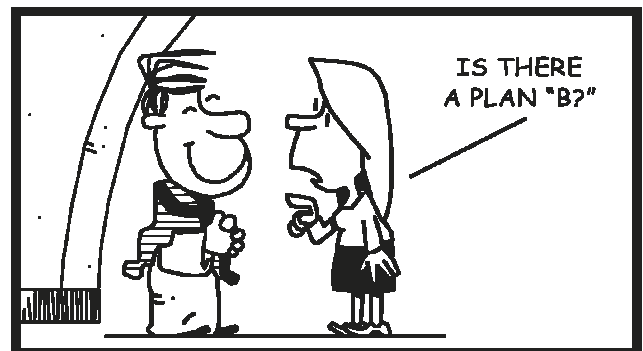

The young Christian adult is compelled to rethink previous beliefs as well as the system of moral conduct based on those beliefs.

Some fail to make that passage. They either cling rigidly and uncritically to the belief-system inherited from family and Church, or they reject everything outright. Neither is an intelligent and responsible way of dealing with pluralism and diversity.

Healthy persons of faith accept pluralism and diversity, and even learn from it. They rethink their beliefs, which means they rethink their relationships with God, with Jesus Christ, and with the Church. They disengage themselves from some aspects of those relationships, and strengthen and recommit themselves to others.

Finally, they reach the highest, or generative, level of faith when they think always of others ("a faith that does justice"), when they make sacrifices, sometimes heroic sacrifices, for the sake of those of younger generations who will follow them in the faith. Such faith comes from God and, in the end, leads back to God.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

Today's Gospel is a challenge as we consider the strength of our faith. Just a few questions to reflect upon... how much faith do I have in God? What are some ways that I could increase my faith?

October is here and lots of things are going on...

This Wednesday, October 9th is our Confirmation Registration meeting. Candidates and one parent are asked to attend.

October 14-16, FUN KICKS OFF WITH "ON THE ROAD"-CALLED TO FAITH: JEREMIAH A FAITH UNWRAPPED ABOUT FOLLOWING GOD. We will be looking at the life of Jeremiah, particularly as it relates to his acceptance of the call of God and his lifetime commitment to that call.

Thursday, October 24th – Protecting God's Children workshop. This workshop is necessary for all volunteers. Please register online at virtus.org. You may also go to the Archdiocese of Detroit website and click on Protecting God's Children tab. This will bring up the Virtus registration information. Any questions, call us in the Religious Formation office and we will help.

October 30th is our First Reconciliation prep session #2.

I would like to conclude this week with a prayer for our pets. October fourth we remembered St. Francis of Assisi.

O God our creator, everything that has the breath of life gives you praise! We ask you to watch over our pets and all animals. Keep them in good health. Guard them against trouble. May the wisdom of Saint Francis and our love for our animals deepen our respect for all your creation. We ask this through Jesus our Lord. Amen.

Have a great week everyone and remember... give your pet a treat!

JV-A Girls On A Roll!

The St John Neumann JV-A girls volleyball team had their stiffest competition of the season against St Joseph and St Frances Cabrini on September 28th & 29th. The team won both matches to improve their division record to 6-0. Allie Tanana, Alaina White and Bobbi Scott had most of the amazing serves with quite a few Aces. Exceptional digs came from Anne Dark, Theresa Gerald and Allie Tanana. Incredible spikes and dinks from Vivian Wilkinson, Tess Starr and Gabi Kuchka. Outstanding sets from Alaina White and Allie Tanana. The team really pulled together with their communication, spirit and drive. Keep up the great work girls! The team is coached by Kristin Wilkinson.

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. "

Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life."

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.

CYO BASKETBALL REGISTRATION

Registration is now open for the 2013-14 St. John Neumann CYO basketball season. All parish boys/girls, grades 5th-8th this fall, are eligible to register. If you attend All Saints, you must register at your school. The cost for the season is $110.00. The season runs early November through Mid March. Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

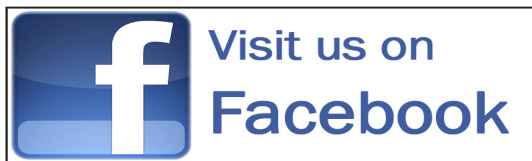

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Bill and Donna Franke

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

YOUNG AT HEART

Just a short reminder to all of our Young At Heart members of our October 10th meeting which will our annual Halloween celebration.

Costumes are optional, but come and join the fun. First, second and third prizes will be awarded for the most unique costumes. We will also be featuring our pumpkin race and those interested in participating are reminded to bring their quarters. As usual, refreshments will be served. Hope to see all of you there.

New members are welcome to join us at any time. For further information, please call Mary at 734-981-1274.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION NEWS...

During the month of October the Adult Faith Formation Committee would like everyone to participate in singing "Hail Mary: Gentle Woman" a few minutes prior to the beginning of Mass. This month is dedicated to Mary, the mother of Jesus. The Hail Mary prayer is part of this song. The beginning helps us remember Mary's selfless acceptance of God's will and the conclusion is a petition for Mary's intercession. Together let us raise our voices in song.

To the Wonderful Families of St. John Neumann Parish:

Once again, the volunteers at the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools Clothing Bank wish to thank you for your generous donation of gift cards last Christmas season. We just used the last of the cards to purchase socks and underwear for the beginning of the school year. Your gift was truly a double blessing, as we were able to restock our bins after Christmas and also in September!

The Clothing Bank provides new and gently-used clothing to local families in need. Over the past several years, the Clothing Bank has seen an increase in the number of people we serve. Last year we served over 700 people, and we expect our numbers to increase for this year. Your continued support of our program makes it possible to assist EVERYONE who comes to us in need of clothing.

Sincerely,

The Plymouth-Canton Community Schools Clothing Bank Volunteers
