BULLETIN ARTICLE DEADLINES

If you have an article you would like in the bulletin, please submit it to Liz at lhorka@stjohnneumann.us or drop off in the Parish office. All articles must be submitted at least 10 days prior to the date of the publication. Every attempt will be made to honor all requests; however, the paper is now smaller in size so there could occasionally be a space issue.

If you have any questions, please contact the front office.

IT'S MY OPINION AND I HAVE ONE!
rrichards@stjohnneumann.us

Hi to you all!

Well I hope this week finds you all well! If not, I hope the news I am about to provide you with here will help you out!!

As you all know about 5 years ago the addition put on to the church, which included the youth room, the gym, the renovation of the old gym into the social hall, etc. was completed. Since that time we have been paying off the loan for that project. We were scheduled to have that loan paid off in July of 2015. Well - this month we paid the loan off in full!!

What does that mean? We are debt free!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I am so happy about that and I hope you are all as pleased as me. I thank all of you for the support you gave to the building project and the aid in fulfilling the payment of the debt! I do think we need to have some formal mortgage burning ceremony/party, don't you??? We will figure that out and let you know when that will happen!

So summer is flying by! Can you believe that last Friday was the 4th? I hope that all of you are having a nice, safe summer. So many of you are in and out throughout the summer, as I am in and out with the Tigers, that sometimes I go weeks without seeing some of you. I just want you to know that even if I do not see you, I am praying for you all. Should you need anything just call or email me, because I am here for you!

Peace to you all

Fr Ron Richards

Psalm 139 is one of my favorite scripture passages. This weekend the chorale is singing a setting based on this psalm:

LORD, you have probed me, you know me: you know when I sit and stand;
you understand my thoughts from afar. You sift through my travels and my rest;
with all my ways you are familiar. Even before a word is on my tongue, LORD, you know it all. Behind and before you encircle me and rest your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me, far too lofty for me to reach.
Where can I go from your spirit? From your presence, where can I flee?
If I ascend to the heavens, you are there; if I lie down in Sheol, there you are.
If I take the wings of dawn and dwell beyond the sea, Even there your hand guides me, your right hand holds me fast. If I say, "Surely darkness shall hide me, and night shall be my light"*—Darkness is not dark for you, and night shines as the day. Darkness and light are but one. You formed my inmost being; you knit me in my mother's womb. I praise you, because I am wonderfully made; wonderful are your works! My very self you know. My bones are not hidden from you, When I was being made in secret, fashioned in the depths of the earth. Your eyes saw me unformed; in your book all are written down; my days were shaped, before one came to be. How precious to me are your designs, O God; how vast the sum of them! Were I to count them, they would outnumber the sands; when I complete them, still you are with me. When you would destroy the wicked, O God, the bloodthirsty depart from me! Your foes who conspire a plot against you are exalted in vain. Do I not hate, LORD, those who hate you? Those who rise against you, do I not loathe? With fierce hatred I hate them, enemies I count as my own.
Probe me, God, know my heart; try me, know my thoughts. See if there is a wicked path in me; lead me along an ancient path.*

Neumann's Needlers

A big thanks to all of you industrious knitters and crocheters! Last month we were able to donate 15 afghans to the VA Hospital in Ann Arbor and several baby blankets and hats to the U of M Newborn Intensive Care Unit. We continue to collect hats, scarves, baby blankets, lap blankets and afghans. We meet next on Tuesday July 8 and Tuesday July 22, 2014 from 7:30 to 9 PM. All are invited--young and old, male and female, beginners and veterans.

For many of us, Summer means travel, recreation, picnics, or family outings. Many others, however, are robbed of Summer fun by illness, injury or surgery. Each day the Southeastern Michigan Red Cross Blood Services must collect approximately 800 pints of blood to meet the needs of hospital patients in our community.

You can help these Summer blood needs by donating when the Red Cross bloodmobile comes to our church on Sunday, July 20. The hours will be from 8:30am to 2:15pm.

Remember there are no holidays or vacations when it comes to blood needs!

