BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests; however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

Hello All!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Well the first thing I wanted to talk to you about is World Youth Day that is taking place in Krakow, Poland during the summer of 2016. Chris, our youth minister had an informational meeting last week about it, and I believe he is having another one this week. Anyway, World Youth Day is for both teens and young adults. It is an amazing experience for any of you in that age range to experience. Here is the history of World Youth Day, taken from its website:

Perspective:

An outside glance of an international World Youth Day would spark a bystander's curiosity as massive crowds of young people flood the city streets. Some might cringe at the thought of those words, wondering what delinquency is in store, but to witness this gathering would end those fears. The happenstance observer would witness not angst and malice, but smiles and joy, singing and dancing young people, culture upon culture and nation upon nation, proudly holding their flags high (or wearing them), greeting one another in peace, trading their tokens, humbly realizing how small they are in a world of people, and strengthened to witness so many who share their convictions. How did it all begin?

Beginnings:

In 1984 at the close of the Holy Year of Redemption, over 300,000 young people from around the world responded to the invitation of His Holiness John Paul II for an International Jubilee of youth on Palm Sunday in St. Peter's square. Looking out to the crowds who answered his invitation he said, "What a fantastic spectacle is presented on this stage by your gathering here today! Who claimed that today's youth has lost their sense of values? Is it really true that they cannot be counted on?" It was at this gathering that the Holy Father entrusted to the youth what is now known as the World Youth Day Cross, to be carried throughout the world as a symbol of the love of Christ for humanity.

First WYD:

The following Palm Sunday, coinciding with the United Nation's International Year of the Youth, Our Holy Father took the opportunity to welcome the youth of the world to Rome again. Later, announcing the institution of World Youth Day on December 20, 1985, and the first official WYD was held in 1986.

International WYDs:

The following year brought about a new tradition when the second event and first international WYD took place in Buenos Aires, Argentina. Every Palm Sunday has since been designated as a World Youth Day, alternately celebrated at the diocesan and international levels. There have been 12 International World Youth Day celebrations, where the youth continue to answer the invitation of the Holy Father in staggering numbers and carry home the message received there to be Christ's light to the world. While these events are organized by the clergy and laity of the Catholic Church, youth of all faiths are invited to attend and encounter Christ, making this gathering truly universal.

Reflection:

In Toronto, the last International WYD in which JPII was present he told the 800,000 gathered with him at the vigil, "When, back in 1985, I wanted to start the World Youth Days... I imagined a powerful moment in which the young people of the world could meet Christ, who is eternally young, and could learn from him how to be bearers of the Gospel to other young people. This evening, together with you, I praise God and give thanks to him for the gift bestowed on the Church through the World Youth Days. Millions of young people have taken part, and as a result have become better and more committed Christian witnesses."

John Paul II left a legacy for the youth in his institution of World Youth Day, which Pope Benedict XVI has faithfully continued, carrying on the hope of His predecessor for the youth of the world, inviting them and commissioning them as Christ's disciples to be faithful living witnesses.

It is my hope that St. John Neumann has a VERY LARGE contingent attending the 2016 World Youth Day in Krakow. We have 2 years to get ready, save funds and begin this spiritual journey that could be life alternative for your Teen Children and the Young Adults of the parish! Please attend the informational meeting Chris is having on this and at the very least learn about it!

Peace

This weekend we are singing Holy is Your Name. The text of the hymn is based on Luke 1:46-55. This scripture passage has come to be known as the "Magnificat" or "Canticle of Mary". It is sung in the celebration of Evening Prayer each day. The Magnificat is part of a group of three scriptures called the "evangelical canticles". The Canticle of Zachary (Luke 1:68-79) is used at Lauds (Morning Prayer at dawn). The Magnificat (Luke 1:46-55) is used at Vespers, or after supper. The Canticle of Simeon sometimes referred to as the "Nunc dimittis" (Luke 2:29-32) is used at Compline (Night Prayer before retiring).

Here follows the words of the hymn Holy is Your Name. I enjoy meditating on this text:

*My soul is filled with joy
as I sing to my God my savior;
you have looked upon your servant,
you have visited your people.*

*I am lowly as a child,
but I know from this day forward
that my name will be remembered,
for all will call me blessed.*

*I proclaim the power of God,
you do marvels for your servants;
though you scatter the proud hearted
and destroy the mighty of princes.*

*To the hungry you give food,
send the rich away empty.
In your mercy you are mindful
of the people you have chosen.*

*In your love you now fulfill
what you promised to your people.
I will praise you, Lord, my savior,
everlasting is your mercy.*

Refrain:

*And holy is your name through all generations!
Ever lasting is your mercy
to the people you have chosen,
and holy is your name.*

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

CONGRATULATIONS to those who celebrated the Rites of Christian Initiation for Adults at the Easter Vigil!

