Hello all!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

I wanted to share with you this weekend the homily Pope Francis gave to the Youth at World Youth Day in Rio this past summer. Though directed to the youth, it is a message meant for all of us. So I ask you to please read and pray on the words given to us by our Holy Father.

“Brother Bishops and Priests,
Dear Young Friends,

“Go and make disciples of all nations”. With these words, Jesus is speaking to each one of us, saying: “It was wonderful to take part in World Youth Day, to live the faith together with young people from the four corners of the earth, but now you must go, now you must pass on this experience to others.” Jesus is calling you to be a disciple with a mission! Today, in the light of the word of God that we have heard, what is the Lord saying to us? Three simple ideas: Go, do not be afraid, and serve.

1. Go. During these days here in Rio, you have been able to enjoy the wonderful experience of meeting Jesus, meeting him together with others, and you have sensed the joy of faith. But the experience of this encounter must not remain locked up in your life or in the small group of your parish, your movement, or your community. That would be like withholding oxygen from a flame that was burning strongly. Faith is a flame that grows stronger the more it is shared and passed on, so that everyone may know, love and confess Jesus Christ, the Lord of life and history (cf. Rom 10:9).

Careful, though! Jesus did not say: “if you would like to, if you have the time”, but: “Go and make disciples of all nations.” Sharing the experience of faith, bearing witness to the faith, proclaiming the Gospel: this is a command that the Lord entrusts to the whole Church, and that includes you; but it is a command that is born not from a desire for domination or power but from the force of love, from the fact that Jesus first came into our midst and gave us, not a part of himself, but the whole of himself, he gave his life in order to save us and to show us the love and mercy of God. Jesus does not treat us as slaves, but as free men, as friends, as brothers and sisters; and he not only sends us, he accompanies us, he is always beside us in our mission of love.

Where does Jesus send us? There are no borders, no limits: he sends us to everyone. The Gospel is for everyone, not just for some. It is not only for those who seem closer to us, more receptive, more welcoming. It is for everyone. Do not be afraid to go and to bring Christ into every area of life, to the fringes of society, even to those who seem farthest away, most indifferent. The Lord seeks all, he wants everyone to feel the warmth of his mercy and his love.

2. Do not be afraid. Some people might think: “I have no particular preparation, how can I go and proclaim the Gospel?” My dear friend, your fear is not so very different from that of Jeremiah, a young man like you, when he was called by God to be a prophet. We have just heard his words: “Ah, Lord God! Behold, I do not know how to speak, for I am only a youth”. God says the same thing to you as he said to Jeremiah: “Be not afraid ... for I am with you to deliver you” (Jer 1:7,8). He is with us!

“Do not be afraid!” When we go to proclaim Christ, it is he himself who goes before us and guides us. When he sent his disciples on mission, he promised: “I am with you always” (Mt 28:20). And this is also true for us! Jesus does not leave us alone, he never leaves you alone! He always accompanies you.

And then, Jesus did not say: “One of you go”, but “All of you go”: we are sent together. Dear young friends, be aware of the companionship of the whole Church and also the communion of the saints on this mission. When we face challenges together, then we are strong, we discover resources we did not know we had. Jesus did not call the Apostles to live in isolation, he called them to form a group, a community. I would like to address you, dear priests concelebrating with me at this Eucharist: you have come to accompany your young people, and this is wonderful, to share this experience of faith with them! But it is a stage on the journey. Please continue to accompany them with generosity and joy, help them to become actively engaged in the Church; never let them feel alone! And at this point I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to the Cont. Page 12

This month we have been singing a Gloria entitled Holy Name of Jesus Glory to God composed by Norah Duncan IV. Norah was the Music Director of the Cathedral of the Most Blessed Sacrament in Detroit for over 26 years. He is the second longest serving Roman Catholic cathedral musician in the country. This new Gloria uses the new translation of our Roman Catholic Gloria (revised order of the Mass 2010). Norah's Gloria is dedicated to Monsignor John P. Zenz and the parishioners of Holy Name Church, Birmingham, Michigan, in memory of Sister Shirlee Hoski.

The Gloria or as it is sometimes referred to: The Great Doxology (hymnus angelicus) is preferably sung on Sundays & Holy Days of Obligation. Starting out first as a morning hymn of praise in the east then later came to the west becoming part of the Mass. The beginning of the text, and we, bear witness (and herald) the song of the angels at the Nativity (Luke 2:14).

