Hello All!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

First and foremost, I want to say what an AWESOME PARISH PICNIC we had last week! The weather could not have been better, and having everybody outside made the day much more energetic. Not only did we have more people at the picnic this year than in the past, but also everybody stayed around and socialized for a long time! I was pleased, as were the people who planned the day!

I also want to thank everyone who had a hand in putting the picnic together. This is a big undertaking and I thought it went off very well. At our last parish council meeting, on June 18th, we are going to “debrief” the event and see how we can make it better, but what a nice afternoon we all had.

As you all know this is Pentecost weekend, and on Saturday ordinations for the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Detroit occurred. We have 4 new priests called to serve for the people of the Archdiocese. Keep them in your prayers as they begin their perspective ministries!

As you head home this weekend reflect on the following:

Describe “filled with the Holy Spirit.”

Can you explain “in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body”?

What is John saying when he writes, “he breathed on them and said to them, ‘Receive the Holy Spirit’”?

“The problem of forming Christ in us is not to be solved by our own efforts. It is not a matter of studying the Gospels and then working to put our ideas into practice, although we should try and do that too, but always under the guidance of grace, in complete subjection to the Holy Spirit.

For if we depend on our own ideas, our own judgment and our own efforts to reproduce the life of Christ, we will only act out some pious charade which will ultimately scare everybody we meet because it will be so stiff and artificial and so dead.

It is the Spirit of God that must teach us Who Christ is and form Christ in us and transform us into other Christs” (Merton, Thomas New Seeds of Contemplation)

Peace

Next weekend we are singing Amen. El Cuerpo de Cristo. I find the melody very beautiful. This hymn is one of Fr. Ron's favorites. The line that really strikes me is: Eating your body, drinking your blood, we become what we receive. Here is some information about the composer off the Oregon catholic Press website: John Schiavone has served as a parish priest for over 37 years in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, taking a full and active part in parish life. A source of his musical inspiration has always been the liturgical life of the Church, at which he regularly presides and preaches. John builds his melodies along the lines and modes of Gregorian chant. "I want to keep that 'church' sound in my music and, at the same time make it accessible to the average worshiper," he says. His bilingual English/Spanish pieces are often used at diocesan celebrations across the country, especially the communion hymn "Amén. El Cuerpo de Cristo," which was included in the program for the Mass at Yankee Stadium celebrated by Pope Benedict XVI during his pastoral visit to New York in 2008. John served for 12 years as pastor at St. Gregory the Great Parish in Whittier, California. He has recently begun a new assignment as pastor at St. Maria Goretti Parish in Long Beach, California.

Refrain:

Amén. El Cuerpo de Cristo
 Amen. The Body of Christ
 Amén. La Sangre del Señor
 Amen. The Blood of the Lord.
 Eating your body
 Cuando comemos tu cuerpo
 Drinking your blood.
 Y bebemos tu sangre.
 We become what we receive.
 Nos coverimos en lo que recibimos.
 Amén. Amén.

Verse 1: Amén.
 We remember your dying.
 Recordamos tu muerte
 And your rising.
 Y resurrección.
 Amén.

Y Contigo, Señor.

And with you Lord.
 Resucitamos
 We rise.

Verse 2: Amén
 Now we offer the sacrifice.
 Ofrecemos el sacrificio
 You gave us.
 que Tú nos diste.
 Amén.
 Teofrecemos, Señor.
 We offer you, Lord
 Todo lo que somos
 All that we are.

Verse 3: Amén
 Lord, you make us one body.
 Tú Señor nos haces un solo cuerpo
 And one spirit.
 Y un solo espíritu
 Amén
 En tu cuerpo, Señor
 In your body, Lord
 Un pueblo santo
 A holy people.

Verse 4: Amén
 We find you when we serve the poor
 And lowly
 Cuando servimos a los pobres
 Y a los humildes te encontramos a ti.
 Amén
 A ti mismo servimos.
 You yourself we serve
 En los pobres.
 In the poor.

Verse 5: Amén
 We look forward to your
 Anhelamos tu regreso
 Return in glory
 En la Gloria.
 Amén
 Esperamos el día
 We hope for the day
 De tu venida.
 Of your coming.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

Jesus commissioned his followers to partake in his Messianic ministry. At the time of Jesus, Jews believed the Messiah mission at the end of time was universal. They believed the Messiah would go out from Jerusalem to the known world, spread the Good News of salvation, and incite a massive pilgrimage to Palestine. As he gathered all Jews spread throughout the world home, he would call all peoples to Jerusalem so they, too, could worship the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. In Jerusalem, the Messiah would judge this massive throng in a Final Judgment, the Day of Yahweh.