Baptized were:

DAMON HARDESTY, MELAINA HARDESTY, ADRIANNE JONES, BRIONNA JONES, THERESA KNIGHT, ANDREW NEAL, ANDREW SHATTUCK, JOHN SINCO.

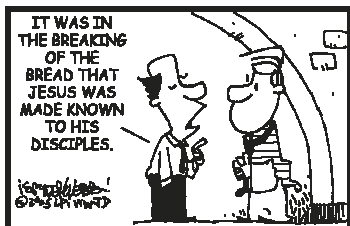

Received into the full communion of the Catholic Church:

LYNN BERTASIO, NATALIA BROCK, MADISON LEFORGE, RON SINCO, AMANDA ZOPF.

Last week the Church recognized two recent popes as saints: John 23rd and John Paul 2. Sainthood is an official Catholic title. It sometimes mystifies us. Theologian Bill Huebsch used John 23rd's words to help clarify the meaning.

“ In 1907, he [Angelo Roncalli] gave a lecture at the seminary in his home diocese of Bergamo in northern Italy. In it, he gave a prophetic description of what it means to be a saint. We tend, he said in that speech, to make saints larger than life, more like figures in a movie or novel than like your neighbors down the street. Saintliness actually results, he said, from learning the art of self-giving love. It flows from dying to self, from laughing at one's own foibles and humbly enduring the foibles of others. Saints aren't so much superstars of holiness as humble sinners, ready to allow God to love them just as they are.”

HOW DID YOU SHARE YOUR FAITH THIS WEEK?

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

Today's Gospel shows another appearance by Jesus to two disciples on their way to Emmaus. This is such a great story. When has your heart burned within you? Perhaps it was hearing a scripture story, or passage, or a Homily. Perhaps it was in conversation with a friend. Perhaps it was when you were gazing at a night sky, or seeing the birth of a newborn baby. What truth was being revealed to you at that time? Faith concerns the heart as well as the mind, and grace abounds if we open our hearts and our eyes. Lord Jesus, you have revealed yourself in the breaking of the bread. Help us to appreciate your presence in the Eucharist. Amen.

Reminder to the Confirmation Class: Wednesday is Rehearsal and Reconciliation. Our evening begins at 6:00p.m. Please meet me in the church. Thank you!

This Thursday we will be celebrating the sacrament of Confirmation with our amazing eighth graders. Confirmation Mass begins at 7:00p.m. The Parish is invited to join us in this great moment for our Parish youth. Veni Sancte Spiritus!

On Behalf of our First Holy Communion Class I would like to share with you that through their Lenten service project the children raised $726.50 for the Open Door Food Pantry Ministry right here in Canton. This is a super fantastic act of generosity by our second graders. HIGH FIVE SECOND GRADE! TAKE A BOW! What an awesome way to serve the Lord and your neighbor! We are so proud of all of you!

We would like to pass on good wishes to our young people who received the sacrament of Baptism, Communion and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil. Congratulations... Damon Hardesty, Melaina Hardesty, John Sinco, Andrew Neal, Madison LeForge, Adrienne Jones, Brionna Jones, welcome to our faith family. Also, Congratulations to Aidan Severy and Taylor Severy who made their First Communion.

It is with great excitement and anticipation I remind everyone Ted and Company will be here on Monday, May 19th. Appetizers will be served from 6:00pm-6:30pm. The performance starts at 6:30p.m. We are looking forward to seeing you all here. This will be a FUN way to finish out our "On the Road" journey.

Have a great week everyone!

Peace and Prayers,

Sabrina Queen

PEACE & JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Attention: COLLEGE BOUND STUDENTS

The Peace & Justice Committee will again award a $500 college grant to the St. John Neumann college student who submits the winning essay describing how their field of study can best foster Catholic Social Teaching. The runner up will receive a check for $250. The essay should be at least 500 words and must be submitted to the parish office or emailed to rem7662@aol.com no later than June 8th. A copy of the Major Themes of Catholic Social Teaching can be obtained by calling R. Martin at 734-455-7662 or email at rem7662@aol.com. The award will be presented at the 10:30 mass on June 22th.

The Peace & Justice Committee would like to thank the parish for its continued support of this program.

"We, the youth of St. John Neumann, strive to be Christ to others.

