Hello All!

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

r-richards@stjohnneumann.us

Well this weekend we are celebrating the Most Holy Trinity! This is the greatest Dogma of our faith! Here is a little history on this Solemnity and its institution!

At the beginning of the Church, no special day was given to the Holy Trinity, but as the result of a spreading heresy in the Church, known as the Arian Heresy, the day came into fruition.

You may be asking, "What is the Arian Heresy?" Well, here is the answer! Arianism is defined as teachings attributed to Arius. What the followers of Arius believed is that The Son of God is subordinate to the Father, not equal. He, meaning Christ, was created by God just as you and I are created by God. But in the Holy Trinity, our dogmatic belief is that there are THREE distinct persons, but ONE God, all equal, but different. When I use the word Dogmatic, this means, in a nutshell, a belief that cannot be doubted. Sometimes people think the Catholic Church is full of dogmatic beliefs but this is not the case. There are only a handful of things out there that are dogmatic. The Holy Trinity is one of those, the belief in the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist would be another.

We cannot always clearly explain a dogmatic belief and the Trinity would be an example of this, as it is a true Mystery in the Church, but it is fundamental in our belief and something we accept in our hearts.

In a couple weeks, we have Vacation Bible School going on— AWESOME!!!!!!! That week is always a lot of fun and filled with just some good loving from GOD!

As a reminder to the 8:30 mass crowd, when you are not seeing me for a bit, I have not disappeared. Remember, as the Chaplain for the Tigers, whenever they are in town on the weekend, I have mass for them and the staff on the Sunday morning they are in town at 9:15. So on those mornings when you don't see me, I am down at the stadium celebrating mass, I am not sleeping in or on vacation. Oh vacation how nice that would be!

As you ride home today, ponder the following:

Who always treats you with kindness and faithfulness?

If you were able to look past the superficiality that is the world and peer into the depth that is your being, are you able to find a peace residing in that place?

What is the only way out of the chaos and conflict that is the world? How do you find this way?

"When I consent to the will and mercy of God as it comes to me in the events of life appealing to my inner self and awakening my faith, I break through the superficial exterior appearances that forms my routine vision of the world and my own self, and I find myself in the presence of hidden majesty. It may appear to me that this majesty and presence is something objective, "outside myself." ... Yet this is a majesty that we do not see with our eyes and it is within ourselves. It is the mission of the Word and Spirit, from the Father, in the depths of my own being. It is a majesty communicated to us, shared with us, so that our whole being is filled with the gift of glory and responds with adoration." (Thomas Merton,, New Seeds of Contemplation)

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish
but might have eternal life.

We can find these famous lines in John 3, where John set God's messenger (Jesus) against a teacher of the Law (Nicodemus). In John's mind, Jesus spoke for the Christian audience the evangelist addressed. Nicodemus represented opposing Jewish communities lead by Pharisees. By the time John's gospel first appeared in a complete form (100-115 A.D.), Christians not only professed a new Messiah; they proclaimed a new spirituality. God created a new, spiritual relationship with all people (not just Jews). And this new relationship bypassed the Jewish Law. No wonder the Law-keeping Pharisees (represented by Nicodemus) didn't understand!

Jesus told Nicodemus about salvation. Salvation meant spiritual rebirth which God's Spirit initiated. And only God's messenger, his Son, brought the message. Everyone could see God's salvation when the Son was lifted up (i.e., Jesus died on the cross;). But, this required faith.

Faith saw that God treated his people with love. This was the basis for salvation. But love required sacrifice (otherwise, we could not call it love). So, God showed his love by giving the world his Son. Those who trusted the sacrificed Son would possess eternal life.

John's gospel painted the universal gift of salvation, in spite of the fact that most people would reject the message, and those who preached it. Indeed, John's community lived a sheltered existence, in fear of Roman authorities and Jewish competitors. The spirit of isolation tempted the community. The gospel itself described the faith and the lifestyle of the Christian in terms of good and bad, light and dark, "us vs. them." The community could easily fall into the notion that they enjoyed God's favor; everyone else lost out.

But, the community built on faith in God's love rejected narcissism. God's love inspired hope, opened vistas to new possibilities for those who lived in the "world." God meant his love for all. He invited all to a love relationship. So, his Son came not to condemn but to save.

While God began the initiative when he commissioned (i.e., sent) his Son, the Son remained the active player. He did not condemn but became the instrument that brought people back to God. As Jesus did, so must the community do. They must act in a way that does not

BLESSING FOR ALL FATHERS

God of all love,
we ask you to bless all fathers,
grandfathers, godfathers, adoptive fathers,

and those men who treat us with fatherly care,
this day and every day.

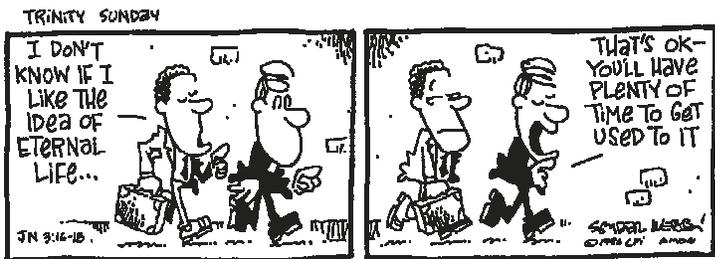

Their love for us
has been a sign of your love for us.
Their continuous concern for our needs and well-being mirrors your care for us.

Bless them this day
with your strength and your love,
with your understanding and your compassion.

Bless them with joy, love, laughter and pride in their children and surround them with many good friends.

Bless them with happiness and good health,
with peace and with contentment that they may live with you forever.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Today is Holy Trinity Sunday, when we celebrate the power and relationship of God the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit. How important is it to remember that God sent his Son Jesus to the world because he so loved the world! At times, it may be easy to overlook all that is good and beautiful in the world. The news and events in our lives keep us focused on what is wrong, what is in need of healing. Our task as Christians is to align our actions with Jesus, to make the world better so that it reflects God's intention for creation. Recall that when God created the earth and all that is in it, God saw that "it was very good."

Religious Formation is gearing up for VBS! "Weird Animals" will be taking over the week of June 23-27. Spaces are available. Also, new this year we will be hosting Childcare for our volunteers. If you would like this service we ask that you please call and register. Thanks!

Spotlight this week is on our third graders. During the last week of Religious Education classes, one class of third graders were asked to define a few words. We would like to share their responses. These responses were taken directly from the student's definition cards. They worked in groups.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent deaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

The Dark Family

For hosting the Chalice and Praying for Vocations in their home.

Thank you!

To sign up to host the Vocations Chalice, please email your request to:
