The Joy of the Gospel Revisited! Presented by Sr. Mary Joel Zobro, RSM

This Lent offers us the opportunity to reflect on the recent Exhortation of Pope Francis: Evangelii Gaudium, The Joy of the Gospel, while at the same time, we find its roots in the Gospel stories.

"I invite all Christians, everywhere, at this very moment, to a renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ, or at least an openness to letting Jesus encounter them" (Pope Francis)

Reflecting on the Gospel and excerpts from the Exhortation will offer us an opportunity to a "renewed personal encounter with Jesus Christ."

Come with your spouse, neighbors, and friends for five weeks of reflection in this gathering of the community.

Wednesdays: March 12, 19, 26, April 2 and 9th. 7:00 to 8:30 pm.

Tuition: $25, assistance available

You can register in the Parish Office or call Lori Wagoner at 734-254-9327

COME ONE, COME ALL

St. John Neumann's 2nd Annual International Taste Fest

Featuring dishes from around the world prepared and served by parishioners

March 1, 2014 at 5:45 p.m.

Cooks needed to celebrate their heritage with other parishioners by fixing a dish or two serving 20 people. You can also decorate your area in the manner of your nationality. Last year we had 10 different nationalities represented – but there are more than that in our parish. No nationality comes to mind? Well, there is American too.

Don't want to cook? That's fine. All parishioners are invited to come and enjoy the fun before Lent begins.

Drinks and dessert will be provided.

Games and activities for the kids.

To register, fill out the volunteer board in the Gathering Area or the form provided there. You can also call the parish office at 455-5910

On Money

"The worship of the golden calf of old has found a new and heartless image in the cult of money and the dictatorship of an economy which is faceless and lacking any truly human goal"

LUCKY NUMBER 7

The St. John Neumann Varsity boys#1 basketball team reeled off it's 7th straight division victory by beating St. Roberts 52-28 in a game played at SJN. In his only action of this game, Guard A.J. Neal scored 19 first quarter points to lead SJN to a 28-4 lead after 1. SJN subbed freely after the first and they held a 41-10 lead at the half. St.Roberts rallied in the second half to make the final score respectable. The victory pushes SJN division leading record to 7-0, with 3 division games remaining. Other key contributors to this game were Ryan Young, Danny Lanava, Derek Greening, Aaron Garbarino, Adam Pitcole, Matt Breda, Justin Polce, Jack Heineman and Jonathan Michalak. The team is coached by Angelo Lanava, stat man Nick Aresco and head coach Mike Marek.

FAITH WORKS

I was struck by a commercial that claims the sensitivity of the human eye. So I investigated and learned some interesting facts. The Earth's surface curves out of sight at a distance of 3.1 miles. But our visual acuity extends far beyond the horizon. If Earth were flat, or if you were standing atop a mountain surveying a larger-than-usual patch of the planet, you could perceive bright lights hundreds of miles distant. On a dark night, you could even see a candle flame flickering up to 30 miles away.

How far the human eye can see depends on how many particles of light, or photons, a distant object emits. The farthest object visible with the naked eye is the Andromeda galaxy, located an astonishing 2.6 million light-years from Earth. The galaxy's 1 trillion stars collectively emit enough light for a few thousand photons to hit each square centimeter of Earth every second; on a dark night, that's plenty to excite our retinas.

In today's gospel, Jesus makes us very important in sharing the Good News" when he calls us the Light of the world. What we do IS essential to everyone around us. Take the time to be aware of your light this week.

• LECTORS meet to prepare for Lent on THIS Tuesday at 7:30 pm. Our parish Lectors meet before the liturgical seasons of Advent and Lent each year to better proclaim the scripture readings. The proclamation of the Word of God is essential to our Catholic liturgy. We want our Lectors to do the best they can in their ministry.

• Those MARRIED COUPLES celebrating significant wedding anniversaries should fill out the form in this bulletin or register in the Parish Office. We invite you to the 12:30 liturgy on February 16 to honor your marriage and witness.

• ROMANCING MARRIAGE DINNER DANCE tickets are on sale in the Parish Office. The event is planned for ALL married couples. Great food, great desserts, great music videos and dancing are on the menu. Make new friends or bring some friends with you. You'll leave with happy memories and a portrait of you and your beloved. See you there!

A Celebration of Married Love!

THIS SATURDAY, 6:00 - 10:00PM

Tickets available in Parish Office: $40 per Couple

Dinner, Beverages,
Dance Music for Wedding Receptions

AND
a personalized Photo of each Couple

This year's theme focuses on the Wedding Reception. We'll reminisce about our "day" - whether your party was at a grand banquet hall or someone's home. Although there may have been a unique happening, the friends and family who attended made that event special.

There is always a generous dinner with appetizers and desserts. We'll have the most requested music for Wedding Receptions for dancing AND videos of the performers (in case you prefer to "sit one out"). Of course, that means the Chicken Dance, the Hokey Pokey and a couple Polkas will be included. All married couples are invited to this extraordinary social event.

HOW DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls us to be salt for the earth and a light for others to see God's glory. What does salt do for our food? How am I salt for Christ in this world? Where is the lamp of my faith placed?

Here is some exciting news happening this week in Religious Formation...Tomorrow Monday, February 10th, and Tuesday, February 11th our Religious Education students will be attending Mass together. At the end of Mass we will hear from a Seminarian from Sacred Heart Seminary, who will speak briefly on Vocations. Parents and Parishioners are welcome to join us.

Each day we hear more and more about Pope Francis in the news. This is a very exciting time for us as Catholics. Recently, we passed out a booklet to our Catechists. It is called "Pope Francis Voice of a Shepherd." Pope Francis has a gift for bringing the words of Christ's love to a world that hungers for the comfort and joy of Jesus, the Good Shepherd. This booklet features reflections from the editors of Living Faith on Pope Francis' comments on such topics as the care of creation, the search for faith, and finding God in the face of the poor. It is published by Living Faith from Creative Communications. We have a few extras in the office if you would like to check it out. Stop on by.

Have a great week everyone!

Peace and Prayers and remember...All you need is Love.

REMINDER REGARDING PRAYER LIST REQUESTS

So many of our friends and family are currently afflicted with ongoing, serious illnesses. Because of the number of requests, we must limit the reading of a specific name to three weeks. At that time, names can be placed indefinitely in the bulletin for prayer requests. Of course, if there is a significant change in the condition of someone, we can put them back on the verbal list again for a couple weeks. We ask that you please honor this policy in fairness to all who have requested our prayers.

Thank you.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Kathy and Reed Posh

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations in their home. Thank you!