Norah Duncan IV is Associate Chair and Associate Professor of Music at Wayne State University. Additionally, he directs the WSU Concert Chorale and coordinates many of the choral concerts presented by the Department of Music.

Duncan received an undergraduate degree (English Literature) from the University of Detroit, a Master of Fine Arts degree (Organ Performance) from Wayne State University, and a Doctor of Musical Arts (Church Music/Organ Performance) degree from the University of Michigan.

Ms. Michele Kennedy
St. John Neumann Parish
44800 Warren Rd
Canton, Michigan 48187-1857

Dear Ms Kennedy and Parishoners of St. John Neumann Catholic Church,

We thank you for partnering with us once again! The parish's tithing gift of $400.00 is needed and very much appreciated. Indeed, every gift to our patient care program continues to be so important to our efforts to rehabilitate suffering priests, deacons, brothers and sisters.

Each one at Guest House today is especially reassured by your kindness toward them.

Sometimes, your tithing gift is used to provide one-on-one therapeutic and spiritual counseling to a man or woman here. Sometimes, this gift helps us to put food on the table or provide a special medical procedure for an ailing priest. You help us to provide the all-important education to Church leadership about the disease of alcoholism, and other chemically-based dependency—throughout the United States.

The philanthropy of the St. John Neumann's Christian Service Commission, always, is savings lives and precious vocations for our Church. The future of Catholicism rests on the too small number of priests and religious. Saving even one of them, helps hundreds or even thousands of Catholic lay people. God bless you!

Respectfully,

Denise Bertin-Epp
President and CEO

Guest House confirms that no goods or services were provided to the donor in consideration for this gift. This letter will serve as a tax receipt.

The Feast of ALL SAINTS - The earliest certain observance of a feast in honor of all the saints is an early fourth-century commemoration of "all the martyrs." In the early seventh century, after successive waves of invaders plundered the catacombs, Pope Boniface IV gathered up some 28 wagonloads of bones and reinterred them beneath the Pantheon, a Roman temple dedicated to all the gods. The pope rededicated the shrine as a Christian church. According to Venerable Bede, the pope intended "that the memory of all the saints might in the future be honored in the place which had formerly been dedicated to the worship not of gods but of demons" (On the Calculation of Time).

But the rededication of the Pantheon, like the earlier commemoration of all the martyrs, occurred in May. Many Eastern Churches still honor all the saints in the spring, either during the Easter season or immediately after Pentecost.

How the Western Church came to celebrate this feast, now recognized as a solemnity, in November is a puzzle to historians. The Anglo-Saxon theologian Alcuin observed the feast on November 1 in 800, as did his friend Arno, Bishop of Salzburg. Rome finally adopted that date in the ninth century.

This feast, first honored martyrs. Later, when Christians were free to worship according to their conscience, the Church acknowledged other paths to sanctity. In the early centuries the only criterion was popular acclaim, even when the bishop's approval became the final step in placing a commemoration on the calendar. The first papal canonization occurred in 993; the lengthy process now required to prove extraordinary sanctity took form in the last 500 years. ALL SAINTS honors the obscure as well as the famous—the saints each of us have known

Fr. Ron Rplheiser writes, "Several days ago, I was at a wake service for a woman whom I had never met. The formal prayer service was followed by a half-dozen eulogies delivered by her family. They were wonderful, warm, witty, colorful, and full of humor. As these stories were told she became alive again to everyone in the church. We all smiled and laughed and the sadness of her leaving was eclipsed for the moment (and partly forever) as the color and vitality of her life were again made alive for us. And we weren't just remembering her. We were reminding each other that she was still with us.

"It's the same for everyone who dies. They remain with us in more than memory. And it's not just some purified spirit of theirs, washed clean in death, that remains. Their unique color stays too: I think, for instance, of my own family. We've had to mourn the loss of a number of our members, but we're not only nurtured by the gift that each person's life and virtue was for us, we're still fed by the unique color each of them embodied. They are still with, as is their color. Our family legends abound about those whom we have lost: stories about my dad's unique way of combining the Serenity Prayer with Murphy's Law in an exasperated expression: "Just now!"; about my mother's incapacity to find a place to begin a story without having to first go back to Genesis - "In the beginning"; about my deceased sister's love of chocolate and her concomitant love for deflating what was pompous; about my deceased brother's proclivity to lecture the entire planet on social justice; about my deceased brother-in-law's love for cooking sausages and laughingly inquiring about the aesthetic condition of your suspenders; and about a deceased Uncle's habit of lighting up a cigarette and getting a mischievous gleam in his eye as a prelude to telling a thoroughly wicked story. The list could go on and on because the stories of the color in the lives of our deceased loved ones do go on and on.