Please register at www.redcrossblood.org Sponsor Code: CCU or sign up in the Gathering Area.

FAITH WORKS

Gene Kijek

I spent a week at a scripture workshop with 2 renown international presenters. As usual at these kind of weeks, my knowledge was broadened and my faith deepened. However, the single most significant insight concerned ministry to Catholics in Israel.

David Mark Neuhaus sj was one of the presenters. He is an Israeli Jesuit Catholic priest who serves as the Patriarchal Vicar for the Hebrew-speaking Catholic communities in Israel as well as coordinator of the migrant pastoral center in Tel Aviv, Our Lady Woman of Valor.

He teaches Scripture at the Seminary of the Latin Patriarchate of Jerusalem and in the Religious Studies Department at Bethlehem University.

He completed a BA, MA and PhD (Political Science) at Hebrew University, Jerusalem. He then completed degrees in theology in Paris (Centre Sevres) and in Scripture in Rome (Pontifical Biblical Institute). He was ordained to the priesthood in Jerusalem by the Patriarch of Jerusalem in 2000.

The Hebrew-Catholic Vicariate

The Apostolate of Saint James the Apostle, approved by the Patriarch Alberto Gori on February 11, 1955, was founded in order to answer the pastoral needs of Hebrew-speaking Catholics, Jews and non-Jews.

The three main missions of the vicariate are:
1. To establish and nurture Hebrew-speaking Catholic communities in the state of Israel for Catholics believers integrated into the life of Israeli Jewish society.

2. To serve as a bridge between the Universal Church and the people of Israel by strengthening the relationship of Jews and Christians and sharpening the Church's awareness of her Jewish roots.

3. To bear witness to values of peace and justice, forgiveness and reconciliation within a context of violence and war.

Today, there is a Hebrew-speaking community in four major cities: Jerusalem, Tel Aviv-Jaffa, Haifa and Beersheva. The Vicariate includes two Russian communities whose members are integrated into Israeli society.

Our Lady Woman of Valor Pastoral Center for Migrant Workers fills an overwhelming need among Tel Aviv's diverse and growing Roman Catholic migrant community.

Each week, the church holds five "Sunday" Masses — though only one of them actually takes place on Sunday. The rest are held Saturday, which is Israel's Sabbath and the only day migrants have off from work. Masses are celebrated in the languages of the migrants — Tagalog and English for the Filipino community, Konkani and Malayalam for the Indians and Sinhalese for the Sri Lankans.

There are Catholics here from Eritrea, Ghana and Nigeria, in addition to those from Latin America and Eastern Europe. Taken together, the center serves more than a thousand migrant workers, a sliver of the 60,000 Catholic migrants living in the country.

Some live in Israel legally; others have overstayed their legal permits and have no hope of becoming citizens of Israel.

Of the migrants, 60,000 are Catholic, which is more than double the number of Israeli Catholic citizens.

The split-level hall holds only 250 people, and each service is packed to overflowing. But it's an improvement over the previous gathering space, a bomb shelter.

But the new space is already overflowing. At a recent 5 p.m. Mass, people pushed their way into the back of the hall and the corners of the second level. When that was full, they lined the steps between the two levels, hunched on the railing.

The push to establish the center came from recognizing a threefold need. The migrants needed a place to pray, give their children a Catholic education and needed social support, especially health care and child care.

Queen's Quotes from Religious Formation

Greetings and Salutations,

Happy July! Only 173 days until Christmas! Woot woot!

A few weeks ago we celebrated Pentecost. With its passing we are ready for summertime. We begin to celebrate this wonderful season with bare feet, bright sunshine, summer sports, trips to the library, and visits with friends and relatives. The world is rich, green and colorful, filled with adventures and surprises. As we now have some time to renew, relax, and enjoy, let us keep Jesus close to us.

The Religious Formation Office will be closed July 7 – Aug 3, 2014. The staff and I are taking some leisure time. With that being said, I will be in a couple times a week to check messages. So if you need us just give us a call and leave a message and I will return your call. Religious Formation Registration packets for the 2014-2015 school year will be available August 4th. Thank you!

