Christian Service Director
44800 Warren Rd.

Dear Marshall,

On behalf of all those who come to our pantry door seeking food assistance, I want to thank your parishioners for the wonderful food drive project that resulted in the two SUV's full of peanut butter, cereal, and tuna fish. We can't tell you enough how important your food donation is to St. Pat's Food Pantry. Your parishioners are the best at filling our request for our most needed items. The fact that you and your wife, Colleen, deliver and unload all the food is also appreciated. As I said before, it's at this time of the year when so many people are out of town on vacations, that we really need the support. Our food donations are stronger from the school year through the holidays.

St Pat's Food Pantry has seen the number of people that we serve each month remain constant. We always have new people that join the rolls of the hungry, and, at the same time, regular guests no longer come. In some cases it is because they move out of the area, but in others they have found employment which makes our program so fulfilling. The commitment and willingness of your parish community to look beyond their own personal and geographic boundaries, to care for those in need, continues to inspire us in our mission to the poor within the Cass Corridor Community.

This support to our neighbors in need, demonstrates that the parishioners of St John Neumann understand the principals of being strong and caring leaders in community service. Without your support we would not be able to carry out our mission. You are always in our prayers.

With Gratitude,

Sharon Cole, a Member of St Patrick's Food Pantry Volunteer Team

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

God wants your friendship. And once you enter into friendship with God, everything in your life begins to change. As you come to know him better, you find you want to reflect something of his infinite goodness in your own life. You are attracted to the practice of virtue. You begin to see greed and selfishness and all the other sins for what they really are, destructive and dangerous tendencies that cause deep suffering and do great damage, and you want to avoid falling into that trap yourselves. You begin to feel compassion for people in difficulties and you are eager to do something to help them. You want to come to the aid of the poor and the hungry, you want to comfort the sorrowful, you want to be kind and generous. And once these things begin to matter to you, you are well on the way to becoming saints.”

SEVEN KEY ELEMENTS OF LAY SPIRITUALITY

1. First and most important is PRAYER. Prayer is talking over my life with God. The goal of all true prayer is to look at life with the eyes of God. Prayer attempts to make me patient with myself, compassionate toward others and peaceful most of all.

2. The second important aspect is INTIMACY. Intimacy means more than proximity; it means sharing the depths of self with another. To be intimate is to be completely honest about myself.

3. A third characteristic of Christian spirituality is FORGIVENESS. Forgiveness is not exclusively other-centered. Very often the hardest person to forgive is myself. There are only two practical methods for getting over my own blunders: forgetting and forgiving.

4. The fourth aspect of spirituality is WORK. For work to be truly Christian, the worker must be creative. One must try to bring order out of chaos. The creative worker is goal-oriented; not haphazard, sets aside time to think about the implications of one's work.

5. A fifth aspect of spirituality is HOSPITALITY. Hospitality is an attitude of attentiveness that makes the one encountered feel valued. By spending time with someone, listening to that person, I affirm that s/he is more than an object, rather a cherished member of the human community, instead of an intruder.

6. The sixth aspect of spirituality is NETWORKING, or forming associations in order to meet human needs.

Networking counteracts the tendency to narcissism so prevalent in our society, by focusing attention away from self to the urgent needs of others.

7. The seventh and last aspect of spirituality is PLAY. Play is the imaginative construction of one segment of reality. Play is much more than diversion or exercise. It is creativity in preliminary form, the forerunner of authentic change.

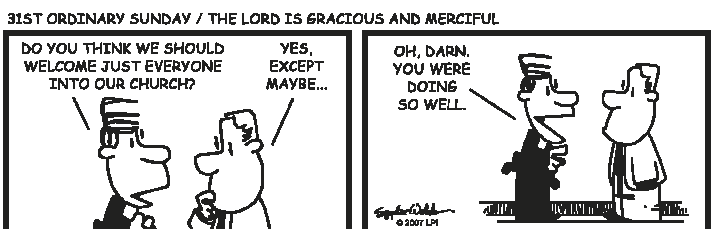

Play is creative time-wasting. It relativizes the tyranny of time and the dictatorship of duty. It introduces joy into the seriousness of reality. Play is important for the Christian because it requires a certain distancing from all that is usually considered important.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

By: Sabrina Queen at squeen@stjohnneumann.us

Greetings and Salutations,

Today's Gospel shows how Jesus was challenged by the leaders of his day to explain details about eternal life, using a situation mired with problems.

Reflection: Where do I see God in our world today? God's appearance may not be as dramatic as what Moses saw in the burning bush, but do you see signs of our Creator at work?

This week please join us for Faith Unwrapped. We will be unwrapping the story of Ruth and Naomi and looking at our daily mission to follow God.

Blessings,

Sabrina

Mother Theresa

Since the founding of our parish in 1976, the Jesse Tree has been a tremendous part of the St. John Neumann compassionate outreach to the poor and underserved families within the Archdiocese of Detroit. For over 30 years, our parish has committed our spirits and opened our hearts to assure that others may be touched by the grace of our intentional discipleship.

In preparation, please join us on Tuesday, November 19 at 6:00pm as we assemble the wish tags to adorn the Jesse Tree. Enjoy the fellowship of this evening as a thoughtful way to welcome the Holy Season.

A special invitation to the youth of our parish to lend yourselves in the spirit of service. If you should have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at: marividel@comcast.net

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. "

Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life."

YOUTH MINISTRY WITH CHRIS LEACH

If you are wondering why there are fewer teenagers at the Masses this weekend—it's because we are away on our 2013 Fall Retreat in Holly, Michigan! The retreat scripture verse is James 1:2-4: "Consider it all joy, my brothers and sisters, when you encounter various trials, for you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance. And let perseverance be perfect, so that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing." The weekend will be spent examining what it means to live as a follower of Jesus, and the various obstacles that teenagers face as they choose to live the Christian life. The weekend will also include numerous opportunities to encounter God's grace, especially in Eucharistic Adoration, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and Mass.

I can't stress how important your prayers are for the success of this retreat. It's not easy being a teenager and there are plenty of things in this world that would be happy if our young people never knew Jesus Christ... I'm counting on your support to make sure that this is never true for a young person in our parish! Please take a few minutes this weekend and frequently thereafter to pray for our teenagers!

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers. Thank you.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul has been asked to support a sister conference with coats for their parishioners. Please donate the gently used coats that you no longer wear to this cause. Coats for both children and adults will be most appreciated. A collection bin will be placed in the gathering area during the month of November.

Thank you for your support.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations this past week in their home!

“Let us not forget this word: God never tires of forgiving us, but we sometimes tire of asking God’s forgiveness. Let us never tire of asking God’s forgiveness.”
