Hello All!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

Well look at this! It is Memorial Day weekend—WOW! I did not think spring would ever arrive and here we are - it is almost over and summer is about to begin!

Next weekend is the Parish Picnic!!!!!!!!!!!!!! WOOOOO HOOOOOO!!!!!! June 1st, immediately following the 12:30 mass, we will begin!! Everything is going to be outside this year (weather permitting), food and all. This way we can all be together for the picnic rather than a group of people inside and a group of people outside. We are putting up a large tent to sit under to eat. While eating we can watch the fun everyone is having with what ever games and entertainment is out there.

I know the parish council, along with the other commissions, have been working hard to make this day a special one for all of you, so I hope you can set aside some time to come to the picnic and have a GRANDE OLE TIME!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

I also want to than everyone for the well wishes at the celebration of my ordination last weekend, though the actual date is not until the 29th. I thank you all for being a part of my priestly ministry and hopefully serving you to know God in a more personal manner!

With this being a holiday weekend, the offices are going to be closed on Monday, Memorial Day. We are having mass that day but the offices will not be open.

As you may or may not be aware, Pentecost is next weekend and we will be back in Ordinary time after that. I hope you all are allowing yourselves to be filled with the Holy Spirit and listening to whatever it is God is asking you to do!

Peace

Fr Ron Richards

During the month of May I thought it would be nice to meditate on the Litany of Loretto (Litany of the Blessed Virgin Mary). A litany is a form used in ritual prayer using a series of short requests or invocations, each one followed by a response. There are many litanies in all of Christendom- The Litany of the Holy Name; The Litany of the Sacred Heart; and the one we sing at the Easter Vigil: The Litany of Saints.

Lord have mercy on us.
Lord have mercy on us.
 Christ have mercy on us.
Christ have mercy on us.
 Lord have mercy on us.
Lord have mercy on us.

Christ, hear us.
Christ, graciously hear us.

God the Father of Heaven, have mercy on us.

That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Let us pray.

O God, whose only begotten Son, by his life, death and resurrection has purchased for us the rewards of eternal life, grant, we beseech you, that while meditating of the mysteries of the most holy rosary of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we may imitate what they contain and obtain what they promise, through Christ our Lord. FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

Have you seen the Holy Spirit? Really, have you seen the Spirit? probably not. We have bible descriptions of tongues of flame or a freely blowing breeze . That's what talking about the Holy Spirit so difficult: we don't know what the Spirit looks like.

Except that in this week's reading we get two helpful clues that, together, offer a pretty good picture of just what the Holy Spirit looks like.

1. the Holy Spirit looks like an Advocate—the one who stands up for you when you need it; the one who speaks on your behalf; the one who lends you a helping hand, takes your side, and won't leave you while you're down.

2. the Holy Spirit looks like Jesus. The Spirit is "another advocate" because Jesus is the first. The Spirit, Jesus explains, will stay with us just as Jesus the Word made flesh has stayed with us. The Spirit is sent in Jesus' name and reminds us of what he taught. In a very real way, the Spirit connects us with Jesus' presence and helps to keep his promise that he will not leave us orphaned and will come to us.

Simply, the Holy Spirit is an advocate that looks a whole lot like Jesus. Which means that we've actually seen the Spirit lots of times. Anytime someone stands up for another... Anytime someone acts like Jesus... Anytime someone bears the love of Christ to another... we've seen the Holy Spirit.

No wonder, then, that Jesus says, "you know him." Because, as it turns out, the Holy Spirit at one time or another has probably looked a lot like you, even a lot like me, and definitely a lot like each and all of us when we do these things.

So what would it be like, if we considered that the Holy Spirit looks a lot like us when we stand up for others, try to be more like Jesus, and bear Christ's love into the world?

Perhaps, we could discuss about where we've seen this Holy Spirit in the world this week, either through the good we've been blessed to do for others or the good we've been blessed to receive from others.

What would it be like? Well, it'd be like we were able to take one of those huge, indescribable, rather amorphous theological concepts and make it down to earth, concrete, even seriously imaginable. And maybe, just maybe, we would actually keep thinking about how the Holy Spirit is at work in us and through us and all the world. Actually, that would be a work of the Holy Spirit!

ON THIS MEMORIAL DAY

On this Memorial Day, God of all,
grant peace to the souls
of all those soldiers who died in war.
We remember the tears and grief of their families,
The pain of mothers, wives, husbands and children
Who lost precious loved ones.

To build a meaningful memorial to them,
we ask You to give us all the will
to work for peace around the world
so no more sons, daughters, husbands, wives,
fathers, nor mothers
are slaughtered by the weapons of war.
We ask Mary, who held the lifeless body of her son
and was pierced by the sorrow
of his suffering and death,
to grant us the compassion and wisdom to affirm
life
and honor the dead through forgiveness
and peace making.

May God have mercy on the souls of the departed.
Grant them peace, O Lord.

May we have mercy on the living.
Grant us peace, O Lord.
Amen

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

The following second graders celebrated their First Holy Communion the weekend of May 10/11. We would like to welcome them to the Table of the Lord. Congratulations: Isabelle Ahme, Aaron Basel, Alexandra Blackburn, James Carter, Maeve Dennie, Nicholas Gozdor, Joshua Granowicz, Lauren Kudla, Daniel Lasecki, Jacob Lasecki, Megan Lasecki, Carly McClain, Mason Monahan, Michael Nicholas, Emma Niszcak, Conor Przybylo, Ella Rentz and Maya Safadi.

In today's Gospel Jesus talks about the Spirit whom Jesus will send to be with us always. Jesus tells us "keep my commandments." The Ten Commandments can be a challenge. It might be easy for us to avoid killing someone but avoiding things like jealousy, lying, and being rude to others can be a bit more difficult. The Beatitudes might even be a bit harder: being meek, humble, being a peacemaker. Following the great commandments...to love God with everything you got and love one another as yourself probably are the most challenging of all. But Jesus tells us we are not all on our own. We have strength, wisdom and power of the Holy Spirit. St. Augustine once said, "Love God and do what you will." He said this because he understood that if we love God first, then our actions will flow from that love. This doesn't mean we will not sin or make mistakes, but if we have love as the foundation we will know our errors and seek change. Love gives us the strength and energy to do what is needed each day.

Vacation Bible School registration has begun. If you are a high school teen volunteer and need to attend a Called to Serve workshop the next workshop will be at St. Colette in Livonia on May 31st. Call us in the Religious Formation office if you would like to register 734-455-5986. Thank you!

Have a great week everyone and remember a smile is contagious!

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

Thank You

Neumann's Needlers

Thanks to our creative knitters and crocheters, we were able to donate six beautiful pieces to the March 22 Spring Break event, a benefit for the St Patrick Food Pantry. We are currently working on afghans and lap blankets for veterans, and we continue to collect hats, scarves, and baby blankets. We meet next on May 27, 2014 from 7:30 to 9 PM.