I would like to send a special thank you out to Judy Harris and Jodi Plopan for coming to our rescue last Wednesday and Thursday to assist in Site One of Vacation Bible School. Thank you Ladies, you are "Amazing" (just like the song, lol).

Have a blessed week everyone and let the SONshine in.

Peace and Prayers,

Sabrina Queen

“Summertime Adult Faith Formation” using technology

This summer, as you travel and spend time away from home and St. John Neumann Church, take along your daily devotionals, Mass readings, and Bible. Keeping “in touch” with your Catholic Faith is as easy as bringing along your smart phone, tablet, laptop, etc.

Smart phones:

Check out Catholic aps for the daily Mass Readings, Liturgy of the Hours, Saints, Confession examination of conscience, Praying the Rosary, Praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet ... Most are free.

Online: Receive daily meditations or Novena in your email box.

Flocknote.com (Catechism of the Catholic Church in one year)

Uscsb.org (US Conference of Catholic Bishops (A Daily Reflection Video on the Daily Readings.)

PrayMoreNovenas.com (Novenas)

Richard Rohr, Center for Action and Contemplation (meditations)

Sign up for a home based class at “Catholic Home Study Service”: <http://www.amm.org/chss/chss.asp>

While you are on the internet, here are a few of the many sites to find meditations based on the daily Mass Readings when you want (not sent to your email):

<http://www.livingfaith.com/> (Living Faith)

<http://www.presentationministries.com/obob/obob.asp> (One Bread, One Body)

Facebook members: A daily meditation will come to your page by “liking” these FB pages:

Catholic Company, Morning Prayer

Ignatius Press

The Catholic Rose

National Shrine of St. Jude

Dominican Sisters of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist

There are many more Catholic pages to “like” on FB. Have fun finding them.

Happy Summer “Faith Forming”! Sharlene, Adult Faith Formation Committee

Four million Americans are afflicted with Alzheimer’s Disease. Do you have a parent, spouse, or loved one affected by this dreaded disease? Need facts or an understanding ear to listen? Facilitator Rosemarie Shim, social worker and parishioner, has 14 years experience working with Alzheimer patients and their families. The Alzheimer’s Support group meets the third Thursday of each month at 7:30pm.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call Rosemarie at 734-981-0556.

What exactly is Grief Support? It is an opportunity to talk about your loss, to express your grief, ask questions, and support through your grieving process. It is for people who have lost someone in their lives. All are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

FOR AN APPOINTMENT:

1st and 3rd Thursday mornings at 10:00am, please call Dee O’Flynn at 734-453-0829.

2nd and 4th Tuesday evenings at 7:00pm, please call Cindy Pronze at 734-673-3936.

For special programs for children and teens, please call Regina Adams for an appointment at 313-268-6951.

Vocations Chalice

A Program of Awareness and Prayer for Vocations

The Vocations Chalice is a tangible way of increasing awareness of vocations to the priesthood, the permanent diaconate, and the consecrated life. Images create attitudes, and attitudes lead to actions. Children will be asking questions and more people will be talking about vocations, and the priesthood, in particular.

St. John Neumann Parish gratefully acknowledges

Ancient Order of Hibernians

The Ancient Order of Hibernians is a great Irish-American Catholic organization (website: www.aoh.com). We are dedicated to living our motto of "Friendship, Unity and Christian Charity" while promoting the Irish culture. Men older than 16 who have some Irish heritage and are a practicing Catholic are most welcome to join in our many activities including monthly meetings in Plymouth. You can learn more by contacting Mike Riley at (734) 377-8734 or mriley44@yahoo.com

ST. JOHN NEUMANN'S THIRD ANNUAL CHRISTMAS IN JULY

July 12th-July 27th, you will see our Jesse Tree set up to help our local Plymouth-Canton Salvation Army Pantry. There is great need during the summer months to help those within our community. Please take the time to take some tags and return the gifts under the tree or place the cards in the basket before July 27th. St. John Neumann is truly making a difference. Thank you for your generosity!