"I believe that what they so wonderfully and uniquely embodied here on earth is still going on, happening on the other side. I suspect there are more than white clouds, harps, and floating angels in heaven, but that heaven is rife with wit, color, humor, and thoroughly wicked stories because whenever we recall these about our deceased loved ones their memory turns warm and nurturing."

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

This weekend at all liturgies we celebrate our SJN Catechists. The cooperation of a great many people is needed if individuals and communities are to grow to full maturity in faith through prayer and in celebration of the sacraments, through study and through their way of living.

Those who devote themselves to the ministry of Catechesis play a vital role in the Church's activity. Enlightened by God's word and the teaching of the Church, and inspired by their own life of prayer, and witness, catechists lead others to know the living Jesus Christ through word and deed. Through the ministry of catechesis, catechists provide a process of initiation and formation for those in their care, introducing them to the truths of faith, which they themselves have learned, lived, and celebrated. Let us keep these wonderful men and women in our prayers for all they do for our Parish family.

Dear God, you continually call men and women so that helped by your Holy Spirit they may teach others to know, love, and serve you. We place under your loving care these catechists who so generously have responded to your call. Enlighten them with your wisdom, set their hearts on fire with your love and strengthen them to give witness to your Son by their teaching and deeds. Grant us that as a faith community, we may be living witness and a source of inspiration and support for all catechists. Guide our catechists so that they may respond to the invitation to know your Son more fully, so that others, in turn may recognize the presence of Christ in their lives. As they catechize those you have entrusted to them, may they too form more fully in communion with you, through your Son, Jesus Christ, and in the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

A Catechist asked her class why Joseph and Mary took Jesus with them to Jerusalem...A small child replied, "They couldn't get a babysitter?" (From the book of Catholic Jokes, Deacon Tom Sheridan).

Have a great week everyone and Happy Priesthood Sunday Father Ron and Father Manny! May the spirit of God continue to embrace you as you lead us in faith, hope and love. God Bless you today and always.

Peace,
Sabrina

ADULT FAITH FORMATION NEWS...

During the month of October the Adult Faith Formation Committee would like everyone to participate in singing "Hail Mary: Gentle Woman" a few minutes prior to the beginning of Mass. This month is dedicated to Mary, the mother of Jesus. The Hail Mary prayer is part of this song. The beginning helps us remember Mary's selfless acceptance of God's will and the conclusion is a petition for Mary's intercession. Together let us raise our voices in song.

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. "

Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life."

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:

1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O'Flynn at 734-453-0829.

2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm, please call Cindy Pronze at 734-416-9914.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Youth Ministry groups, to the Movements and the new Communities that accompany the young people in their experience of being Church. They are so creative, so audacious. Carry on and do not be afraid!

3. The final word: serve. The opening words of the psalm that we proclaimed are: “Sing to the Lord a new song” (Psalm 95:1). What is this new song? It does not consist of words, it is not a melody, it is the song of your life, it is allowing our life to be identified with that of Jesus, it is sharing his sentiments, his thoughts, his actions. And the life of Jesus is a life for others. It is a life of service.

In our Second Reading today, Saint Paul says: “I have made myself a slave to all that I might win the more” (1 Cor 9:19). In order to proclaim Jesus, Paul made himself “a slave to all”. Evangelizing means bearing personal witness to the love of God, it is overcoming our selfishness; it is serving by bending down to wash the feet of our brethren, as Jesus did.

Three words: Go, do not be afraid, and serve. Follow these three words: Go, do not be afraid, and serve. If you follow these three ideas, you will experience that the one who evangelizes is evangelized; the one who transmits the joy of faith receives joy. Dear young friends, as you return to your homes, do not be afraid to be generous with Christ, to bear witness to his Gospel. In the first Reading, when God sends the prophet Jeremiah, he gives him the power to “pluck up and to break down, to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant” (1:10). It is the same for you. Bringing the Gospel is bringing God’s power to pluck up and break down evil and violence, to destroy and overthrow the barriers of selfishness, intolerance and hatred, so as to build a new world. Jesus Christ is counting on you! The Church is counting on you! The Pope is counting on you! May Mary, Mother of Jesus and our Mother, always accompany you with her tenderness: “Go and make disciples of all nations”. Amen.”

Peace