By reaching out and welcoming all teens, We hope to foster a unique and open environment

In which we promote the morals and teachings of the Catholic church. "

Our love and enthusiasm for God will help us to achieve this mission in everyday life."

YOUTH MINISTRY WITH CHRIS LEACH

BACCALAUREATE MASS— The St. John Neumann Baccalaureate Mass will take place Saturday, June 7th at the 4:30pm Mass. A reception in honor of the graduates will take place immediately following. Graduates can pick up registration packets for Baccalaureate and Newman Connection in the Gathering Space this weekend! Baccalaureate forms are due back on June 1st.

World Youth Day Info Meetings—World Youth Day will take place in Krakow Poland July 20-August 1, 2016. Saint John Neumann hopes to form a group of youth and young adult pilgrims to answer the Holy Father's pilgrimage call. Anyone interested in attending the pilgrimage is encouraged to attend an informational meeting happening this Tuesday, May 6th at 7:00pm. Please contact Chris at cleach@stjohnneumann.us to receive information if you cannot attend this meeting.

ATTENTIONS 8TH GRADERS-- You are invited to start joining the High School Youth Group on Wednesday, May 14th (the first Wednesday after Confirmation). If you cannot make this date, please try to attend another Wednesday in May or a Summer Program activity. More information will be given to you at Confirmation!

DIMENSIONS OF EXCELLENCE

This past year the Archdiocesan Council of Detroit launched a Conference self-evaluation program titled the Dimensions of Excellence. In this program Conferences were asked to appraise how well they followed the core tenets of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, and return their findings. While the Archdiocesan Council of Detroit is proud of all the great works done in the name of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul within the borders of the Archdiocese of Detroit, we would like to give special recognition to the following Conferences for not only being models of Service, but also Friendship and Spirituality.

St. Aidan, Metro West

St. Clement, Metro West

St. Genevieve/St. Maurice, Metro West

St. John Neumann, Metro West

St. Joseph, Oakland

St. Mary's of Redford, Detroit West

St. Peter Claver, Detroit West

Office of Priestly Vocations

May 11, World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Next Sunday is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. How can you nurture vocations to the priesthood or religious life in the home? One way is to encourage your sons and daughters to serve the Church. For those young people who already serve the Church as altar servers, and are finishing 7th grade and older, two days are offered to assist them in discerning God's call in their lives. For the altar girls, the Women Religious Vocation Directors in the Archdiocese of Detroit are hosting God Squad Altar Girls and Sisters at the Mercy Center in Farmington on Saturday, May 31, 2014. For altar boys the second Seminary Day for Altar Boys hosted by the Office of Priestly Vocations will be held at Sacred Heart Major Seminary on Friday, June 20, 2014. Registration and information for each event may be found on our website: www.detroitpriest.com. Follow us on Facebook: Office of Priestly Vocations or Twitter @DetroitPriest.

We have a program called "Constant Contact" which will allow us to send regular emails to you to keep you informed of current events in the Parish. To make this program successful we need your email address. Please take a minute and fill out this form and drop it in the basket or to the Parish Office. If you have already given us your email, please be sure to add us to your contacts so you will receive our emails.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent deaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

Join us we venture to Motor City Casino!!!

Our bus will depart from St. John Neumann's on Wednesday, May 14th at 12:00pm returning approximately 7:00pm. The price of the trip is $20.00 per person and you will receive $30.00 in Casino incentives!

To reserve your spot call Jim or Mary ann Stager at 734-459-2565. Flyers are available in the Gathering Area.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

The Smudski Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations in their home. Thank you!

YOUNG AT HEART

Our next meeting of the Young At Heart group will be held on Thursday, May 8th at 12:30 pm at St. John Neumann Church. We will be playing Bingo and refreshments will be served. Our June luncheon will be held at the Court House Grille in Plymouth and must be prepaid at our May meeting. New members are always welcome. For further information, please call Mary at 734 981 1274.

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:

Neumann's Needlers

Thanks to our creative knitters and crocheters, we were able to donate six beautiful pieces to the March 22 Spring Break event, a benefit for the St Patrick Food Pantry. We are currently working on afghans and lap blankets for veterans, and we continue to collect hats, scarves, and baby blankets. We meet next on May 13 and May 27, 2014 from 7:30 to 9 PM.

JUST A REMINDER!

If you were invited to the Ministry Party on May 16th please RSVP by calling the Parish Office at 734-455-5910 ASAP

Walking In New Life

Please remember in your prayers this week the souls of:
