Hello All!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

**rrichards@stjohnneumann.us**

First, my humblest apologize to the VETERANS! I realized on Memorial Day itself we as a parish failed to acknowledge all of our veterans at the masses on the weekend. That was a grave mistake on my part and I am sorry. I am so appreciative of all that Veterans have done to protect all the freedoms we have in our country. One of those freedoms is to practice our faith. Without all you men and women have done in service to our country, we as a people would not be able to experience the lives we have. So THANK YOU!

So the parish picnic is going on! I hope the weather is nice. I say that because I am actually writing this article on Memorial Day and I have no idea what the weather is going to be like on June 1!

I would like to give a thank you to the entire parish for the well wishes on the 10th anniversary of my priesthood—the actually date was May 29th. It seems like yesterday that I was ordained a priest for the Archdiocese of Detroit. It is amazing how time flies and how our lives are changed. When I decided to go into the seminary in 1998, I never saw my life taking the turns and twists it has undergone, while in the seminary and as a priest. 99% of those turns and twists have all been for the good and I hopefully look forward to many more years of unexpected joy.

If there is anything I have learned over these 10 years of priesthood and 6 years of seminary is this: if you turn it over to God it will work out; when you don't, trouble seems to follow! So I say to all of you, whatever it is you are doing in your life, ask God to guide you through the process. When you do this, your lives will be on the track that God has set for you!

Peace to you all

Fr Ron Richards

Final chance to register for T-ball is this weekend. Registration forms are available in the Parish Office.

June 9 is the the feast day of St. Ephrem. It is believed that he lived from 306-373. He was born at Nisibis, Mesopotamia. Now it is believed that both his parents were Christians. Although he was famous in his lifetime as a teacher, orator & defender of the faith it was his nickname that I find interesting: The Harp of the Holy Ghost. His homilies & hymns enriched the liturgies of the time. Ephrem was actually the one who introduced hymns into worship & used them for instruction. In 1920 Pope Benedict XV made him Doctor of the Church.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

The universal call to holiness emerges in chapter 2 of The Dogmatic Constitution on the Church at Vatican II. There, the faithful are declared to be “the people of God” (#9). No longer merely “subjects” of the Church, now this people is the Church itself. The vocation of each Christian, it follows, is to grow into intimacy with Christ, and therefore, into ever-greater holiness. Chapter 5 of this Constitution is entitled “The Universal Call to Holiness.” In this chapter every person in the church is called to holiness. Such holiness has less to do with perfection and more to do with a lifelong process of seeking God through the person of Jesus Christ in and through the church. This call to holiness is one of the great themes running through the Council.

The Pastoral Constitution on the Church in the Modern World says that humans are the very image of God and that deep within the human conscience is a voice that continually calls us to love and do what is good and to avoid evil (#16). We faithful are to show God’s presence so clearly that all people can know that their dignity and destiny rests in God. Many people today have that deep longing but are not aware it is God for whom they are searching.

The Council documents return to this theme often, calling all in the Church to share in this holiness: bishops, pastors, seminarians, religious, catechumens, lay people – everyone! Indeed, helping members of our parishes grow in such holiness is the high calling of Vatican II to us all.

Let’s consider -

1. We cannot assume that everyone who is baptized has experienced an encounter with Christ.
2. The encounter with Christ is also and almost always an encounter with the Church, meaning the church which is the People of God.
3. The encounter leads to a turning of the heart, a movement of the Spirit within us, leading us to intimacy with Christ and love for the Church.
4. The “moment” of this turning is known to us as that point in our lives when we die to ourselves and share our faith with others. The pathway to the heart of the Lord is seldom traveled alone.

5. Most of the time, this “moment” occurs in the context of faith sharing, a sacrament, or another time when we are in touch with our faith in the Parishes can provide opportunities that give rise to the possibility of such conversion of the heart. We should not assume that everyone who comes to us for Mass, faith formation, assistance, or pastoral care has had this experience.

From the General Directory for Catechesis

“Conversion is first.

It is the full and sincere adherence to the person of Christ and the decision to walk in his footsteps.

Faith is a encounter with Jesus Christ,

the making of oneself a disciple

and it demands a permanent commitment to think, judge, and live like him.” #53

Today's Gospel is from John's account of Jesus's Ascension. Can anyone see a connection between today's Gospel and the Creed? This week take some time and pray the Apostle's Creed and share with one another how it contains the essential beliefs of our Catholic faith.

A few weeks ago I wrote about putting a Religious Formation "Cheer Team" together for the Fall. This would be a team of 6-8 volunteers to help us with any special Formation Events, i.e. First Reconciliation Reception, Confirmation Reception, Class Christmas Break celebration, End of the year Catechist/student celebration, and a few other possible celebrations. If you have a gift or talent for shopping, preparing snacks, serving and/or decorating we need YOU! If you are interested please call us in the Religious Formation office 724-455-5986. Thank you to Linda for being our first volunteer. YAY!

Have a great week everyone and remember a smile is contagious!

Focus: HOPE

Celebrating Diversity Since 1968

January 27, 2014

Father Ron Richards
Pastor
St. John Neumann Parish
44800 Warren Rd.
Canton, MI 48187-1857

Dear Fr. Richards,

I want to express my deepest thanks for your generous gift to Focus: HOPE. Your contribution directly benefits people in our community who need our assistance. I truly appreciate the trust you place in Focus: HOPE by supporting our education, community development and food programs.

With your support, Focus: HOPE is able to assist thousands of people each year. Our food program assists 37,000 seniors and 5,000 mothers and children each month; our education programs enroll about 1,000 people each year; and our HOPE Village Initiative impacts hundreds of families and children in our neighborhood.

All this work benefits our community and breaks through racial and economic barriers. It would not be possible without your generosity.

Most sincerely,

Stephen C. Ragan

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer's Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? Facilitator Rosemarie Shim, social worker and parishioner, has 14 years experience working with Alzheimer patients and their families. The Alzheimer's Support group meets the third Thursday of each month at 7:30pm.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Rosemarie at 734-981-0556.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.
