Dear Ms. Kennedy,

Your donation allows us to provide the educational supports, unique and specialized treatment programs and basic life skills to help them overcome their painful pasts and build their self worth. Thank you for your generous gift. Because of caring partners like Saint John Neumann, Vista Maria has helped tens of thousands of girls to begin to dream again.

For over 130 years Vista Maria has been restoring the lives of at-risk children so they can overcome the daunting odds against them. ## FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

There is a gospel story in which a scribe (someone who copies the Jewish scripture by hand onto scrolls) asks Jesus about the most important law or commandment. Jesus responded with what every Jew of his day learned in childhood - the Shema.

This is the most important of all Jewish prayers. Shema Yisrael Adonai Eloheinu Adonai Echad" are the first words of the Jewish prayer known as the Shema Israel.

Hear, O Israel, The Lord is our God, The Lord is One.

It is a declaration of faith and a pledge of allegiance to God. Twice daily, recitation of the Shema Israel is a mitzvah (commandment) for the Jewish people -- it is said upon rising in the morning and going to sleep at night. It is said when praising God and when beseeching Him. The Shema Israel is the first prayer taught to Jewish children and it is the last words Jew says before death. It is a prayer of praise to God and it is a prayer of petition, as well. The Shema is recited in preparation for the reading of the Torah on the Sabbath and Jewish holidays and at the end of the holiest day, Yom Kippur. Judaism teaches that the name of God is not read aloud in the Shema; it is replaced with Adonai ("my Lord"):

In the Torah, Moses gives The Shema to his people in his last words to them. In the book of Deuteronomy 6:4-9, God dictates that the Shema Israel be contained in the mezuzah that is placed on home doorposts.

Jewish law states that mezuzahs must be placed on every door in a home or business owned by a Jew. The mezuzah parchment should be placed on the right side of the door, from the point of view of the one entering the building or room. The mezuzah should be affixed to the lower part of the upper third of the doorway, and it should ideally be placed at a 45° angle, tilted towards the inside of the room. If this is impossible due to the thinness of the doorframe, place the mezuzah at 90° and continue rotating the mezuzah counter-clockwise as much as the door frame will allow. (Check my office door.)

Jesus backed up the Shema with another important verse: love of neighbor. This meant allegiance to one's community. "You will love your neighbor as yourself." Jesus quoted Leviticus 19:18 for this command. These two commands meant more than any worship in the Temple. But how do you love God and neighbor? For the Christian, the answer could be found in a relationship with Jesus.

What is the most important value in your faith? What religious insight or practice has had the greatest impact on your life? Who exemplifies that insight or practice or value in your life?

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

Today we hear the story of Zacchaeus, the experienced, rich tax collector, who realized he needed Jesus to be saved from his faults. This is a great story and we use it in our Reconciliation preparation sessions. Zacchaeus made many mistakes and bad choices...But when Jesus showed his willingness to bless his life with forgiveness, and salvation, Zacchaeus was overcome. Jesus shared his love with Zacchaeus by offering him friendship and coming to his house so they could share a meal. Then because of Jesus' kindness Zacchaeus became a new person. He became a kind and loving person like Jesus. Jesus has done the same thing for each one of us. He welcomed us into God's family at Baptism. Each time we receive the Eucharist we become more and more like Jesus and give his love to others just like Zacchaeus did.

This week Religious Formation is preparing for the seventh week of class sessions, Reconciliation Preparation MAKEUP session #2 is this Thursday, November 7th at 6:00pm, and the Faith Unwrapped-journey with Ruth and Naomi will be presented on November 11th thru 13th.

A few reminders to our Sacramental families...First Communion and Reconciliation Parents please remember to turn in your photos from your First Communion for our Legacy of Faith picture board that we will be posting in the coming weeks.

Parents of our Confirmation Class...we are in need of a few volunteers to help with our Retreat in January. Parents are needed to be group leaders for one of our small group breakouts. What that means is we need a parent to be in each of our small groups in charge of supplies and making sure the students get from point A to point B during the day. We have a wonderful speaker coming in to handle the material covered in the Retreat. Parent volunteers are only needed to maintain a small group. Our Retreat is here at SJN. If you can help us on Saturday, January 25th please contact me at 734-455-5986. Also, Confirmation registration forms are now due. If you have yet to turn in the yellow registration form please do so ASAP. Thank you!

Have a great week everyone and remember...only 7 more Saturdays until Christmas. Ho Ho Ho!

Blessings,

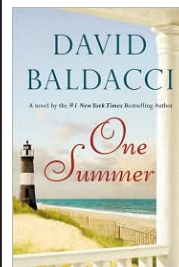

Sabrina

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been asked to support a sister conference with coats for their parishioners. Please donate the gently used coats that you no longer wear to this cause. Coats for both children and adults will be most appreciated. A collection bin will be placed in the gathering area during the month of November.

Thank you for your support.