The Resurrection appearance marked the starting point for this process. From Jerusalem, Jesus sent his followers out as missionaries to the known world. They would testify to the Risen Christ as the Good News of salvation. And the Good News would start the journey home for both Jews and Gentiles.

What happened to the Jerusalem pilgrimage? There were two possible answers. First, the Romans leveled Jerusalem in response to the Jewish revolt in 66 A.D. Both the city and the Christian mother church turned to rubble. The Jerusalem church could no longer commission missionaries.

Second, Christians spiritualized the pilgrimage. The return home always included the theme of repentance; the sinner who walked away from God's dwelling place turned around and journeyed back. For the Christian, a heavenly Jerusalem became an abode for God. The sinner could find earthly reflection of Jerusalem in the local church community. Hence, conversion and repentance were close to home.

So, the followers saw their vocation within God's plan of salvation. The Father sent the Son into the world to lead everyone back to the Father. Jesus would involve his followers in that same work. Since they witnessed Jesus risen, his followers would witness to others.

But Jesus gave them more than a witness. He gave them the Holy Spirit. The breathe and command to "Receive the Holy Spirit" must be seen as two parts of the same action. "Them" (the followers) was the object of "Jesus breathed on" and the indirect object of "Jesus said." As Jesus breathed the Holy Spirit out, the text inferred, his follower would breath it in, just as Jesus commanded.

Once the followers breathed in God's Spirit, they shared in the Messiah's power of judgment with the power to declare sins forgiven. John 20:23 referred to the followers' preaching of the Good News. Missionaries like the apostles and Paul, proclaimed a reconciliation of sinners to the Father through Christ; when sinners repented and converted to Christianity, they were cleansed in the waters of baptism. In the context of this verse, the process of reconciliation began with the proclamation of the Good News (declare sins forgiven) and continued through baptism (they are forgiven).

Pentecost revealed the power of God's forgiveness, his Spirit. The Spirit of God is personal. The Spirit establishes a link between the believer and the person of the Father through the person of the Son. And the Spirit makes that link personal. It is a link of love, hope, and joy based upon personal forgiveness. Let us rejoice in the Spirit, the third person of the Trinity!

BLESSING OF GRADUATES

God of all knowledge and wisdom,

You give us the capacity to discover and to learn, to understand and to reflect upon your creation.

Bless these graduates who stand before us as people of knowledge.

They have been challenged by their teachers and classmates to develop the desire for knowledge and the skill of critical thinking.

Essays, tests, research papers, field trips, class presentations, projects and textbooks, lunch rooms, car pools and friendships have expanded their awareness of your world and uncovered their many talents.

As this chapter of their lives closes, as they move on from school and classmate, be their friend and their guide.

May they be grateful for the support of family and teachers and may they use their knowledge to develop your world of peace and justice.

We pray to you, O loving God, Father, Son and Spirit, You who care for us today and every day of our lives.

Amen.

OPEN DOOR MINISTRY

May 24, 2014

Sabrina Queen & Second Grade Class
St. John Neumann Parish
44800 Warren Road
Canton, MI 48187

Dear Ms. Queen and Second Graders,

We thank you so very much for your donation to Open Door Ministry of $731.50. That $731.50 will enable us to purchase over $7315 worth of food that will be distributed to the many needy families in our community. That is awesome!! Can you just imagine how much food that is? Since we are able to buy food at a very low price that amount of money that you worked so hard to raise will allow us to purchase over 4000 lbs. of food. That is as much as a car weighs. If you took all of that food and put it in grocery carts at Meijer or Walmart it would fill well over 700 carts! Can you imagine the cashier's face if you got in line with 700 carts of food? But thankfully we are able to buy the food from Gleaners and they deliver it in a large truck right to our warehouse. Then we put it in bags and boxes and pass it along to needy families.

We have about 475 families come to Open Door Ministry each week to receive food. That is about 1350 people and includes 500 children. That is a lot of mouths to feed. But we are so very blessed to have children like you help to feed families who are in need. Some of them have parents who might have just got out of the hospital or have lost their jobs.

God has given us instructions to help those people who are in need. He said that in the Bible so we are so happy and blessed that you children have done just that. But what is even more amazing is the amount of money that you raised. We know that you had to do a lot of hard work to raise that much money. I don't think we have ever had children raise that much money before. You are to be congratulated for a job well done. You did an amazing job! Thank you so very much!!!

In His Service,

Steve and Jackie Darr
Directors

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer’s Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? Facilitator Rosemarie Shim, social worker and parishioner, has 14 years experience working with Alzheimer patients and their families. The Alzheimer’s Support group meets the third Thursday of each month at 7:30pm.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Rosemarie at 734-981-0556.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Audrey Pawenski

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations in their home.

Thank you!
